HOUSE BILL NO. 114

AN ACT TO AMEND SECTIONS 93-5-23 AND 93-11-65, MISSISSIPPI CODE OF 1972, TO PROVIDE THAT THE APPOINTMENT OF A GUARDIAN AD LITEM SHALL BE DISCRETIONARY IN CASES IN WHICH A CHARGE OF ABUSE OR NEGLECT ARISES; AND FOR RELATED PURPOSES.

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI:

6 SECTION 1. Section 93-5-23, Mississippi Code of 1972, is

7 amended as follows:

8 93-5-23. When a divorce shall be decreed from the bonds of 9 matrimony, the court may, in its discretion, having regard to the 10 circumstances of the parties and the nature of the case, as may

11 seem equitable and just, make all orders touching the care,

12 custody and maintenance of the children of the marriage, and also

13 touching the maintenance and alimony of the wife or the husband,

14 or any allowance to be made to her or him, and shall, if need be,

15 require bond, sureties or other guarantee for the payment of the 16 sum so allowed. Orders touching on the custody of the children of 17 the marriage shall be made in accordance with the provisions of 18 Section 93-5-24. The court may afterwards, on petition, change

19 the decree, and make from time to time such new decrees as the

20 case may require. However, where proof shows that both parents

21 have separate incomes or estates, the court may require that each

22 parent contribute to the support and maintenance of the children

23 of the marriage in proportion to the relative financial ability of 24 each. In the event a legally responsible parent has health

25 insurance available to him or her through an employer or

26 organization that may extend benefits to the dependents of such

27 parent, any order of support issued against such parent may

28 require him or her to exercise the option of additional coverage in favor of such children as he or she is legally responsible to support.

Whenever the court has ordered a party to make periodic payments for the maintenance or support of a child, but no bond, sureties or other guarantee has been required to secure such payments, and whenever such payments as have become due remain unpaid for a period of at least thirty (30) days, the court may, upon petition of the person to whom such payments are owing, or such person's legal representative, enter an order requiring that bond, sureties or other security be given by the person obligated to make such payments, the amount and sufficiency of which shall be approved by the court. The obligor shall, as in other civil actions, be served with process and shall be entitled to a hearing in such case.

Whenever in any proceeding in the chancery court concerning the custody of a child a party alleges that the child whose custody is at issue has been the victim of sexual or physical abuse by the other party, the court may, on its own motion, grant a continuance in the custody proceeding only until such allegation has been investigated by the Department of Human Services. At the time of ordering such continuance the court may direct the party, and his attorney, making such allegation of child abuse to report in writing and provide all evidence touching on the allegation of abuse to the Department of Human Services. The Department of Human Services shall investigate such allegation and take such action as it deems appropriate and as provided in such cases under the Youth Court Law (being Chapter 21 of Title 43, Mississippi Code of 1972) or under the laws establishing family courts (being Chapter 23 of Title 43, Mississippi Code of 1972).

If after investigation by the Department of Human Services or final disposition by the youth court or family court allegations of child abuse are found to be without foundation, the chancery court shall order the alleging party to pay all court costs and

- 62 reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the defending party in
- 63 responding to such allegation.
- The court may investigate, hear and make a determination in a
- 65 custody action when a charge of abuse and/or neglect arises in the
- 66 course of a custody action as provided in Section 43-21-151, and
- 67 in such cases the court may appoint a guardian ad litem for the
- 68 child as provided under Section 43-21-121, who shall be an
- 69 attorney. Unless the chancery court's jurisdiction has been
- 70 terminated, all disposition orders in such cases for placement
- 71 with the Department of Human Services shall be reviewed by the
- 72 court or designated authority at least annually to determine if
- 73 continued placement with the department is in the best interest of
- 74 the child or public.
- 75 The duty of support of a child terminates upon the
- 76 emancipation of the child. The court may determine that
- 77 emancipation has occurred and no other support obligation exists
- 78 when the child:
- 79 (a) Attains the age of twenty-one (21) years, or
- 80 (b) Marries, or
- 81 (c) Discontinues full-time enrollment in school and
- 82 obtains full-time employment prior to attaining the age of
- 83 twenty-one (21) years, or
- 84 (d) Voluntarily moves from the home of the custodial
- 85 parent or guardian and establishes independent living arrangements
- 86 and obtains full-time employment prior to attaining the age of
- 87 twenty-one (21) years.
- SECTION 2. Section 93-11-65, Mississippi Code of 1972, is
- 89 amended as follows:
- 90 93-11-65. (1) (a) In addition to the right to proceed
- 91 under Section 93-5-23, Mississippi Code of 1972, and in addition
- 92 to the remedy of habeas corpus in proper cases, and other existing
- 93 remedies, the chancery court of the proper county shall have
- 94 jurisdiction to entertain suits for the custody, care, support and maintenance of minor children and to hear and determine all such 95 matters, and shall, if need be, require bond, sureties or other 96 guarantee to secure any order for periodic payments for the 97 98 maintenance or support of a child. In the event a legally 99 responsible parent has health insurance available to him or her 100 through an employer or organization that may extend benefits to the dependents of such parent, any order of support issued against 101 such parent may require him or her to exercise the option of 102 103 additional coverage in favor of such children as he or she is legally responsible to support. Proceedings may be brought by or 104 105 against a resident or nonresident of the State of Mississippi, whether or not having the actual custody of minor children, for 106 107 the purpose of judicially determining the legal custody of a child. All actions herein authorized may be brought in the county 108 109 where the child is actually residing, or in the county of the residence of the party who has actual custody, or of the residence 110 of the defendant. Process shall be had upon the parties as 111 112 provided by law for process in person or by publication, if they be nonresidents of the state or residents of another jurisdiction 113 114 or are not found therein after diligent search and inquiry or are unknown after diligent search and inquiry; provided that the court 115 116 or chancellor in vacation may fix a date in termtime or in vacation to which process may be returnable and shall have power 117 to proceed in termtime or vacation. Provided, however, that if 118 119 the court shall find that both parties are fit and proper persons to have custody of the children, and that either party is able to 120 121 adequately provide for the care and maintenance of the children, and that it would be to the best interest and welfare of the 122 children, then any such child who shall have reached his twelfth 123 birthday shall have the privilege of choosing the parent with whom 124 he shall live. 125 126 (b) An order of child support shall specify the sum to be paid weekly or otherwise. In addition to providing for support

