10 WHEREAS, as a full-blooded Choctaw Indian growing up in the 11 Bogue Chitto Community, Thallis Lewis saw firsthand how the ties
12 among the Choctaw people depend on their language, beliefs,

19 and to serve her tribe as a teacher, administrator and program 20 director; and

21 WHEREAS, two decades ago she introduced Choctaw dance into 22 the curriculum of the Early Childhood Education Program. Since 23 then, she has encouraged dance groups adhering to each Choctaw
24 Community's particular dance traditions. At the last Choctaw
25 Indian Fair, more than a dozen dance groups were featured, a 26 testimony to the success of her efforts; and

27 WHEREAS, under Thallis' guidance, cultural presentations at 28 the Choctaw Fair have expanded to include basketry, food ways

29 demonstration and hands-on activities for children. She was 30 instrumental in the development of the cultural section of the 31 tribal website; worked with educators to develop teaching
32 materials; and she maintains a full schedule of statewide school 33 programs; and

34 WHEREAS, currently Thallis directs the Cultural Affairs
35 Program of the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians. She developed 36 a highly successful series of community workshops in traditions
37 such as clothes making, beadwork and traditional outdoor cookery.
38 She has initiated research into endangered traditions and 39 documentation of the recollections of tribal elders; and

40 WHEREAS, it is with great pride that we recognize the unique 41 talents of this citizen who has brought honor to her community and 42 to the State of Mississippi:

43 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF
