9 Military Park which was recently dedicated; and

10 WHEREAS, after getting his medical degree from the University
11 of Mississippi, Dr. Sessums came to Brookhaven in 1988. Regarding 12 his artistic and medical abilities, Dr. Sessums said he did not 13 want to be found "lazy" by not using the gifts that God gave him; 14 and

15 WHEREAS, after developing a reputation for quality graphite
16 drawings and pastels, the Brookhaven artist is now making a name 17 for himself in the world of sculpture. Dr. Sessums said he

20 relies on his research; and

21 WHEREAS, Dr. Sessums said he still does some commission work,
22 but he is selective about what projects he takes on. He said a

25 sculptures since 1995; and

29 These pieces are in the private collections of those individuals.
30 Today, Dr. Sessums has completed 25 sculptures of various 31 subjects; and

32 WHEREAS, Dr. Sessums took on his largest project a few years
33 ago when he was selected to design a larger-than-life size 34 monument recognizing black soldiers' contributions during the 35 Civil War. In February 2004, it was unveiled at the Vicksburg
36 National Military Park; and

37 WHEREAS, although his reputation as an artist continues to 38 grow, Dr. Sessums said he will maintain his medical practice; and

39 WHEREAS, Dr. Sessums and his wife, Kristy, have been married
40 for 25 years, and are blessed with four children: Jake, Joey,
41 Stewart and Price. The Sessums family attends Faith Presbyterian 42 Church, where Kim is an Elder; and

43 WHEREAS, it is with great pride that we recognize the unique
