However, in the event the child has been enrolled in a public 96

school within fifteen (15) calendar days after the first day of 97

- the school year as required in subsection (6), the parent or 98
- custodian may, at a later date, enroll the child in a legitimate 99
- nonpublic school or legitimate home instruction program and send 100
- the certificate of enrollment to the school attendance officer and 101
- 102 be in compliance with this subsection.
- For the purposes of this subsection, a legitimate nonpublic 103
- school or legitimate home instruction program shall be those not 104
- operated or instituted for the purpose of avoiding or 105
- circumventing the compulsory attendance law. 106
- 107 An "unlawful absence" is an absence during a school day (4)
- by a compulsory-school-age child, which absence is not due to a 108
- valid excuse for temporary nonattendance. Days missed from school 109
- due to disciplinary suspension shall not be considered an 110
- 111 "excused" absence under this section. This subsection shall not
- 112 apply to children enrolled in a nonpublic school.
- 113 Each of the following shall constitute a valid excuse for
- temporary nonattendance of a compulsory-school-age child enrolled 114
- in a public school, provided satisfactory evidence of the excuse 115
- is provided to the superintendent of the school district, or his 116
- 117 designee:
- 118 (a) An absence is excused when the absence results from
- 119 the compulsory-school-age child's attendance at an authorized
- school activity with the prior approval of the superintendent of 120
- the school district, or his designee. These activities may 121
- include field trips, athletic contests, student conventions, 122
- musical festivals and any similar activity. 123
- An absence is excused when the absence results from 124
- illness or injury which prevents the compulsory-school-age child 125
- 126 from being physically able to attend school.
- 127 An absence is excused when isolation of a
- 128 compulsory-school-age child is ordered by the county health

05/HR40/R1064 PAGE 4 (CTE\BD) officer, by the State Board of Health or appropriate school official.

- (d) An absence is excused when it results from the death or serious illness of a member of the immediate family of a compulsory-school-age child. The immediate family members of a compulsory-school-age child shall include children, spouse, grandparents, parents, brothers and sisters, including stepbrothers and stepsisters.
- (e) An absence is excused when it results from a medical or dental appointment of a compulsory-school-age child where an approval of the superintendent of the school district, or his designee, is gained before the absence, except in the case of emergency.
- 142 (f) An absence is excused when it results from the 143 attendance of a compulsory-school-age child at the proceedings of 144 a court or an administrative tribunal if the child is a party to 145 the action or under subpoena as a witness.
- (g) An absence may be excused if the religion to which the compulsory-school-age child or the child's parents adheres, requires or suggests the observance of a religious event. The approval of the absence is within the discretion of the superintendent of the school district, or his designee, but approval should be granted unless the religion's observance is of such duration as to interfere with the education of the child.
- 153 (h) An absence may be excused when it is demonstrated 154 to the satisfaction of the superintendent of the school district, or his designee, that the purpose of the absence is to take 155 156 advantage of a valid educational opportunity such as travel, 157 including vacations or other family travel. Approval of the 158 absence must be gained from the superintendent of the school district, or his designee, before the absence, but the approval 159 shall not be unreasonably withheld. 160

(i) An absence may be excused when it is demonstrated to the satisfaction of the superintendent of the school district, or his designee, that conditions are sufficient to warrant the compulsory-school-age child's nonattendance. However, no absences shall be excused by the school district superintendent, or his designee, when any student suspensions or expulsions circumvent the intent and spirit of the compulsory attendance law.

(5) Any parent, guardian or custodian of a compulsory-school-age child subject to this section who refuses or willfully fails to perform any of the duties imposed upon him or her under this section or who intentionally falsifies any information required to be contained in a certificate of enrollment, shall be guilty of contributing to the neglect of a child and, upon conviction, shall be punished in accordance with Section 97-5-39.

176 Upon prosecution of a parent, guardian or custodian of a compulsory-school-age child for violation of this section, the 177 presentation of evidence by the prosecutor that shows that the 178 179 child has not been enrolled in school within eighteen (18) 180 calendar days after the first day of the school year of the public school which the child is eligible to attend, or that the child 181 has accumulated twelve (12) unlawful absences during the school 182 year at the public school in which the child has been enrolled, 183 184 shall establish a prima facie case that the child's parent, 185 guardian or custodian is responsible for the absences and has 186 refused or willfully failed to perform the duties imposed upon him 187 or her under this section. However, no proceedings under this 188 section shall be brought against a parent, guardian or custodian 189 of a compulsory-school-age child unless the school attendance 190 officer has contacted promptly the home of the child and has 191 provided written notice to the parent, guardian or custodian of 192 the requirement for the child's enrollment or attendance.

The youth court 219 shall expedite a hearing to make an appropriate adjudication and a disposition to ensure compliance with the Compulsory School 220 Attendance Law, and may order the child to enroll or re-enroll in 221 222 school. The superintendent of the school district to which the child is ordered may assign, in his discretion, the child to the 223 alternative school program of the school established pursuant to 224 225 Section 37-13-92.
