5 and will receive the award at an Eagle Scout Court of Honor 6 Ceremony on March 9, 2004; and

7 WHEREAS, to receive the Eagle Medal, a Scout must earn 22
8 merit badges. Mandatory badges include 3 for citizenship and one 9 each for camping, communications, lifesaving, environmental 10 science, first aid, personal fitness/sports, personal management, 11 safety and family life; and

12 WHEREAS, Justin began his journey as a Tiger Cub in Cub
13 Scouts at the age of 7, progressed through the ranks and earned 14 the "Arrow of Light" Award when completing his Cub Scout days; he 15 joined Troop 9 of Madison, Mississippi, at the age of 11, 16 completed all of the rank and advancement requirements, earned the 17 "World Conservation" Award, completed his Eagle Scout project, 18 which was to build a 12' x 12' storage building for the PTA of the 19 middle school he had previously attended. It was painted in 20 school colors and was quite a welcome addition for the school; and

21 WHEREAS, being an Eagle Scout teaches you life skills: 64%
22 of Air Force Academy graduates were Scouts; 63% of West Point
23 graduates were Scouts; 77% of Annapolis graduates were Scouts; 72%
24 of all Rhodes Scholars were Scouts; 85% of all FBI agents were 25 Scouts; and 57% of the first 65 astronauts were Scouts; and

26 WHEREAS, for every 100 boys who join a Boy Scout troop: 12
27 will have their first contact with a church; one will enter the

28 clergy; 8 will enter a career that was learned through the merit
29 badge system; one will use his Boy Scout skills to save a life;
30 one will use his Boy Scout skills to save his own life; 17 will 31 become scouting volunteers; and 2 will become Eagle Scouts; and

32 WHEREAS, it is with great pride that we recognize this young 33 Mississippian, whose dedication to the traditions of scouting,
34 self-discipline, determination and leadership demonstrate a
35 dedication to citizenship and patriotism:

36 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF 37 MISSISSIPPI, That we do hereby commend and congratulate Justin 38 Phelps of Madison, Mississippi, upon attaining the coveted rank of 39 Eagle Scout, extend the best wishes of the Senate to his family, 40 and wish him continued success in his future scouting, academic 41 and civic service endeavors.

42 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this resolution be presented to 43 Justin Phelps and his family, and be made available to the Capitol
44 Press Corps.
