SENATE BILL NO. 2460
(As Sent to Governor)

1 AN ACT TO AMEND SECTION 99-3-7, MISSISSIPPI CODE OF 1972, TO 2 REVISE ARREST REQUIREMENTS IN DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CASES; AND FOR 3 RELATED PURPOSES.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI:

5 SECTION 1. Section 99-3-7, Mississippi Code of 1972, is 6 amended as follows:

7 99-3-7. (1) An officer or private person may arrest any 8 person without warrant, for an indictable offense committed, or a 9 breach of the peace threatened or attempted in his presence; or 10 when a person has committed a felony, though not in his presence;
11 or when a felony has been committed, and he has reasonable ground 12 to suspect and believe the person proposed to be arrested to have 13 committed it; or on a charge, made upon reasonable cause, of the 14 commission of a felony by the party proposed to be arrested. And 15 in all cases of arrests without warrant, the person making such 16 arrest must inform the accused of the object and cause of the 17 arrest, except when he is in the actual commission of the offense,
18 or is arrested on pursuit.

19 (2) Any law enforcement officer may arrest any person on a 20 misdemeanor charge without having a warrant in his possession when 21 a warrant is in fact outstanding for that person's arrest and the 22 officer has knowledge through official channels that the warrant 23 is outstanding for that person's arrest. In all such cases, the 24 officer making the arrest must inform such person at the time of 25 the arrest the object and cause therefor. If the person arrested 26 so requests, the warrant shall be shown to him as soon as 27 practicable.

28 (3) (a) Any law enforcement officer shall arrest a person
29 with or without a warrant when he has probable cause to believe 30 that the person has, within twenty-four (24) hours of such arrest, 31 knowingly committed a misdemeanor which is an act of domestic 32 violence or knowingly violated provisions of an ex parte
33 protective order, protective order after hearing or court-approved 34 consent agreement entered by a chancery, county, justice or 35 municipal court pursuant to the Protection from Domestic Abuse
36 Law, Sections 93-21-1 through 93-21-29, Mississippi Code of 1972,
37 or a restraining order entered by a foreign court of competent 38 jurisdiction to protect an applicant from domestic violence as 39 defined by Section 97-3-7 that require such person to absent
40 himself from a particular geographic area, or prohibit such person 41 from being within a specified distance of another person or 42 persons.

43 (b) If a law enforcement officer has probable cause to 44 believe that two (2) or more persons committed a misdemeanor which 45 is an act of domestic violence as defined herein, or if two (2) or 46 more persons make complaints to the officer, the officer shall 47 attempt to determine who was the principal aggressor. The term
48 "principal aggressor" is defined as the most significant, rather 49 than the first, aggressor. The officer shall presume that arrest 50 is not the appropriate response for the person or persons who were 51 not the principal aggressor. If the officer believes that all 52 parties are equally responsible, the officer shall exercise such 53 officer's best judgment in determining probable cause.

54 (c) To determine who is the principal aggressor, the 55 officer shall consider the following factors, although such 56 consideration is not limited to these factors:

57 (i) Evidence from the persons involved in the 58 domestic abuse;

59 (ii) The history of domestic abuse between the 60 parties, the likelihood of future injury to each person and the

61 intent of the law to protect victims of domestic violence from 62 continuing abuse;

63 (iii) Whether one (1) of the persons acted in 64 self-defense; and

65 (iv) Evidence from witnesses of the domestic 66 violence.

67 (d) A law enforcement officer shall not base the 68 decision of whether to arrest on the consent or request of the 69 victim.

70 (e) A law enforcement officer's determination regarding 71 the existence of probable cause or the lack of probable cause
72 shall not adversely affect the right of any party to independently
73 seek appropriate remedies.

74 (4) (a) Any person authorized by a court of law to 75 supervise or monitor a convicted offender who is under an 76 intensive supervision program may arrest the offender when the 77 offender is in violation of the terms or conditions of the 78 intensive supervision program, without having a warrant, provided
79 that the person making the arrest has been trained at the Law
80 Enforcement Officers Training Academy established under Section
81 45-5-1 et seq. or at a course approved by the Board on Law
82 Enforcement Officer Standards and Training.

83 (b) For the purposes of this subsection, the term
84 "intensive supervision program" means an intensive supervision
85 program of the Department of Corrections as described in Section
86 47-5-1001 et seq., or any similar program authorized by a court
87 for offenders who are not under jurisdiction of the Department of 88 Corrections.

89 (5) As used in subsection (3) of this section, the phrase
90 "misdemeanor which is an act of domestic violence" shall mean one
91 or more of the following acts between family or household members 92 who reside together or formerly resided together, current or

93 former spouses, persons who have a current dating relationship, or 94 persons who have a biological or legally adopted child together:

95 (a) Simple domestic violence within the meaning of 96 Section 97-3-7;

97 (b) Disturbing the family or public peace within the 98 meaning of Section 97-35-9, 97-35-11, 97-35-13 or 97-35-15; or

99 (c) Stalking within the meaning of Section 97-3-107.

100 (6) Any arrest made pursuant to subsection (3) of this 101 section shall be designated as domestic assault or domestic 102 violence on both the arrest docket and the incident report.

103 (7) A law enforcement officer shall not be held liable in 104 any civil action for an arrest based on probable cause and in good 105 faith pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, or failure, in 106 good faith, to make an arrest pursuant to subsection (3) of this 107 section.

108 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from 109 and after July 1, 2002.
