    School, forging lasting relationships with his ex-players and 30 students; and 31
         WHEREAS, Mr. Parker served as Principal of Florence High School before being named Superintendent of the Florence Schools, 32
33
    a position wherein he was able to recruit many outstanding 34
    teachers, administrators and coaches and built a new high school 35
    in 1965 before leaving later that year to become the Assistant 36
    Superintendent of Education in Madison County and then Rankin County before eventually becoming the Federal Programs Director 37
38
    for the Mississippi Department of Education; and WHEREAS, after 17 years in the Department of Education, Mr.
39
40
    Parker retired in 1986 to his home in the Town of Florence, where his impact over the past 60 years has been significant, not only 41
42
    in education, but as a founding member of the Florence Lion's Club 43
    and many other civic contributions; and 44
         WHEREAS, his love and dedication to his beloved home is reflected in the city naming a downtown street after him as well 45
    as the old high school gymnasium, which is now the new middle 46
47 school; and 48
         WHEREAS, Mr. Parker, who lost his loving wife, Maude Ellen 49
    Parker, to cancer in 1961, has enjoyed the days of his retirement to the fullest with sons, Randy and Bob, and their families and 50
51
    Mississippi State University athletics, in addition to serving on the Region 8 Mental Health Board and the Hinds Community College 52
53
    Board for Rankin County; and WHEREAS, it is the policy of the House of Representatives to 54
55
    recognize and commend excellence in the lives of such a remarkable 56 individual as Mr. Parker, whose contribution to education in Mississippi has had long lasting and far reaching effects upon the
