10 81-5-63. When a deposit has been made or is hereafter * * *
11 made in the name of two (2) or more persons, payable to any one
12 (1) of those persons, or payable to any one (1) of those persons 13 or the survivor, or payable to any one (1) of those persons or to 14 the survivor or survivors, or payable to the persons as joint 15 tenants, the deposit or any part thereof or interest or dividends
16 thereon may be paid to any one (1) of those persons, without 17 liability whether one or more of those persons is living or not,
18 and the receipt of acquittance of the person so paid shall be a 19 valid and sufficient release and discharge to the bank for any 20 payment so made. The making of a deposit in that form, or the 21 making of additions thereto, shall create a presumption in any 22 action or proceeding to which either the bank or any survivor is a 23 party of the intention of all the persons named on the deposit to 24 vest title to the deposit and the additions thereto and all

25 interest or dividends thereon in the survivor or survivors. Any 26 bank may pay to the successor of a deceased depositor, as defined 27 in Section 91-7-322(2), without necessity of administration, any 28 sum to the credit of the decedent not exceeding Twelve Thousand
29 Five Hundred Dollars ($12,500.00), without liability to any other 30 persons, relatives or beneficiaries, and the receipt of 31 acquittance of the person so paid shall be a valid and sufficient
32 release and discharge to the bank for any payment so made. This 33 section shall apply to all banking institutions, including 34 national banks and postal savings banks within the state. The 35 term "deposit" as used in this section shall include, but not be 36 limited to, any form of deposit or account, such as a savings
37 account, checking account, time deposit, demand deposit or 38 certificate of deposit, whether negotiable, nonnegotiable or 39 otherwise.

41 amended as follows:

42 81-12-143. Any association may pay to the successor of a
43 deceased savings account holder, as defined in Section

45 that the deceased died leaving no last will and testament and bond
46 signed by each of the successors guaranteeing payment of any 47 lawful debts of the deceased to the extent of that withdrawal, any 48 sum in the decedent's account not in excess of Twelve Thousand
49 Five Hundred Dollars ($12,500.00), and the receipt of acquittance
50 of the person or persons so paid shall be valid and sufficient
51 release and discharge to the association as against all other
52 persons and claimants for any payment so made; however, the bond 53 shall be made available to any creditor for suit against the 54 makers of the bond.

55 SECTION 3. Section 81-14-383, Mississippi Code of 1972, is 56 reenacted as follows:

57 81-14-383. Any savings bank may pay to the successor of a
58 deceased savings account holder, as defined in Section

61 signed by each of the successors guaranteeing payment of any
62 lawful debts of the deceased to the extent of that withdrawal, any 63 sum in the decedent's account not to exceed Twelve Thousand Five

65 person or persons so paid shall be a valid and sufficient release 66 and discharge to the savings bank against all other persons and 67 claimants for any payment so made; * * * however, the bond is made 68 available to any creditor for suit against the makers of the bond.

69 SECTION 4. When a deposit has been made or is hereafter made 70 in the name of two (2) or more persons, payable to any one (1) of 71 those persons, or payable to any one (1) of those persons or the 72 survivor, or payable to any one (1) of those persons or to the 73 survivor or survivors, or payable to the persons as joint tenants,
74 the deposit or any part thereof or interest or dividends thereon
75 may be paid to any one (1) of those persons, without liability
76 whether one or more of those persons is living or not, and the 77 receipt of acquittance of the person so paid shall be a valid and 78 sufficient release and discharge to the credit union for any 79 payment so made. The making of a deposit in that form, or the
80 making of additions thereto, shall create a presumption in any 81 action or proceeding to which either the credit union or any 82 survivor is a party of the intention of all the persons named on 83 the deposit to vest title to the deposit and the additions thereto
84 and all interest or dividends thereon in the survivor or

85 survivors. Any credit union may pay to the successor of a 86 deceased depositor, as defined in Section 91-7-322(2), without 87 necessity of administration, any sum to the credit of the decedent
88 not exceeding Twelve Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($12,500.00),
