70 after June 30, 1995, may be eligible for parole if the offender
71 meets the requirements in subsection (1) and this paragraph. In 72 addition to other requirements, if a first offender is convicted 73 of a drug or driving under the influence felony, the offender must 74 complete a drug and alcohol rehabilitation program prior to 75 parole, or the offender may be required to complete a post-release
76 drug and alcohol program as a condition of parole. For purposes 77 of this paragraph, "nonviolent crime" means a felony other than 78 homicide, robbery, manslaughter, sex crimes, arson, burglary of an 79 occupied dwelling, aggravated assault, kidnapping, felonious abuse
80 of vulnerable adults, felonies with enhanced penalties, the sale
81 or manufacture of a controlled substance under the Uniform
82 Controlled Substances Law and felony child abuse.

83 (2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an inmate
84 shall not be eligible to receive earned time, good time or any 85 other administrative reduction of time which shall reduce the time
86 necessary to be served for parole eligibility as provided in 87 subsection (1) of this section; however, this subsection shall not 88 apply to the advancement of parole eligibility dates pursuant to 89 the Prison Overcrowding Emergency Powers Act. Moreover,
90 meritorious earned time allowances may be used to reduce the time
91 necessary to be served for parole eligibility as provided in 92 paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section.

93 (3) The State Parole Board shall by rules and regulations
94 establish a method of determining a tentative parole hearing date

95 for each eligible offender taken into the custody of the 96 Department of Corrections. The tentative parole hearing date
97 shall be determined within ninety (90) days after the department
98 has assumed custody of the offender. Such tentative parole
99 hearing date shall be calculated by a formula taking into account
100 the offender's age upon first commitment, number of prior 101 incarcerations, prior probation or parole failures, the severity
102 and the violence of the offense committed, employment history and 103 other criteria which in the opinion of the board tend to validly
104 and reliably predict the length of incarceration necessary before
105 the offender can be successfully paroled.

106 (4) Any inmate within twenty-four (24) months of his parole
107 eligibility date and who meets the criteria established by the 108 classification board shall receive priority for placement in any 109 educational development and job training programs. Any inmate
110 refusing to participate in an educational development or job
111 training program may be ineligible for parole.

112 SECTION 2. Section 47-5-138, Mississippi Code of 1972, is 113 brought forward as follows:

114 47-5-138. (1) The department may promulgate rules and 115 regulations to carry out an earned time allowance program based on 116 the good conduct and performance of an inmate. An inmate is 117 eligible to receive an earned time allowance of one-half (1/2) of 118 the period of confinement imposed by the court except those 119 inmates excluded by law. When an inmate is committed to the 120 custody of the department, the department shall determine a
121 conditional earned time release date by subtracting the earned
122 time allowance from an inmate's term of sentence. This subsection
123 does not apply to any sentence imposed after June 30, 1995.

124 (2) An inmate may forfeit all or part of his earned time
125 allowance for a serious violation of rules. No forfeiture of the 126 earned time allowance shall be effective except upon approval of

127 the commissioner or his designee, and forfeited earned time may 128 not be restored.

129 (3) (a) For the purposes of this subsection, "final order"
130 means an order of a state or federal court that dismisses a
131 lawsuit brought by an inmate while the inmate was in the custody
132 of the Department of Corrections as frivolous, malicious or for 133 failure to state a claim upon which relief could be granted.

134 (b) On receipt of a final order, the department shall 135 forfeit:

136 (i) Sixty (60) days of an inmate's accrued earned
137 time if the department has received one (1) final order as defined
138 herein;

139 (ii) One hundred twenty (120) days of an inmate's
140 accrued earned time if the department has received two (2) final 141 orders as defined herein;

142 (iii) One hundred eighty (180) days of an inmate's 143 accrued earned time if the department has received three (3) or 144 more final orders as defined herein.

145 (c) The department may not restore earned time
146 forfeited under this subsection.

147 (4) An inmate who meets the good conduct and performance
148 requirements of the earned time allowance program may be released
149 on his conditional earned time release date.

150 (5) For any sentence imposed after June 30, 1995, an inmate
151 may receive an earned time allowance of four and one-half (4-1/2)
152 days for each thirty (30) days served if the department determines 153 that the inmate has complied with the good conduct and performance
154 requirements of the earned time allowance program. The earned
155 time allowance under this subsection shall not exceed fifteen
156 percent (15%) of an inmate's term of sentence.

157 (6) Any inmate, who is released before the expiration of his 158 term of sentence under this section, shall be placed under 159 earned-release supervision until the expiration of the term of

160 sentence. The inmate shall retain inmate status and remain under 161 the jurisdiction of the department. The period of earned-release 162 supervision shall be conducted in the same manner as a period of 163 supervised parole. The department shall develop rules, terms and 164 conditions for the earned-release supervision program. The 165 commissioner shall designate the appropriate hearing officer
166 within the department to conduct revocation hearings for inmates
167 violating the conditions of earned-release supervision.

168 (7) If the earned-release supervision is revoked, the inmate
169 shall serve the remainder of the sentence and the time the inmate 170 was on earned-release supervision, shall not be applied to and 171 shall not reduce his sentence.

172 SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from 173 and after July 1, 2004.
