SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 526
(As Adopted by Senate)

1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION COMMENDING AND CONGRATULATING
2 MISSISSIPPI EDUCATIONAL TELEVISION UPON THE OCCASION OF ITS 30TH
3 ANNIVERSARY.

4 WHEREAS, The Mississippi Authority for Educational Television
5 (MAET) celebrates its thirtieth anniversary of broadcasting on 6 February 1, 2000; and

7 WHEREAS, During the years MAET has grown from one television
8 station to a network comprised of eight public television stations
9 (ETV) and a nine-station public radio network (Public Radio in 10 Mississippi and the Radio Reading Service of Mississippi); MAET
11 serves all eighty-two counties of Mississippi with top quality 12 educational and cultural programming; and

13 WHEREAS, MAET is Mississippi's most powerful statewide
14 educational vehicle, reaching almost 200,000 television households
15 each week with a half million viewers tuning in to Mississippi ETV 16 during the day. Over 100,000 people listen to PRM each week; and

17 WHEREAS, ETV serves Mississippi classrooms with teaching and 18 learning resources through varied technology ranging from 19 broadcast to satellite to an interactive video network. TV
20 courses include K-12 classes, college credit, GED, and 21 professional development for teachers. Thirty-five hours of 22 instructional programming are available each week by the same

23 broadcast technology used in 1970. In addition, two hundred 24 series are available through duplication services. ETV also has 25 produced over fifty instructional series to fill specific needs of 26 Mississippi teachers and students; all have been distributed
27 nationally. A pioneer in interactive instructional television,
28 ETV now has over a hundred sites on its interactive video network
29 with 4,500 students enrolled in interactive courses. More than 30 ninety high school courses and over 200 hours of staff development 31 are available; and

32 WHEREAS, MAET serves special segments of the Mississippi
33 audience through the Radio Reading Service (RRSM) and the Caption
34 Center. RRSM broadcasts readings from newspapers, books,
35 magazines, etc. twenty-four hours a day to special receivers
36 provided to blind and print-handicapped listeners. The Caption
37 Center provides television captions for hearing-impaired
38 Mississippians on all programs originating at ETV, including 39 real-time captioning for live broadcasts, and continues to caption 40 older ETV productions as time allows. Captioning has also been 41 recognized as an invaluable tool in teaching reading; and

42 WHEREAS, With its 24-hour-a-day broadcasts, PRM keeps 43 Mississippians up-to-date with coverage of local events, state and 44 world news and weather information, and announcements of various 45 events within the state. It provides the best in music for 46 listeners and promotes Mississippi performing artists through 47 broadcasts of local concerts. PRM, in cooperation with MEMA and 48 MDOT, is the official source of information during emergencies
49 such as hurricanes; and

50 WHEREAS, ETV participates in the national Ready to Learn 51 (RTL) program, a service designed to help parents, teachers, and 52 other care givers use public television to help children love

53 learning, thus advancing the goal that all children start school
54 "ready to learn." ETV's RTL offered sixty-seven workshops during 55 the past year, directly reaching over a thousand people; and

56 WHEREAS, ETV's general audience programming furnishes 57 lifelong learning for Mississippi citizens; and

58 WHEREAS, complementing its strong commitment to instructional
59 broadcasting, ETV offers a wide range of popular general audience
60 programming, including nine continuing locally produced series,
61 and highly acclaimed programs purchased from PBS and other 62 sources; and

63 WHEREAS, In its thirty years of service to Mississippi, ETV
64 has won more than 400 awards for instructional and general
65 audience productions. These include the prestigious Peabody Award
66 "for enhancing the educational system of the State of Mississippi 67 through the innovative use of television," and a 1999 national 68 Emmy for Ticktock Minutes, the first national Emmy ever won in 69 Mississippi; and

70 WHEREAS, It is with great pride that we recognize this state
71 agency which combines its strong commitment to public education
72 with its general audience productions, bringing honor to its staff
73 and to the State of Mississippi:

74 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF 75 MISSISSIPPI, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING THEREIN, That 76 we do hereby commend and congratulate the Mississippi Authority
77 for Educational Television (MAET) upon the occasion of its 30th 78 anniversary of broadcasting, and wish it continued success in its 79 mission.

80 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this resolution be presented to

81 the Executive Director of MAET and its board of trustees, and be 82 made available to the Capitol Press Corps.
