SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 47

1 A RESOLUTION COMMENDING THE CAREER OF DR. JORJA POUND
2 TURNIPSEED OF STARKVILLE, MISSISSIPPI, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF VSA
3 ARTS OF MISSISSIPPI, UPON THE OCCASION OF HER RETIREMENT.

4 WHEREAS, longtime Executive Director of VSA Arts of 5 Mississippi, Inc. (formerly Very Special Arts of Mississippi) and 6 Professor Emerita at Mississippi State University, Dr. Jorja Pound
7 Turnipseed of Starkville, Mississippi, has announced her 8 retirement after many years of dedicated service to people with 9 disabilities; and

10 WHEREAS, "VSA" stands for "Vision, Strength and Artistic 11 Expression"; the national organization was founded in 1974 as an 12 affiliate of The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, 13 and is an international organization that creates learning 14 opportunities through the arts for people with disabilities. The 15 organization serves 4.3 million Americans by offering arts-based 16 programs in creative writing, dance, drama, music and the visual 17 arts implemented primarily through a vast network in 39 states, 18 which includes VSA Arts of Mississippi; and

19 WHEREAS, Dr. Turnipseed's professional activities and 20 dedicated service are a matter of record: for many years she 21 taught the only teacher-training component dealing with 22 music-based arts education for special learners in the state;
23 member of the first Advisory Board for Very Special Arts, 24 Washington, D.C. (1985-1988); Chairman of the Advisory Board for 25 the Governor's Office of Handicapped Services (1981-1984);
26 teacher-training programs listed as "Exemplary Training Program 27 Activities/Mississippi State University" in the Arts Resource and

28 Training Guide, published by the National Committee, Arts for the 29 Handicapped (1981); Project Director of several 30 research/development projects involving music-based arts education
31 programs and children in Grades K-4; inducted into the Educational 32 Hall of Fame, Starkville Area Chamber of Commerce, 1992; selected
33 as "Outstanding Mississippi Woman 1988-1989", Mississippi State
34 University (1989); honored with the "Outstanding Community Service 35 Award", Starkville Area Chamber of Commerce (1986); recipient of 36 the "Outstanding Professional Woman in Service Award", in 1981,
37 and the first "Outstanding Faculty Woman Award" by Mississippi
38 State University (1972); recipient of a Special Award for 39 "Dedication and Leadership in Bringing Arts to the Lives of 40 Disabled People", the first such award given, presented by the 41 National Committee, Arts for the Handicapped (1985) presented 42 sessions at professional meetings and conferences, including, but 43 not limited to, Music Educators National Conference, Music
44 Education for the Handicapped International Symposium, Council for 45 Exceptional Children International Conference, Mid-South
46 Educational Research Conference, Southern Arts Federation Arts
47 Accessibility Conference, National School Board Association
48 Presidents' Conference, and International President, Pilot Club
49 International, a worldwide classified service organization for 50 executives and professionals (1986-1987); and

51 WHEREAS, from the beginning of a child's education to the 52 time when he or she becomes an adult and pursues a career, 53 research shows that the arts enhance both personal and academic 54 success. For people with disabilities, the arts represent a world 55 of resources and opportunities for creative expression and 56 success, enabling these individuals to contribute to our 57 workplaces and communities; and

58 WHEREAS, it is with great pride that we recognize the 59 contributions of this Mississippi citizen whose dedicated research
60 and service has broken new ground for people with disabilities

61 through the arts, and brought honor to her university and 62 community and to the State of Mississippi:

63 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF 64 MISSISSIPPI, That we do hereby commend the career of Dr. Jorja
65 Pound Turnipseed, Executive Director of VSA Arts of Mississippi
66 (formerly Very Special Arts of Mississippi) upon the occasion of 67 her retirement, and extend the thanks of the Legislature for her 68 dedicated service to people with disabilities through the arts, 69 and the best wishes to her and her family for success in their 70 future endeavors.

71 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this resolution be presented to 72 Dr. Turnipseed and be made available to the President of 73 Mississippi State University and the Capitol Press Corps.
