HOUSE BILL NO. 1168

1 AN ACT TO AMEND SECTIONS 93-5-1 AND 93-5-2, MISSISSIPPI CODE
2 OF 1972, TO REQUIRE COUNSELING FOR THE MINOR CHILDREN OF PARENTS 3 WHO ARE SEEKING A DIVORCE AND FOR THE PARENTS BEFORE A DECREE OF 4 DIVORCE CAN BE GRANTED; AND FOR RELATED PURPOSES.

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI:

6 SECTION 1. Section 93-5-1, Mississippi Code of 1972, is 7 amended as follows:

8 93-5-1. Divorces from the bonds of matrimony may be decreed
9 to the injured party for any one or more of the following twelve 10 (12) causes, viz:

11 First. Natural impotency.

12 Second. Adultery, unless it should appear that it was 13 committed by collusion of the parties for the purpose of procuring 14 a divorce, or unless the parties cohabited after a knowledge by 15 complainant of the adultery.

16 Third. Being sentenced to any penitentiary, and not pardoned
17 before being sent there.

18 Fourth. Wilful, continued and obstinate desertion for the 19 space of one (1) year.

20 Fifth. Habitual drunkenness.

21 Sixth. Habitual and excessive use of opium, morphine or 22 other like drug.

23 Seventh. Habitual cruel and inhuman treatment.

24 Eighth. Insanity or idiocy at the time of marriage, if the 25 party complaining did not know of such infirmity.

26 Ninth. Marriage to some other person at the time of the 27 pretended marriage between the parties.

28 Tenth. Pregnancy of the wife by another person at the time
29 of the marriage, if the husband did not know of such pregnancy.

30 Eleventh. Either party may have a divorce if they be related 31 to each other within the degrees of kindred between whom marriage
32 is prohibited by law.

33 Twelfth. Incurable insanity. But no divorce shall be 34 granted upon this ground unless the insane party shall have been 35 under regular treatment for insanity and causes thereof, confined 36 in an institution for the insane for a period of at least three 37 years immediately preceding the commencement of the action.
38 Provided, however, that transfer of an insane party to his or her 39 home for treatment or a trial visit on prescription or 40 recommendation of a licensed physician, which treatment or trial 41 visit proves unsuccessful after a bona fide effort by the 42 complaining party to effect a cure, upon the reconfinement of the 43 insane party in an institution for the insane, shall be regular 44 treatment for insanity and causes thereof, and the period of time
45 so consumed in seeking to effect a cure, or while on a trial visit 46 home, shall be added to the period of actual confinement in an 47 institution for the insane in computing the required period of 48 three (3) years confinement immediately preceding the commencement
49 of the action. No divorce shall be granted because of insanity
50 until after a thorough examination of such insane person by two 51 (2) physicians who are recognized authorities on mental diseases.
52 One (1) such physician shall be either the superintendent of the 53 state hospital or the veterans hospital for the insane in which 54 the patient is confined, or a member of the medical staff of such 55 hospital who has had the patient in charge. Before incurable
56 insanity can be successfully proven as a ground for divorce, it 57 shall be necessary that both such physicians make affidavit that 58 such patient is a mentally disturbed person at the time of the 59 examination and both affidavits shall be made a part of the 60 permanent record of the divorce proceedings and shall create the 61 prima facie presumption of incurable insanity, such as would 62 justify a divorce based thereon. Service of process shall be made 63 on the superintendent of the hospital in which the defendant is a 64 patient. In event the patient is in a hospital outside the state, 65 process shall be served by publication, as in other cases of 66 service by publication, together with the sending of a copy by 67 registered mail to the superintendent of said hospital. In 68 addition thereto, process shall be served upon the next blood 69 relative and guardian, if any. In event there is no legal 70 guardian, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent 71 the interest of the insane person. Such relative or guardian and 72 superintendent of the institution shall be entitled to appear and 73 be heard upon any and all issues. The status of the parties as to 74 the support and maintenance of the insane person shall not be 75 altered in any way by the granting of the divorce.

