6 of Corinth Coca-Cola Bottling Works, began his run of the entire 7 State of Mississippi to raise awareness of the importance of 8 physical activity. Williams officially kicked off the run in his 9 hometown of Corinth, Mississippi, celebrating the launch of his 10 400-mile journey. He also ran to raise money for the Boys and 11 Girls Clubs of Mississippi; and

12 WHEREAS, Williams' run through Mississippi was done to 13 promote "Step With It! Mississippi," which teaches middle school 14 students a fun way to incorporate physical activity into their 15 daily lives. The "Step With It!" program, developed by the 16 Coca-Cola Company in partnership with the National Association for 17 Sport and Physical Education (NASPE), challenges middle school
18 students to take a minimum of 10,000 steps a day to maintain good 19 health through a more active lifestyle. Each student who 20 participates in the program receives a stepometer to track his 21 progress on a daily basis; and

22 WHEREAS, the "Step With It! Mississippi" program raised money
23 for Boys and Girls Clubs throughout the state to support physical 24 education programs. Together with sponsors Trustmark Bank,
25 Partnership for a Healthy Mississippi and Coca-Cola, Williams
26 raised $110,000.00 through donations collected at Trustmark Bank
27 branches and Boys and Girls Clubs. Williams made appearances

28 throughout Mississippi via community programs in numerous cities 29 and special events in Corinth, Jackson and Gulfport; and

30 WHEREAS, the "Step With It! Mississippi" kickoff also marked
31 Williams' 63rd birthday. An avid runner and Mississippi native,
32 Williams has completed 27 marathons and coached many first-time
33 marathoners through their first race. While on the journey,
34 Williams ran 12-15 miles per day, six days a week, and made 35 appearances at schools and Boys and Girls Clubs throughout the 36 state; and

37 WHEREAS, on October 26, 2004, the run was preceded by 38 Kenneth's last presentation at Central Middle School in Gulfport,
39 Mississippi, before an audience of 300 attentive students
40 receptive to the message. The final leg of the journey was a 41 two-mile run down Highway 49 from the Gulfport Coca-Cola plant to 42 the Gulfport beach; and

43 WHEREAS, Williams hopes his adventure will inspire more than 44 just middle school students to become active. "I want to prove 45 that anyone, at any age, can accomplish their goals," he said.
46 "Physical fitness is attainable by everyone and is key to ensuring 47 you can complete your own great adventure"; and

48 WHEREAS, "Step With It! Mississippi" was originally launched
49 in 2002. During 2003, more than 250 schools across the country
50 kicked off "Step With It!" programs. This year, Coca-Cola will 51 bring "Step With It!" to more than 1,000 schools nationwide, 52 reaching one million students and teachers across the country; and
