HOUSE BILL NO. 69

1 AN ACT TO AMEND SECTIONS 25-9-173, 25-9-175 AND 25-9-177,
2 MISSISSIPPI CODE OF 1972, TO ALLOW DAMAGES IN WHISTLEBLOWER
3 ACTIONS; AND FOR RELATED PURPOSES.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI:

5 SECTION 1. Section 25-9-173, Mississippi Code of 1972, is
6 amended as follows:

7 25-9-173. (1) No agency shall dismiss or otherwise
8 adversely affect the compensation or employment status of any 9 public employee because the public employee testified or provided 10 information to a state investigative body whether or not the 11 testimony or information is provided under oath.

12 (2) Any person who is a whistleblower, as defined in Section 13 25-9-171, and who as a result of being a whistleblower has been 14 subjected to workplace reprisal or retaliatory action, is entitled 15 to the remedies provided under Section 25-9-175. For the purpose 16 of this section, "reprisal or retaliatory action" means, but is 17 not limited to:

18 (a) Unwarranted and unsubstantiated letters of 19 reprimand or unsatisfactory performance evaluations;

20 (b) Demotion;

21 (c) Reduction in pay;

22 (d) Denial of promotion;

23 (e) Suspension;

24 (f) Dismissal; and

25 (g) Denial of employment.

26 * * *

27 (3) Nothing in this section prohibits a governmental entity
28 from making any decision exercising its authority to terminate,
29 suspend or discipline an employee who engages in workplace
30 reprisal or retaliatory action against a whistleblower.

31 (4) A governmental entity is not precluded from taking any 32 action in accordance with established personnel policies against 33 an employee who knowingly and intentionally provides false
34 information to a state investigative body.

35 SECTION 2. Section 25-9-175, Mississippi Code of 1972, is 36 amended as follows:

37 25-9-175. Any agency which violates the provisions of 38 Section 25-9-173 shall be liable to the public employee for back
39 pay and reinstatement. In addition, an employee whose employment 40 is suspended or terminated or who is subjected to adverse 41 personnel action in violation of Section 25-9-173 is entitled to 42 sue for injunctive relief, * * * damages, court costs and 43 reasonable attorney's fees; provided, however, that an employee 44 may not recover an amount that exceeds the limitations provided in 45 Section 11-46-15. Additionally, each member of any agency's 46 governing board or authority may be found individually liable for 47 a civil fine of up to Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) for each
48 violation of Section 25-9-173. In any instance where the agency 49 in violation of Section 25-9-173 has no governing board or 50 authority, the agency's executive director may be found
51 individually liable for a civil fine not to exceed Ten Thousand
52 Dollars ($10,000.00). If the court determines that any action 53 filed under this section by an employee is frivolous and 54 unwarrantable, the court may award to the employer court costs and 55 reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred in 56 defense of actions brought by the employee under this section.

57 SECTION 3. Section 25-9-177, Mississippi Code of 1972, is
58 amended as follows:

59 25-9-177. Actions to recover civil fines, damages and other 60 remedies provided for under Section 25-9-175 may be instituted in 61 the Circuit Court for the First Judicial District of Hinds County 62 or in the circuit court of the public employees' residence. In 63 such actions, the public employee shall prove by a preponderance 64 of the evidence that, but for his providing information or 65 testimony to a state investigative body prior to occurrence of the 66 dismissal or any adverse action, his dismissal or any adverse
67 action taken against him would not have occurred. Remedies
68 provided for herein shall be supplemental to any other remedies, 69 judicial or administrative, provided for under law. Any 70 administrative remedies provided for state-service employees under 71 Sections 25-9-127 through 25-9-131, Mississippi Code of 1972, or 72 any remedies under a grievance or appeal process of the employing 73 governmental entity relating to suspension or termination of 74 employment or adverse personnel action, shall not be exhausted or 75 diminished as a result of any action taken by the employee under 76 Sections 25-9-175 and 25-9-177, and the employee shall be required
77 to exhaust such remedies prior to instituting an action authorized 78 under Sections 25-9-175 and 25-9-177.

79 SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from 80 and after July 1, 2003.
