1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION DECLARING MARCH 26, 1999, AS STAND UP
2 FOR RURAL MISSISSIPPI DAY.

3 WHEREAS, there are over sixty not-for-profit community-based 4 development groups hard at work to improve housing and economic 5 conditions in Mississippi's rural communities, while preserving 6 their natural and cultural heritage, and the values and quality of 7 life that define rural Mississippi; and

8 WHEREAS, Mississippi's not-for-profit community-based 9 developers have been duly recognized as leaders in development in 10 Mississippi, and their effort and determination are appreciated by 11 members of the Mississippi Legislature and the thousands of 12 Mississippians they represent; and

13 WHEREAS, Mississippi community-based developers have 14 demonstrated their ability to address the needs of Mississippi's 15 rural population for affordable housing, economic opportunity and 16 essential services when given the resources to do the job by 17 having developed housing units, helped Mississippians buy homes, 18 assisted businesses and created jobs; and

19 WHEREAS, in furtherance of these efforts, Mississippi's 20 community-based development groups support the Stand Up for Rural 21 America campaign, a national initiative to strengthen rural 22 community-based development organizations and secure additional 23 federal, banking and philanthropic resources to help them do their 24 work; and

25 WHEREAS, to promote greater awareness of the needs of rural 26 Mississippians, Mississippi's community-based development

27 organizations and Stand Up for Rural America are recognizing March
