SENATE BILL NO. 2790

1 AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT A PERSON WHO WILLFULLY DESTROYS ANY
2 FIELD CROP SHALL BE LIABLE FOR TWICE THE VALUE OF THE CROP
3 DESTROYED.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI:

5 SECTION 1. (1) Any person or entity who willfully and
6 knowingly damages or destroys any field crop product that is grown
7 for personal or commercial purposes, or for testing or research
8 purposes in the context of a product development program in 9 conjunction or coordination with a private research facility or a
10 university or any federal, state or local government agency, shall 11 be liable for twice the value of the crop damaged or destroyed.

12 (2) In awarding damages under this section, the courts shall 13 consider the market value of the crop prior to damage or 14 destruction and production, research, testing, replacement, and 15 crop development costs directly related to the crop that has been 16 damaged or destroyed as part of the value of the crop.

17 (3) Damages available under this section shall be limited to 18 twice the market value of the crop prior to damage or destruction
19 plus twice the actual damages involving production, research,
20 testing, replacement, and crop development costs directly related
21 to the crop that has been damaged or destroyed.

22 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from 23 and after July 1,2001.
