20 form of government, and having a population of not less than ten 21 thousand five hundred (10,500) nor more than eleven thousand 22 (11,000), according to the federal census of 1950;

23 (d) Any municipality, having an aldermanic commission
24 or city manager form of government, and having a population of not 25 less than three thousand eight hundred eighty-one (3,881) at the 26 1960 federal census, and situated on the Mississippi Gulf Coast;

27 (e) Any municipality with its corporate limits being 28 bounded on one (1) side by the Mississippi River and being located 29 in a county having an assessed valuation in excess of Forty 30 Million Dollars ($40,000,000.00) but less than Fifty Million
31 Dollars ($50,000,000.00) and having a total population in excess 32 of thirty-seven thousand five hundred (37,500), according to the 33 latest federal census; * * *

34 (f) Any municipality, operating under special charter, 35 and in which there is located a state-supported college for 36 women; * * *

37 (g) Any municipality having a population of more than 38 ten thousand (10,000) according to the federal census of 1970,
39 which is located within a Class 1 county in which U.S. Highway 51
40 and U.S. Highway 98 intersect and bounded on the south by the 41 State of Louisiana; and

42 (h) Any municipality, bordering on the Escatawpa River,
43 having an aldermanic commission form of government and having a 44 population of not less than seventeen thousand eight hundred 45 thirty-seven (17,837) according to the 1990 federal census.

46 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from 47 and after July 1, 1999.
