23 Needy Families (TANF) work program as follows:

24 The contractor shall conduct a longitudinal study of the 25 implementation of TANF and related welfare reforms. The research

41 2004, and in the event this section is reenacted, the study shall 42 continue until December 31, 2006. The Mississippi Department of 43 Human Services and the contractor shall obtain permission to 44 conduct the study from the subjects of the study and guarantee 45 their privacy according to applicable privacy laws. To facilitate 46 this permission, the study may be designed to refer to subjects by 47 pseudonyms or codes and shall, in any event, guarantee anonymity
48 to the subjects with limited access by outsiders to the data
49 (other than identities) generated by the study. The contractor 50 shall report the interim findings of the study with respect to 51 each subgroup, to the Legislature by August 31 of each year, 52 beginning August 31, 2002, and in the event this section is 53 reenacted, shall report the final findings with respect to each 54 subgroup by March 31, 2007. The reports shall be available to the 55 public upon request.

56 (2) The contractor shall devise the study and identify the 57 factors to be studied by not later than August 31, 2001. The 58 study shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

64 evaluator shall attempt to maintain personal contact with the 65 subjects of the study, and employ such methods as meetings, 66 telephone contacts, written surveys and computer matches with 67 other data bases to accomplish this purpose. The intent of this

68 feature of the study is to discover the paths people take after 69 leaving welfare and the patterns of return to welfare, including 70 the factors that may influence these paths and patterns.

71 (c) The study shall examine the influence of various 72 employability, education and training programs upon employment,
73 earnings, job tenure and cycling between welfare and work
74 (repeated application for welfare between periods of employment).

75 (d) The study shall examine the influence of various 76 supportive services such as child care (including type and cost), 77 transportation and payment of initial employment expenses upon 78 employment, earnings, job tenure and cycling between welfare and 79 work.

80 (e) The study shall examine the influence of government
81 benefits that are authorized by TANF to be received by subjects
82 after they have been employed upon employment, earnings, job
83 tenure and cycling between welfare and work.

84 (f) The study shall examine the frequency of unplanned
85 occurrences in subjects' lives, such as illness or injury, family 86 members' illness or injury, car breakdown, strikes, natural 87 disasters, evictions, loss of other sources of income, domestic 88 violence and crime, and their impact upon employment, earnings,
89 job tenure and cycling between welfare and work.

90 (g) The study shall examine the wages and other 91 compensation, including health benefits and what they cost the 92 employee, received by subjects who obtain employment, the type and 93 characteristics of jobs, the hours and time of day of work, union
94 status and the relationships of such factors to earnings, job
95 tenure and cycling between welfare and work.

96 (h) The study shall examine the reasons for subjects'
97 job loss, the availability of unemployment insurance, the reasons
98 for a subject's return to welfare, programs or services utilized 99 by subjects in the search for another job, the characteristics of 100 the subjects' next job and the relationships of these factors to

101 re-employment, earnings, job tenure on the new job and cycling
102 between welfare and work.

103 (i) The study shall examine the impact of mandatory 104 work requirements, including the types of work activities to which 105 the subjects were assigned, and the links between the requirements
106 and the activities and sanctions, employment, earnings, job tenure
107 and cycling between welfare and work.

108 (j) The study shall identify all sources and amounts of 109 reported household nonwage income and examine the influence of the 110 sources and amounts of nonwage, nonwelfare income on employment,
111 earnings, job tenure and cycling between welfare and work.

112 (k) The study shall examine sanctions, including child
113 support enforcement and paternity establishment, the reasons
114 sanctions are threatened, the number threatened, the number 115 imposed and the reasons sanctions are not imposed or are ended, 116 such as cooperation achieved or good cause established.

117 (l) The study shall track the subjects' usage of TANF
118 benefits over the course of the lifetime sixty-month limit of TANF 119 eligibility, including patterns of usage, relationships between 120 consecutive usage of large numbers of months and other factors, 121 status of all study subjects with respect to the time limit as of 122 each report, characteristics of subjects exhausting the 123 eligibility limit, types of exceptions granted to the sixty-month 124 limit and numbers of cases within each type of exception.

125 (m) The study shall track subjects' participation in 126 other public systems, including the public schools, the child
127 welfare system, the criminal justice system, homeless and food 128 services and others, and attempt to identify the positive or 129 negative ripple effects in these systems of welfare policies, 130 systems and procedures.

131 (n) The study shall examine the impact of the TANF
132 program on the local economy and on other state agencies.

133 (3) The study authorized by this section shall only be 134 funded by the Mississippi Department of Human Services from the 135 TANF program federal block grant not to exceed Three Hundred Fifty 136 Thousand Dollars ($350,000.00) annually.

137 (4) All data, statistics, computer software and reports made 138 under this section shall be considered public records and the 139 property of the Mississippi Department of Human Services.

140 SECTION 2. (1) The Mississippi Department of Human Services
141 shall collect and report upon all data in connection with 142 federally funded or assisted welfare programs as federal law may 143 require, including, but not limited to, Section 411 of the 144 Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 145 1996 and its implementing regulations and any amendments thereto
146 as may from time to time be enacted. Such data shall be made 147 available to the public within one (1) week after it has been sent 148 to the United States Department of Health and Human Services at 149 each regional office of the Mississippi Department of Human 150 Services.

151 (2) On the same schedule as the data collection required by 152 federal law and subsection (1) of this section, the Mississippi 153 Department of Human Services shall collect and report additional 154 information with respect to the Temporary Assistance for Needy
155 Families (TANF) program, as follows:

156 (a) With respect to denials of applications for 157 benefits, all of the information about the family as required

164 collect all of the data as set forth in subsections (1) and (2) of 165 this section on all cash assistance benefits provided to TANF

166 recipients that are not funded from the TANF program federal block 167 grant or are not otherwise required to be included in the data
168 collection and reporting provided for in subsections (1) and (2)
169 of this section, and shall report such information on the same 170 schedule as is required for the information collected in 171 subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

172 (4) Reports made under this section shall be considered
173 public records and shall promptly be made available to the public
174 upon request at the end of each fiscal year at a reasonable cost 175 directly related to the cost of copying and mailing the reports.
176 The data underlying the reports shall be made available to 177 academic institutions and public policy organizations involved in 178 the study of welfare issues or programs after any reductions made 179 to conform with applicable privacy laws. The data shall be 180 provided by the Mississippi Department of Human Services at a 181 reasonable cost directly related to the cost of copying and 182 mailing the data.

183 (5) No later than July 1, 2001, the Mississippi Department 184 of Human Services shall appoint seven (7) persons to an advisory 185 panel. Four (4) panel members shall be experienced researchers in 186 welfare policy, social science and other related fields from 187 institutions of higher learning located in the Delta, northeast,

193 from all sectors in the development of the research design and 194 during the research process. Its role is advisory in nature and 195 it is not empowered to direct the research effort or to specify
196 results. The advisory panel shall have the following

216 social services programs pursuant to the changes enacted in the 217 federal Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity 218 Reconciliation Act of 1996. The purpose of such a study must be 233 December 31, 2004.