- and education, the order shall also provide for the support of the child prior to the making of the order for child support, and such other expenses as the court may deem proper.
- (c) The court may require the payment to be made to the custodial parent, or to some person or corporation to be designated by the court as trustee, but if the child or custodial parent is receiving public assistance, the Department of Human Services shall be made the trustee.
- (d) The noncustodial parent's liabilities for past education and necessary support and maintenance and other expenses are limited to a period of one (1) year next preceding the commencement of an action.
 - (2) Provided further, that where the proof shows that both parents have separate incomes or estates, the court may require that each parent contribute to the support and maintenance of the children in proportion to the relative financial ability of each.
 - (3) Whenever the court has ordered a party to make periodic payments for the maintenance or support of a child, but no bond, sureties or other guarantee has been required to secure such payments, and whenever such payments as have become due remain unpaid for a period of at least thirty (30) days, the court may, upon petition of the person to whom such payments are owing, or such person's legal representative, enter an order requiring that bond, sureties or other security be given by the person obligated to make such payments, the amount and sufficiency of which shall be approved by the court. The obligor shall, as in other civil actions, be served with process and shall be entitled to a hearing in such case.
- 156 (4) When a charge of abuse or neglect of a child first 157 arises in the course of a custody or maintenance action pending in 158 the chancery court pursuant to this section, the chancery court 159 may proceed with the investigation, hearing and determination of 160 such abuse or neglect charge as a part of its hearing and determination of the custody or maintenance issue as between the 161 162 parents, as provided in Section 43-21-151, notwithstanding the 163 other provisions of the Youth Court Law. The proceedings in 164 chancery court on the abuse or neglect charge shall be 165 confidential in the same manner as provided in youth court 166 proceedings, and the chancery court may appoint a guardian ad litem in such cases, as provided under Section 43-21-121 for youth 167 court proceedings, who shall be an attorney. Unless the chancery 168 169 court's jurisdiction has been terminated, all disposition orders in such cases for placement with the Department of Human Services 170 171 shall be reviewed by the court or designated authority at least annually to determine if continued placement with the department 172 173 is in the best interest of the child or the public.

- Each party to a paternity or child support proceeding 174 (5) shall notify the other within five (5) days after any change of 175 address. 176 In addition, the noncustodial and custodial parent shall file and update, with the court and with the state case registry, 177 178 information on that party's location and identity, including social security number, residential and mailing addresses, 179 180 telephone numbers, photograph, driver's license number, and name, address and telephone number of the party's employer. This 181 182 information shall be required upon entry of an order or within 183 five (5) days of a change of address.
- 184 (6) In any case subsequently enforced by the Department of 185 Human Services pursuant to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, 186 the court shall have continuing jurisdiction.
- 187 (7) In any subsequent child support enforcement action
 188 between the parties, upon sufficient showing that diligent effort
 189 has been made to ascertain the location of a party, due process 190 requirements for notice and service of process shall be deemed to 191 be met with respect to the party upon delivery of written notice 192 to the most recent residential or employer address filed with the 193 state case registry.

194	(8) The duty of support of a child terminates upon the
195	emancipation of the child. The court may determine that
196	emancipation has occurred and no other support obligation exists
197	when the child:

- 198 (a) Attains the age of twenty-one (21) years, or
- 199 (b) Marries, or

- 200 (c) Discontinues full-time enrollment in school and 201 obtains full-time employment prior to attaining the age of 202 twenty-one (21) years, or
- 203 (d) Voluntarily moves from the home of the custodial 204 parent or guardian and establishes independent living arrangements 205 and obtains full-time employment prior to attaining the age of 206 twenty-one (21) years.
 - (9) Upon motion of a party requesting temporary child support pending a determination of parentage, temporary support shall be ordered if there is clear and convincing evidence of paternity on the basis of genetic tests or other evidence, unless the court makes written findings of fact on the record that the award of temporary support would be unjust or inappropriate in a particular case.
- 214 SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from 215 and after July 1, 2002.
