Chapter 935, Local and Private Laws of 1991, is amended as follows:

Section 1.  (1) There is hereby continued in existence an organization now known as the "Natchez-Adams County Economic and Community Development Authority," which shall hereafter be known as the Natchez-Adams County Economic and Community Development Authority, hereinafter referred to as the authority.

(2) The authority shall be composed of five (5) citizens of Adams County, Mississippi, three (3) of whom shall be appointed by the Board of Supervisors of Adams County, Mississippi, and two (2) of whom shall be appointed by the governing authorities of the city of Natchez. No appointee may hold an elective office and serve on the board of the authority.
(3) The term of the initial appointments made by the county shall be for two (2), three (3) and four (4) years, respectively, as designated by the Board of Supervisors of Adams county. The term of the initial appointments made by the city shall be for one (1) and five (5) years, respectively, as designated by the governing authorities of the City of Natchez. All subsequent appointments shall be made in the same manner as the initial appointments for a term of four (4) years or until their successors are appointed and qualified. All appointments made to the authority shall be made within thirty (30) days from and after the effective date of House Bill No. 1711, 2001 Regular Session.

(4) In making appointments to this authority, the governing bodies of the city, county and the chamber of commerce shall each strive to maintain a ratio reflective of the population of Adams County, Mississippi, and shall each specifically strive to assure that no racial group have more than sixty percent (60%) nor less than forty percent (40%) representation on the authority.

(5) Members of the Natchez-Adams County Development Authority in place before the effective date of this act, shall serve as members of the authority until the appointment and qualification of new authority members pursuant to House Bill No. 1711, 2001 Regular Session.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.
