1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION COMMENDING THE LIFE OF MISSISSIPPI'S
2 FIRST NEUROLOGIST, DR. RICHARD W. NAEF, AND EXPRESSING THE 3 SYMPATHY OF THE LEGISLATURE ON HIS PASSING.

4 WHEREAS, Dr. Richard Wick Naef, Mississippi's first
5 Neurologist and Jackson civic and charitable leader, passed away
6 on January 20, 2005; and

9 He served in the Hospital Corps of the U.S. Navy from 1945 to 10 1947, ending his tour of duty at the Naval Hospital at Camp
11 Lejeune, North Carolina. After his honorable discharge, he 12 attended Millsaps College in Jackson, Mississippi, year-round,
13 graduating Magna Cum Laude in 1949. He then entered Jefferson
14 Medical School in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, graduating in 1953; 15 and

16 WHEREAS, Richard Naef was awarded the Gold Medal in Anatomy
17 in his freshman year, and later the Gold Medal in Otology. He was 18 a member of the Omicron Delta Kappa honors society since his 19 undergraduate years, and was accepted into the Alpha Omega Alpha 20 honorary medical fraternity in medical school; and

21 WHEREAS, his residency in Neurology was with his mentor, the 22 late Dr. Bernard Alpers; he also completed a residency in 23 Psychiatry. Dr. Naef moved back to Jackson in 1959 as the first 24 Neurologist to practice in the State of Mississippi, joining the 25 practice of Neurosurgeons Neill, Neill and Hodges. He received 26 the Millsaps Outstanding Alumnus Award in 1960; and

27 WHEREAS, Richard Naef met his future wife, the late Jane 28 Ellen Newell Naef, in the Central High School Glee Club, and in 29 college they were active in the Millsaps Singers. Both of these 30 choral groups were directed by the late Alvin Jon King, whose 31 friendship and tutelage profoundly shaped their lives. Dr. Naef
32 was an avid record collector and he and his wife greatly enjoyed 33 attending concerts. This love of music led the Naefs to nurture 34 Jackson's musical institutions; they were founding members of the 35 Jackson Choral Society and long-time members of Fondren
36 Presbyterian Church, where they sang in the choir and Dr. Naef
37 served as Elder and Sunday School Teacher. They were strong 38 supporters of Jackson's Symphony, Opera and Ballet; and 39 WHEREAS, in the early 1960s, Dr. Naef and partner, Dr.

40 William E. Bowlus, opened their neurology practice. In time, they 41 were joined by the late Dr. Lawrence Mahalak, Dr. Ancel C. Tipton,
42 Jr. and Dr. David McHenry. Dr. Naef saw patients at all Jackson 43 hospitals, as well as attending to patients once a week at the 44 Mississippi State Hospital at Whitfield. From 1959 to 1963, he 45 was part-time Assistant Professor of Medicine (Neurology) at the 46 University of Mississippi Medical Center (UMMC). In 1963, he 47 assumed an appointment as Clinical Assistant Professor of 48 Neurology at UMMC, a position he held until his retirement in 49 1995. Faith guided Dr. Naef's efforts as a physician, as he 50 sought to make his Christian life the center of his medical 51 practice. He was among those doctors in Jackson who decided early 52 on to integrate their waiting rooms, accepting patients from all 53 races and all walks of life; and

55 years, Jane Ellen Newell Naef, and by his parents and his youngest 56 brother. He is remembered with love by his daughter, the Rev. Dr.

58 Tyler Richard Hudson-Naef and Ellen Caroline Hudson-Naef, all of 59 Jackson; daughter, Lorie Naef, and her husband, Theodore G. Ammon,

60 and granddaughters, Kristin Naef Ammon and Bethany Naef Ammon, all 61 of Jackson; daughter, Lisa Naef Terry, and her husband, R. Michael

66 Mississippi citizen whose charity and civic leadership will be 67 deeply missed:
