By: Representative Stringer

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 110

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION COMMENDING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF CHESTER A. THIGPEN, FORMER NATIONAL AND MISSISSIPPI OUTSTANDING TREE FARMER OF THE YEAR, AND EXPRESSING THE SYMPATHY OF THE LEGISLATURE.
WHEREAS, the State of Mississippi has lost a leading spokesman for the tree-farming community with the passing of Chester A. Thigpen, 95, of Bay Springs, Mississippi, formerly of 8 Montrose, on January 8, 2007; and

PAGE 1 (GT\HS)

9 WHEREAS, spokesman, pioneer and community-minded describe the 10 philosophy of this outstanding Mississippi citizen; and 11 WHEREAS, on March 21, 1996, the Mississippi Legislature 12 honored Chester and Rosett Thigpen as National Outstanding Tree

13 Farmers of the Year with a resolution; and 14 WHEREAS, after receiving the resolution, Chester Thigpen 15 spoke before both houses and entertained members with stories of 16 his 30 years of tree farming because he considered himself an 17 ambassador for forestry in Mississippi, and spent a lifetime 18 practicing and promoting forestry; and

WHEREAS, the Thigpens were Mississippi's 1994 Outstanding Tree Farmers of the Year and after facing stiff competition from 73,000 other tree farmers across the nation, they received the national award November 4, 1995, at the National Tree Farmer Convention in St. Louis, Missouri; and

WHEREAS, as National Outstanding Tree Farmer, Chester Thigpen served for two years on the National Tree Farm Operating Committee, which oversees the tree farm program, served as a spokesman for the American Tree Farm System and served on the Editorial Board of Tree Farmer Magazine; and
H. C. R. No. 110 * HR07/ R2134* N1/2

29 WHEREAS, both Chester and Rosett Thigpen were born on 30 portions of the land that now make up the tree farm; and 31 WHEREAS, with the help of their county forester, they 32 developed a written forestry land management plan when they became 33 tree farmers, and the land remained under a written land 34 management plan for 45 years; and

35 WHEREAS, the tree farm income provided college educations for 36 the five Thigpen children; and

WHEREAS, Chester Thigpen served on the Mississippi Forestry Commission, on the Board of Directors of the Mississippi Forestry Association, as President of the Jasper County Forestry Association and he traveled to Washington, D.C., in February 1995 to testify before the United States House of Representatives Ways and Means Committee in support of estate tax reform; and

WHEREAS, promoting forestry field days and county forestry associations allowed Thigpen to share his knowledge of good stewardship with his community; and

46 WHEREAS, in 1966, Chester Thigpen served on the Mississippi 47 Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service's Advisory 48 Committee which took him to Washington, D.C., where he advised the 49 national organization on erosion control and cost-share programs; 50 and

51 WHEREAS, Thigpen was appointed by Governor Winter to serve a 52 seven-year term on the Mississippi Forestry Commission before 53 being entered into the Mississippi Agriculture and Forestry 54 Museum's Hall of Fame; and

55 WHEREAS, he was also instrumental in organizing the Jasper 56 County Forestry Association; and

57 WHEREAS, Chester Thigpen was always philosophical when 58 speaking about the long-term benefits of tree farming and was 59 quoted as saying, "It could reduce crime and welfare. It helps 60 keep your mind off things"; and

H. C. R. No. 110 * HR07/ R2134* 07/HR07/R2134 PAGE 2 (GT\HS)

WHEREAS, he also recommended tree farming for those getting 61 62 on in years. "If you can't handle the cattle and hay anymore, 63 move over to trees totally. The trees grow while I sleep"; and 64 WHEREAS, he was preceded in death by his wife, Rosett 65 Thigpen; daughter, Inez Pride; father, Frank Thigpen; and mother, Pinkie Tenort Thigpen; and is survived by two sons, Roy (Julia) 66 67 Thigpen and Lonnie (Doris) Thigpen, all of Montrose; two daughters, Doris Williams of Irvine, California, and Hester 68 (Phield III) Parish of Greenville, Louisiana; 15 grandchildren; 69 70 and a host of great-grandchildren; and

71 WHEREAS, Chester Thigpen and his late wife, Rosett, 72 represented what is best about forestry in Mississippi, and the 73 forestry community and the State of Mississippi are very proud of 74 them and will miss their service and their friendship:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, THE SENATE CONCURRING THEREIN, That we do hereby commend the life and legacy, to the forestry community of our state, of Chester A. Thigpen of Bay Springs, Mississippi, former National and Mississippi Outstanding Tree Farmer of the Year, and express deepest sympathy to his family and friends upon his passing.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be furnished to the family of Chester Thigpen, the Mississippi Forestry Association and to the members of the Capitol Press Corps.