| 3 | GIBBS A | AND JAMES G | REEN. | | | | | | | | |

- 4 WHEREAS, Jackson State University was founded as Natchez
- 5 Seminary in 1877 by the American Baptist Home Mission Society.
- 6 The school was established in Natchez, Mississippi "for the moral,
- 7 religious and intellectual improvement of Christian leaders of the
- 8 colored people of Mississippi and the neighboring states." In
- 9 November 1882 the school was moved to Jackson, Mississippi; in
- 10 March 1899 the curriculum was expanded and the name was changed to
- 11 Jackson College; and
- 12 WHEREAS, Jackson State University has a distinguished
- 13 history, rich in the tradition of educating young men and women
- 14 for leadership, having undergone seven name changes as it grew and
- 15 developed; and
- 16 WHEREAS, in the Spring of 1970, campus communities across
- 17 this country were characterized by a chorus of protests and
- 18 demonstrations. The issues were the escalation of the war in
- 19 Vietnam and the United States' invasion of Cambodia; the ecology;
- 20 racism and repression; and the inclusion of the experiences of
- 21 women and minorities in the educational system. No institution of
- 22 higher education was left untouched by confrontations and
- 23 continuous calls for change; and
- 24 WHEREAS, at Jackson State University in Jackson, Mississippi,
- 25 there was the added issue of intimidation and harassment by
- 26 motorists traveling Lynch Street, a major thoroughfare that
- 27 divided the campus and linked West Jackson to downtown; and

WHEREAS, on May 14-15, 1970, Jackson State University
28
29
    students were protesting these and other issues, as well as the tragedy that occurred at Kent State University in Ohio, when 30
    seventy-five city police officers and state troopers opened fire
31
32
    on students and other citizens gathered in front of Alexander 33
    Hall, a women's dormitory on the campus, killing Phillip Gibbs, a 21-year-old Ripley, Mississippi, pre-law major, and James Earl
34
    Green, a Senior at Jim Hill High School who was taking a short cut 35
    home from his after-school job; and 36
         WHEREAS, following the investigation of the incident by 37
38
    federal authorities, J.R. Lynch Street, which at the time bisected the campus, was closed to through traffic. The Gibbs-Green Plaza, 39
40
    or Plaza for short, was erected shortly thereafter and named for Phillip Lafayette Gibbs and James Earl Green; and 41
         WHEREAS, a popular good-weather hangout for the student body, 42
    the Plaza is a large, multilevel brick and concrete patio-like 43
    structure that blocks off J.R. Lynch Street and links Alexander 44
45
    Hall to the University Green.
                                   The Plaza is the site of many outdoor dances, concerts, Greek shows and other events throughout 46
47
    the year. It is especially active during homecoming, when the homecoming festival and other events are held on its various 48
49
    levels; and
         WHEREAS, Jackson State University will honor the memory of 50
    Phillip Gibbs and James E. Green with a week of activities.
51
52
    April 21-28, 2002, Jackson State University will host various activities to memorialize the names of Gibbs and Green.
53
54
    "Lest We Forget" will be quite appropriate. In an effort to turn
    these tragedies to something special and meaningful, activities 55
    will include a Sunday Vesper Service and two Panel Guest 56
    Discussions by alumni and administrators who were witnesses to the Additionally, a student unity summit will include various 58
59
    Mississippi colleges and university students to discuss unity and
                The week-long event will end with a candlelight march 60
    diversity.
