1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION COMMENDING AND CONGRATULATING MS.
2 BOBBI BARROWS UPON HER SELECTION FOR THE SERVICE TO MISSISSIPPI'S
3 CHILDREN/YOUTH AWARD BY THE GOVERNOR'S INITIATIVE FOR VOLUNTEER
4 EXCELLENCE (GIVE) PROGRAM.

5 WHEREAS, Ms. Bobbi Barrows was nominated by the Picayune,
6 Mississippi, School District and was selected as the recipient of 7 the Service to Mississippi's Children/Youth Award by the 8 Governor's Initiative for Volunteer Excellence (GIVE) Program; and

9 WHEREAS, she will be honored at the awards luncheon on May 4, 10 2000, in Jackson, Mississippi, where all program recipients and 11 nominators will be recognized; and

12 WHEREAS, Bobbi Barrows is a literacy volunteer who has 13 overcome her own reading difficulties and now helps children and 14 adults become better readers; as part of a partnership with 15 AmeriCorps, the Mississippi Department of Education and the 16 Parenting Resource Center in Picayune, she is helping children 17 with severe reading problems to improve their grades, adults to 18 raise their reading levels, and parents to find ways to use 19 reading and writing at home with their children; and

20 WHEREAS, as a child growing up, her greatest obstacle was 21 learning to read; she struggled all of her academic career with 22 reading; she eventually graduated from high school, but to do so 23 she had to work diligently and use compensatory techniques; after 24 graduation she continued her struggle, she married and her husband 25 helped and encouraged her to read high interest material aloud to 26 him; when she became a mother, she knew the value of reading aloud 27 to them; and

28           WHEREAS, as part of a partnership with AmeriCorps, the 29 Mississippi Department of Education and the Parenting Resource 30 Center in Picayune, Mississippi, Ms. Barrows works Monday through 31 Friday, serving 32 children at Nicholson Elementary School who 32 have severe reading, writing and spelling difficulties; she works 33 in five classes in a Title I Program for dyslexic children, she 34 helps the children with one-on-one and small group tutoring; her 35 efforts have had a positive impact in her classes. The grades of 36 the children she works with have improved dramatically, and the 37 children have moved up into higher level workbooks; teachers have 38 written letters about their successes. All of the children have 39 been pre-tested for participation in the program, and they will be 40 post-tested at the end of the program; and

41           WHEREAS, in addition to her work during the school day, Ms.
42 Barrows provides support to children as an after-school tutor;
43 moreover, as part of her AmeriCorps service hours, she volunteers
44 at the Parenting Resource Center each Monday and Wednesday from 45 4:00-6:00 p.m. She helps parents who come to the center by 46 serving as a resource for ways they can use reading and writing at 47 home to help their children become better readers. Without her
48 volunteer efforts the center would not be able to remain open 49 during these extended hours. This center serves the entire 50 community; and

51           WHEREAS, since November 1, 1999, Bobbi has also initiated a 52 literacy class for eight adults and she volunteers as the 53 facilitator of the Project H.O.P.E. Program for people who face
54 reading challenges, not unlike her own, using the Texas Scottish 55 Rite Hospital Literacy Program, a multi-sensory, intensive,
56 systematic language-based approach to teaching reading, writing 57 and spelling; and

58           WHEREAS, because of her personal struggles, she is a dynamic 59 mentor, role model, and in some ways a hero to her students; she 60 is truly changing lives; and

61           WHEREAS, on behalf of the citizens of Mississippi, it is with 62 great pride that we recognize this dedicated citizen for her 63 ongoing efforts and commitment to improving the lives of the
