321 act. Massage establishments shall be exempt from the advertising

374 practice massage beyond the allowed grace period as provided for 375 in Section 20 of this act unless a valid massage therapy license
376 or provisional permit is obtained. All other preact practitioners
377 and anyone not practicing massage therapy before January 1, 2001,

405 before issuing an unconditional license.

406 SECTION 13. (1) An applicant may be licensed by 407 demonstrating proof that the applicant holds a valid, current 408 license in another state with similar educational requirements to 409 those required by this act, and that all other licensure
410 requirements under this act are met. This is subject to 411 investigation by the board and excludes grandfathering by other
