If the voter is unable to sign his signature or make his mark or cross, the appropriate 52 election official shall enter his initials and the voter's month 53 and day of birth in the space provided for the voter's signature 54 55 on the precinct receipt book or other sign in book maintained in 56 the registrar's office, in the case of absentee voting in that office. 57

(e) Allow a voter whose name, address and month and day of birth are the same as those on the precinct voter registration list and who has signed his name on the precinct receipt book in compliance with paragraph (d) of this act to vote without undue delay.

(f) (i) If the address given by the voter is not the same as that on the precinct voter registration list, but the voter believes his address is within the precinct, require the voter to complete a voter registration application or change of address form for the purpose of updating voter registration records.

(ii) If the address given by the voter is not within the precinct or county, direct the voter to the proper precinct or county, if known by the election official, or instruct the voter to contact the registrar to determine his proper voting

73 place.

(g) If the voter's name is not the same as that on the precinct voter registration list, require the voter to complete a voter registration application for the purpose of updating the voter registration records.

(h) If a person appears to vote and his name is not on the precinct voter registration list and it is determined that the person is not registered to vote, give such person the opportunity to complete a voter registration application.

(i) Allow to vote without undue delay a voter who is sixty-five (65) years of age or older on the date on which he is voting after he has completed any voter registration application or change of address form required under paragraph (f)(i) or (g)
