HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 26

1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION CALLING FOR A NEW BRETTON WOODS
2 CONFERENCE FOR INTERNATIONAL MONETARY SYSTEM STABILITY.

3 WHEREAS, the 1944 agreement of Bretton Woods mechanisms
4 contributed to the realization of monetary stability and to 5 postwar economic reconstruction; and

6 WHEREAS, there is a divergence between the real economy and 7 the financial economy since the decoupling of the dollar from the 8 gold reserve system; and

9 WHEREAS, financial crises have exploded in different parts of 10 the world, especially since 1997; and

11 WHEREAS, the international monetary and financial 12 institutions, in carrying out their tasks, are malfunctioning; and

13 WHEREAS, it has been ascertained that the "speculative 14 bubble" has had devastating effects for the economics of 15 developing countries, completely transforming the structures of 16 the world economy, and reaching the level of at least $300
17 trillion, compared to the world GDP of about $40 trillion:

18 NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
19 OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, THE SENATE CONCURRING HEREIN, That we 20 do hereby call for the convocation of a new conference, similar to 21 the one at Bretton Woods, with the following goals:

22 (a) To create a new international monetary system to 23 gradually eliminate the mechanisms which have led to the 24 "speculative bubble."

25 (b) To evaluate the possibility of anchoring currency
26 values to an element of real reference, and to better and more
27 completely control the movements of currency rates.

28                   (c) To propose the creation of new credit lines
29 oriented to developing investments in the sectors of the real
30 economy.

31                   (d) To define infrastructure projects of continental 32 dimensions.

33           BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be 34 furnished to the Capitol Press Corps.