76 However, in the discretion of the chancery court, and in such 77 cases as the court may deem it necessary and proper, before any 78 such decree is granted on the ground of incurable insanity, the 79 complainant, when ordered by the court, shall enter into bond, to 80 be approved by the court, in such an amount as the court may think 81 just and proper, conditioned for the care and keeping of such 82 insane person during the remainder of his or her natural life,
83 unless such insane person has a sufficient estate in his or her 84 own right for such purpose.

85 Before any decree of divorce is granted to a husband and wife 86 who have any minor children, the court shall require that the 87 husband and wife and the children undergo counseling as often as 88 the court determines necessary regarding the effect that the 89 divorce will have on such children and how the parents can help 90 the children cope with the divorce. The counselor shall be 91 approved by the court. The counselor shall provide written 92 verification to the court that the requirements of this paragraph 93 have been met. The court shall order one (1) or both parents to 94 pay the costs of such counseling.

96 amended as follows:

97 93-5-2. (1) Divorce from the bonds of matrimony may be 98 granted on the ground of irreconcilable differences, but only upon 99 the joint complaint of the husband and wife or a complaint where 100 the defendant has been personally served with process or where the 101 defendant has entered an appearance by written waiver of process.

102 (2) If the parties provide by written agreement for the 103 custody and maintenance of any children of that marriage and for 104 the settlement of any property rights between the parties and the 105 court finds that such provisions are adequate and sufficient, the 106 agreement may be incorporated in the judgment, and such judgment 107 may be modified as other judgments for divorce.

108 (3) If the parties are unable to agree upon adequate and 109 sufficient provisions for the custody and maintenance of any 110 children of that marriage or any property rights between them,
111 they may consent to a divorce on the ground of irreconcilable 112 differences and permit the court to decide the issues upon which 113 they cannot agree. Such consent must be in writing, signed by 114 both parties personally, must state that the parties voluntarily 115 consent to permit the court to decide such issues, which shall be 116 specifically set forth in such consent, and that the parties
117 understand that the decision of the court shall be a binding and 118 lawful judgment. Such consent may not be withdrawn by a party 119 without leave of the court after the court has commenced any 120 proceeding, including the hearing of any motion or other matter 121 pertaining thereto. The failure or refusal of either party to 122 agree as to adequate and sufficient provisions for the custody and 123 maintenance of any children of that marriage or any property 124 rights between the parties, or any portion of such issues, or the 125 failure or refusal of any party to consent to permit the court to 126 decide such issues, shall not be used as evidence, or in any

127 manner, against such party. No divorce shall be granted pursuant 128 to this subsection until all matters involving custody and 129 maintenance of any child of that marriage and property rights
130 between the parties raised by the pleadings have been either
131 adjudicated by the court or agreed upon by the parties and found 132 to be adequate and sufficient by the court and included in the 133 judgment of divorce. Appeals from any orders and judgments
134 rendered pursuant to this subsection may be had as in other cases 135 in chancery court only insofar as such orders and judgments relate 136 to issues that the parties consented to have decided by the court.

137 (4) Complaints for divorce on the ground of irreconcilable
138 differences must have been on file for sixty (60) days before 139 being heard. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of 140 this section, a joint complaint of husband and wife or a complaint 141 where the defendant has been personally served with process or 142 where the defendant has entered an appearance by written waiver of 143 process, for divorce solely on the ground of irreconcilable 144 differences, shall be taken as proved and a final judgment entered 145 thereon, as in other cases and without proof or testimony in 146 termtime or vacation, the provisions of Section 93-5-17 to the 147 contrary notwithstanding.

148 (5) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this 149 section, no divorce shall be granted on the ground of 150 irreconcilable differences where there has been a contest or 151 denial; provided, however, that a divorce may be granted on the 152 grounds of irreconcilable differences where there has been a 153 contest or denial, if the contest or denial has been withdrawn or 154 cancelled by the party filing same by leave and order of the 155 court.

156 (6) Irreconcilable differences may be asserted as a sole 157 ground for divorce or as an alternate ground for divorce with any 158 other cause for divorce set out in Section 93-5-1.

159 (7) Before granting a decree of divorce to a husband and

160 wife who have any minor children, the court shall require 161 counseling for the husband and wife and the children as provided 162 in Section 93-5-1.

163 SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from 164 and after July 1, 2000.
