HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 29

1 2 3	A RESOLUTION COMMENDING MR. JAMES MONROE JOHNSON FOR HIS OUTSTANDING COMPOSITION OF AN ORIGINAL POEM ENTITLED, "I AM A MISSISSIPPIAN."
4	WHEREAS, Mr. James Monroe Johnson of Starkville, Mississippi,
5	composed an extraordinary original poem entitled "I Am a
6	Mississippian," which captures the essence and pride of the many
7	wonderful aspects of this great state; and
8	WHEREAS, copyrighted August 6, 2004, "I Am a Mississippian"
9	reads as follows:
10	"I am a Mississippian, born and bred
11	Cotton picked and corn-fed
12	Been 'round the world but back again
13	Chevrolet driven and democratic led
14	Most of my kinfolk
15	All up and gone
16	From the cotton fields and hay patches
17	That we used to call home
18	Everybody's talking about us
19	Being on the bottom
20	'Bout how we are always last
21	And forever forgotten
22	Many folk from here are ashamed
23	'Cause this where they're from
24	We all share shame for our past
25	And the obstacles we've overcome
26	We got B.B. King
27	The master of them blues

28	Then there's Elvis
29	And his blue suede shoes
30	Howling Wolf and Muddy Waters
31	And Little Milton too
32	Charley Pride and Faith Hill
33	Both country and blues
34	I'm tired of people asking me
35	Why I always come back
36	I never hesitate to tell them
37	This is where ya'll at
38	Mississippi is really unique
39	Our flowers grow so green
40	Our trees so naturally
41	Our hogs so lean
42	Our chickens so meaty
43	Our cows so fat
44	Our catfish so fishy
45	Our colored folk so black
46	Mississippi hasn't always been
47	The most favorite place to be
48	Nor ideal to visit
49	If you looked like me
50	But, I never hesitated
51	To really speak my mind
52	When people asked me where I'm from
53	I'd tell them every time
54	I'm from a small town
55	In the middle of a southern state
56	Not too many miles south of Memphis
57	Where fish still eat bait
58	Where waters are still muddied
59	And people go without shoes
60	Where chickens still lay eggs

61	And folk still grow food
62	Next to the heart of Dixie
63	Back to where I really belong
64	Yes, I am still a Mississippian
65	Because this is my home!"
66	WHEREAS, it is the policy of the House of Representatives to
67	recognize outstanding and creative masters of literary works, such
68	as Mr. James Monroe Johnson, who skillfully displays many of the
69	brilliant aspects of this great state:

74	him great success in all his future endeavors.
75	BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be
76	furnished to Mr. James Monroe Johnson and members of the Capitol
77	Press Corps.
