HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 14

1 A RESOLUTION COMMENDING THE LIFE AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF 2 SERGEANT JONATHAN WYATT LAMBERT AND EXPRESSING DEEPEST SYMPATHY TO 3 HIS FAMILY AND FRIENDS UPON HIS PASSING.

WHEREAS, born on September 13, 1974, to Johnny W. and Rebecca
D. Lambert, Sergeant Jonathan Wyatt Lambert, of Booneville, Mississippi and the United States Marine Corps, departed this life on June 1, 2003, while serving the United States in furtherance of "Operation Iraqi Freedom," causing great sorrow and loss to his family and friends; and

10 WHEREAS, Sergeant Lambert began his tour of duty with the 11 Marines on May 3, 1995, when he stood as a recruit on the yellow 12 footprints of Parris Island, South Carolina; and

WHEREAS, choosing the field of communications, Sergeant Lambert attended Radio Operator School in 29 Palms, where upon completion he traveled to Okinawa, Japan, for his first Marine Corps tour as part of the Third Marine Division, establishing himself as a reliable and dedicated Marine with immense knowledge in his communication specialty; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Lambert continually sought to improve himself, attending the School Incidental Operators Course, the Basic Forward Observer Course, the Net Controllers Course, the Enhanced Positioning Location Reporting System School, the Planner and Network Managers courses, the Corporal Leadership Course, the Sergeant Non-Resident Program, the Field Radio Operations course and the Marine Combat Training course; and

26 WHEREAS, after an impressive tour in Okinawa, Sergeant 27 Lambert was transferred to the Second Marine Division at Camp

28 Lejeune, North Carolina, where his enthusiasm and impeccable 29 knowledge and skill at communications was paramount, as he served 30 as a role model for all the troops he worked with; and

31 WHEREAS, Sergeant Lambert served the Marine Corps honorably 32 and was discharged on January 29, 1999, after which he joined the 33 Mississippi Army National Guard where he gained some invaluable 34 experience and displayed the same dedicated work ethic that he 35 showed in the Marine Corps; and

36 WHEREAS, though his services with the National Guard fared 37 well, Sergeant Lambert's calling and roots were with the Marine 38 Corps, and on November 28, 2000, he reenlisted with the Marine 39 Corps as a Corporal; and

40 WHEREAS, during Operation Iraqi Freedom, Sergeant Lambert was 41 normally hidden from view as he performed his magic with 42 communications, but electronically he was all over the 43 battlefield, his personal efforts and professional contributions 44 to this cause were monumental; and

WHEREAS, a man and a Marine deeply admired by his fellow 45 Marines, Sergeant Lambert's leadership traits and strengths were 46 47 as strong as his technical wizardry, and his personal interest in 48 the well being of his Marines was evident in the care he provided 49 them, as well as his upbeat and positive attitude that permeated throughout the platoon during times when it was most needed; and 50 51 WHEREAS, highly decorated in service, Sergeant Lambert's 52 awards and commendations consist of two Marine Corps Good Conduct 53 Medals, the Army Achievement Medal, the Navy and Marine Corps 54 Achievement Medal, the Sea Service Deployment Ribbon, two National 55 Defense Service Medals, two Meritorious Masts, a Certificate of Commendation, two Letters of Appreciation, the Rifle Expert Badge 56

57 and the Pistol Expert Badge; and

58 WHEREAS, a loving husband, father, son, brother, uncle and 59 friend, Sergeant Lambert will be sorely missed by those who 60 experienced the depth of his love, commitment and compassion for H. R. No. 14 HR40/R1032 04/HR40/R1032
