HOUSE BILL NO. 1106

AN ACT TO AMEND SECTIONS 93-5-23 AND 93-5-24, MISSISSIPPI
 CODE OF 1972, TO CLARIFY THAT NEITHER PARENT SHALL BE GIVEN PREFERENCE FOR CUSTODY OF A CHILD BASED ON GENDER; AND FOR RELATED PURPOSES.
 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI:

6 SECTION 1. Section 93-5-23, Mississippi Code of 1972, is 7 amended as follows:

93-5-23. When a divorce shall be decreed from the bonds of 8 9 matrimony, the court may, in its discretion, having regard to the 10 circumstances of the parties and the nature of the case, as may seem equitable and just, make all orders touching the care, 11 custody and maintenance of the children of the marriage, and also 12 touching the maintenance and alimony of the wife or the husband, 13 or any allowance to be made to her or him, and shall, if need be, 14 require bond, sureties or other guarantee for the payment of the 15 sum so allowed. Orders touching on the custody of the children of 16 17 the marriage shall be made in accordance with the provisions of Section 93-5-24. The court may afterwards, on petition, change 18 the decree, and make from time to time such new decrees as the 19 case may require. However, where proof shows that both parents 20 have separate incomes or estates, the court may require that each 21 parent contribute to the support and maintenance of the children 22 of the marriage in proportion to the relative financial ability of 23 In the event a legally responsible parent has health 24 each. insurance available to him or her through an employer or 25 26 organization that may extend benefits to the dependents of such parent, any order of support issued against such parent may 27 require him or her to exercise the option of additional coverage 28 H. 29 in favor of such children as he or she is legally responsible to 30 support.

Whenever the court has ordered a party to make periodic 31 32 payments for the maintenance or support of a child, but no bond, 33 sureties or other guarantee has been required to secure such 34 payments, and whenever such payments as have become due remain unpaid for a period of at least thirty (30) days, the court may, 35 upon petition of the person to whom such payments are owing, or 36 such person's legal representative, enter an order requiring that 37 bond, sureties or other security be given by the person obligated 38 39 to make such payments, the amount and sufficiency of which shall be approved by the court. The obligor shall, as in other civil 40 41 actions, be served with process and shall be entitled to a hearing in such case. 42

Whenever in any proceeding in the chancery court concerning 43 the custody of a child a party alleges that the child whose 44 custody is at issue has been the victim of sexual or physical 45 46 abuse by the other party, the court may, on its own motion, grant a continuance in the custody proceeding only until such allegation 47 48 has been investigated by the Department of Human Services. At the time of ordering such continuance the court may direct the party, 49 50 and his attorney, making such allegation of child abuse to report in writing and provide all evidence touching on the allegation of 51 abuse to the Department of Human Services. The Department of 52 53 Human Services shall investigate such allegation and take such action as it deems appropriate and as provided in such cases under 54 55 the Youth Court Law (being Chapter 21 of Title 43, Mississippi Code of 1972) or under the laws establishing family courts (being 56 Chapter 23 of Title 43, Mississippi Code of 1972). 57

If after investigation by the Department of Human Services or final disposition by the youth court or family court allegations of child abuse are found to be without foundation, the chancery court shall order the alleging party to pay all court costs and

The court may investigate, hear and make a determination in a 64 65 custody action when a charge of abuse and/or neglect arises in the 66 course of a custody action as provided in Section 43-21-151, and 67 in such cases the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for the child as provided under Section 43-21-121, who shall be an 68 attorney. Unless the chancery court's jurisdiction has been 69 terminated, all disposition orders in such cases for placement 70 with the Department of Human Services shall be reviewed by the 71 72 court or designated authority at least annually to determine if continued placement with the department is in the best interest of 73 74 the child or public.

The duty of support of a child terminates upon the emancipation of the child. The court may determine that emancipation has occurred and no other support obligation exists when the child:

79

(a) Attains the age of twenty-one (21) years, or

80

(b) Marries, or

81 (c) Discontinues full-time enrollment in school and 82 obtains full-time employment prior to attaining the age of 83 twenty-one (21) years, or

84 (d) Voluntarily moves from the home of the custodial
85 parent or guardian and establishes independent living arrangements
86 and obtains full-time employment prior to attaining the age of 87 twenty-one (21) years.

No preference shall be given to any party to any custody case on account of gender, the male and female being presumed to be equally fit insofar as their respective genders are concerned.
SECTION 2. Section 93-5-24, Mississippi Code of 1972, is amended as follows:

93 93-5-24. (1) Custody shall be awarded as follows according94 to the best interests of the child:

H. B. No. 1106

95 (a) Physical and legal custody to both parents jointly96 pursuant to subsections 2 through 7.

97 (b) Physical custody to both parents jointly pursuant 98 to subsections 2 through 7 and legal custody to either parent.

99 (c) Legal custody to both parents jointly pursuant to 100 subsections 2 through 7 and physical custody to either parent.

Physical and legal custody to either parent.

(e) Upon a finding by the court that both of the parents of the child have abandoned or deserted such child or that both such parents are mentally, morally or otherwise unfit to rear and train the child the court may award physical and legal custody to:

107 (i) The person in whose home the child has been108 living in a wholesome and stable environment; or

(ii) Physical and legal custody to any other person deemed by the court to be suitable and able to provide adequate and proper care and guidance for the child.

In making an order for custody to either parent or to both parents jointly, the court, in its discretion, may require the parents to submit to the court a plan for the implementation of the custody order.

(2) Joint custody may be awarded where irreconcilable differences is the ground for divorce, in the discretion of the court, upon application of both parents.

(3) In other cases, joint custody may be awarded, in the discretion of the court, upon application of one (1) or both parents.

(4) There shall be a presumption that joint custody is in the best interest of a minor child where both parents have agreed to an award of joint custody.

(5) (a) For the purposes of this section, "joint custody"means joint physical and legal custody.

H. B. No. 1106 02/HR40/R1743 PAGE 4 (CJR\BD) (b) For the purposes of this section, "physical custody" means those periods of time in which a child resides with or is under the care and supervision of one of the parents.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "joint physical custody" means that each of the parents shall have significant periods of physical custody. Joint physical custody shall be shared by the parents in such a way so as to assure a child of frequent and continuing contact with both parents.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "legal custody" means the decision-making rights, the responsibilities and the authority relating to the health, education and welfare of a child.

For the purposes of this section, "joint legal 139 (e) custody" means that the parents or parties share the 140 decision-making rights, the responsibilities and the authority 141 relating to the health, education and welfare of a child. 142 An award of joint legal custody obligates the parties to exchange 143 144 information concerning the health, education and welfare of the minor child, and to confer with one another in the exercise of 145 146 decision-making rights, responsibilities and authority.

147 An award of joint physical and legal custody obligates the 148 parties to exchange information concerning the health, education 149 and welfare of the minor child, and unless allocated, apportioned 150 or decreed, the parents or parties shall confer with one another 151 in the exercise of decision-making rights, responsibilities and 152 authority.

(6) Any order for joint custody may be modified or terminated upon the petition of both parents or upon the petition of one (1) parent showing that a material change in circumstances has occurred.

157 (7) No preference shall be given to any party to any custody
158 case on account of gender, the male and female being presumed to
159 be equally fit insofar as their respective genders are concerned.

H. B. No. 1106

160 (8) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, access to 161 records and information pertaining to a minor child, including but 162 not limited to medical, dental and school records, shall not be 163 denied to a parent because the parent is not the child's custodial 164 parent.

165 SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from 166 and after July 1, 2002.
