SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 36
(As Adopted by Senate)

1 A RESOLUTION COMMENDING AND CONGRATULATING MRS. DAISY SHIRLEY 2 REDDIX, FIRST LADY OF JACKSON STATE UNIVERSITY, ON THE OCCASION OF 3 HER 100TH BIRTHDAY.

4 WHEREAS, while the year 2000 marks the turn of the century,
5 it also marks a milestone in the historic legacy of Jackson State
6 University and in the distinguished affiliation of Mrs. Daisy 7 Shirley Reddix, widow to the late Dr. Jacob L. Reddix, who has 8 been an integral thread in the fabric of this university for sixty
9 years, and on April 10, 2000, Mrs. Reddix will celebrate her 100th 10 birthday; and

11 WHEREAS, in 1940, Dr. Reddix, a native son of Mississippi, 12 was appointed by the Board of Trustees of State Institutions of 13 Higher Learning to serve as the first president of Jackson State
14 under state control; he served from 1940 to 1967; Mrs. Reddix
15 served as the university's official hostess and first lady during 16 this tenure; the year 2000 marks the sixtieth anniversary of 17 Jackson State University as a state institution; and

18 WHEREAS, born high in Jamaica's legendary Blue Mountains at 19 Shirley Castle which bears the family name, Daisy Uvasine Shirley 20 (Reddix), is the twelfth of twelve children and sole survivor of 21 Samuel Laidley Shirley and Anne Isabella Silvera Shirley; she is 22 believed to be the "oldest known living Shirley," the Shirleys of 23 England are one of the three oldest English families and trace
24 their lineage back prior to the Crusades, the Shirley Clan 25 celebrated 900 years in 1986; and

26 WHEREAS, at the age of fifteen, young Daisy Shirley migrated

27 to America and joined a brother, George, and sister, Margaret, in 28 Evanston, Illinois; in 1919, she became a United States citizen at 29 the age of nineteen; and

30 WHEREAS, Mrs. Reddix continued her education in America at 31 Evanston Township High School and Evanston Business College; she 32 later earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in Education from Jackson
33 State College in 1953 and her late husband, Dr. Reddix, conferred 34 this degree as President of Jackson State; and

35 WHEREAS, professionally, Mrs. Reddix worked in Business
36 Office Management in Chicago and Evanston, Illinois, during the 37 early twenties; this included employment with the Overton Hygienic
38 Company established by noted minority Chicago entrepreneur,
39 Anthony Overton; between 1928 and 1940, following their marriage, 40 the two worked in the public school system of Gary, Indiana, at 41 Roosevelt High School; Mrs. Reddix was chief clerk in the business 42 office and Dr Reddix headed the Department of Mathematics; during 43 her twenty-seven years at Jackson State, Mrs. Reddix was employed
44 in the Jackson State University business office until her 45 retirement; and

46 WHEREAS, she is an active member of Fairish Street Baptist 47 Church; she also remains active in many civic, social and 48 university activities; among these are life member, Alpha Kappa 49 Alpha Sorority, Incorporated, Beta Delta Omega Chapter, The 50 Jackson Chapter of The Links, Incorporated, Mary Church Terrell
51 Literary Club, the Harmonia Music Club and the Jackson State
52 University Development Foundation; she loves family, friends,
53 reading, music and travel, and wants to "go back to Jamaica, once 54 more"; she gains strength through her faith and strong belief in 55 the Almighty; and

56 WHEREAS, it is with great pride that we, along with well
57 wishers throughout the United States and abroad, recognize this 58 landmark event in the life of someone who has brought such honor 59 and dignity to her community, her university and to the State of 60 Mississippi:

61           NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF 62 MISSISSIPPI, That we do hereby commend and congratulate Mrs. Daisy 63 Shirley Reddix, first lady of Jackson State University, upon the 64 occasion of her 100th birthday, and extend the best wishes and 65 prayers of the Legislature.

66           BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be 67 presented to Mrs. Reddix and her family and the President of 68 Jackson State University, and be made available to the Capitol
69 Press Corps.
