5 by Georgia Pacific in the 1880's; and

14 daily, and freight trains still run through North Carrollton each 15 day; and

29 available at the Dean Hotel; and

30 WHEREAS, although the train whistles are less frequent and 31 the stores, gins, oil mill, hotel and livery stables that rose and 32 thrived in the early decades are all gone, the quiet little town 33 of nearly 600 residents didn't suffer the same fate as some 34 communities from the loss of the passenger trains; shops and banks
35 still line its business district and churches and schools remain 36 an integral part of a vital community; and

37 WHEREAS, there is no longer much resemblance to the original 38 town, with its muddy dirt road through the business district which 39 had an artisan well in the middle with troughs for watering mules 40 and horses; and

41 WHEREAS, a biracial committee was appointed to prepare for 42 this momentous occasion; and

43 WHEREAS, the anniversary will be observed on Saturday, April 44 3rd, in order to be as inclusive as possible and allow as many of 45 North Carrollton's citizens and friends to attend as possible; and

46 WHEREAS, many activities are planned by the committee
47 overseeing the centennial celebration; and

48 WHEREAS, the 100th birthday party will begin with a parade at 49 10:00 a.m., with opening ceremonies at 11:00 a.m. and a street
50 festival, which will close at 4:00 p.m.; and

51 WHEREAS, merchants, churches and citizens are sprucing up the 52 town for the big day and preparing for special sidewalk sales,
53 bake sales and other food sales, along with refreshments provided 54 by the town and various entertainment acts; and

55 WHEREAS, elementary school-aged children will participate in 56 a mass balloon release, and every single citizen of North
57 Carrollton who is 80 or more years of age has been specially 58 invited to ride in the parade; and

59 WHEREAS, despite the changes of the past 100 years, North 60 Carrollton still bustles with activity; and

61 WHEREAS, it is the desire of the Mississippi State Senate to 62 congratulate the Town of North Carrollton on the occasion of its 63 100th anniversary:
