HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 13

1 A RESOLUTION COMMENDING MAGNOLIA J. MITCHELL ON THE OCCASION
2 OF HER 101ST BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.

3 WHEREAS, Magnolia J. Mitchell, of Charleston, Mississippi,
4 born to the late Scott and Ada Jackson, in Yalobusha County,
5 Mississippi, on January 21, 1903, recently celebrated her 101st 6 birthday; and

7 WHEREAS, the eldest of six children, Mrs. Mitchell attended
8 school in the Springhill community east of Riverdale, and obtained 9 an eighth-grade education; and

10 WHEREAS, having grown up in a time when children would go to 11 school on average of approximately three months out of a year,
12 Mrs. Mitchell is grateful that she learned to read and write,
13 which affords her the ability to read her Bible and the newspaper 14 on a daily basis; and

15 WHEREAS, Mrs. Mitchell began cooking at the age of five and 16 vividly recalls the wooden block her father cut for use as a step, 17 enabling her to reach the stovetop; and

18 WHEREAS, when she was thirteen years old, Mrs. Mitchell's 19 father passed, leaving her and her older brother to assist their 20 mother in raising the younger children, and at fifteen years of 21 age, she began performing domestic work in the Hardy community for 22 a pay of one dollar per day to help provide for her family; and

23 WHEREAS, in 1925, Mrs. Mitchell married Vellie Mitchell and 24 resided in Yalobusha County, where she continued her domestic work 25 and sharecropping before she gained employment at Camp McCain in 26 Grenada, Mississippi, where she worked in the laundry room during 27 World War I; and

28           WHEREAS, at the age of twenty-eight, Mrs. Mitchell joined 29 Union Grove Missionary Baptist Church in the Leverette community,
30 where she was faithful in service until moving to Tallahatchie
31 County, Mississippi, and uniting in membership with Jerusalem
32 Missionary Baptist Church at Paynes, where she remains an active 33 member; and

34           WHEREAS, Mrs. Mitchell contributes the blessing of her 35 longevity to "prayer and faith" and the loving support of her 36 family and friends; and

37           WHEREAS, it is the policy of this Legislature to recognize 38 and commend such outstanding Mississippians as Mrs. Mitchell, 39 whose life is evidence of living history:

40           NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF 41 REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, That we do hereby 42 commend and congratulate Mrs. Magnolia J. Mitchell on the occasion
43 of her 101st celebration of life and extend our heartiest wishes 44 for many more years of good health, love, peace, joy and 45 happiness.

46           BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be 47 furnished to Mrs. Magnolia J. Mitchell and to the members of the 48 Capitol Press Corps.
