SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 56

A RESOLUTION COMMENDING THE CIVIC AND HUMANITARIAN

CONTRIBUTIONS OF REPRESENTATIVE CHARLES L. YOUNG, SR., AND 2 3 EXPRESSING THE THANKS OF THE SENATE. 4 WHEREAS, Charles L. Young, Sr., fits the definition of a humanitarian. His dedication to community and education keeps the 5 doors of opportunities open; and 6 WHEREAS, Charles L. Young was born on August 27, 1931. His 7 8 parents were E.F. Young and Velma Beal Young from Meridian, Mississippi. He has four children: Veldore, Arthur, Deidre and 9 Charles, Jr. His wife, Doretha, passed away several years ago; 10 11 and WHEREAS, Charles attended the Meridian Public School System 12 13 and graduated from high school in 1947. He attended Tennessee State University when his father passed away. His mother 14 15 shouldered the load of keeping E.F. Young Manufacturing Company afloat. After receiving a BS Degree in Business Administration, 16 Charles served in the United States Army in the Korean Conflict 17 18 and received several medals, including the Bronze Star for Valor; 19 and 20 WHEREAS, after returning from his service in the Armed 21 Forces, Charles worked with his mother in the family business, 22 that started in 1931. While doing this he also became involved in the Civil Rights Movement. In a time when it was not popular for 23 an African-American to be in the Chamber of Commerce, he was the 24 first member. Charles was several times "removed" from Weidmann's 25 26 Restaurant for being an African-American patron, but is now an 27 investor of the restaurant building; and 28 WHEREAS, he continues to head the community through his 29 public service, when in 1980 he ran for the Mississippi House of 30 Representatives. Since his service began, he has been unopposed; 31 and

32 WHEREAS, Charles is dedicated to children and their 33 education. He focused his efforts on helping low-income children 34 by creating Head Start in Mississippi. It is designed to receive education, immunizations and healthy meals to children ages 3-5. 35 This preschool, Head Start, now takes children as early as six 36 weeks of age. It is a full-day program for those in need. 37 This 38 provides the chance for so many young children to have the opportunity for early childhood education. Charles is a Board 39 40 Member, and has been since its creation; and

41 WHEREAS, Charles believes when God gives you the opportunity, 42 you have to take advantage of it. Every Sunday he has a van that 43 he takes out to the Local Housing Authority Community and picks up 44 children for Sunday School and lunch. He is always making a 45 better way for children; and

WHEREAS, his love for tennis also flows over to children, as 46 47 he sponsors an annual tennis camp for over 100 children; and WHEREAS, Representative Young is currently Chairman of the 48 49 Universities and Colleges Committee. While serving in the 50 Legislature, Charles has become one of its most respected members and has made a huge impact in his local community. He has 51 52 tirelessly worked to help Meridian Community College, East Mississippi State Hospital, The Riley Center and Hope for 53 54 Children. It is his legislative influence that implemented sponsorship for Hope for Children and The Riley Center; and 55

56 WHEREAS, Charles continues to open new doors for the 57 betterment of children and this community. He is a true 58 humanitarian who has established an admirable record of service to 59 the State of Mississippi:
