

By: Senator(s) Mettetal, Thames, Kirby,
Albritton, Browning, Burton, Butler,
Carmichael, Chaney, Davis, Dawkins, Dearing,
Fillingane, Frazier, Gollott, Gordon, Jackson
(15th), Jackson (11th), Jackson (32nd),
Jordan, King, Lee (35th), Little, Michel,
Moffatt, Morgan, Pickering, Posey, Ross,
Thomas, Tollison, White, Wilemon

To: Rules

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 503

1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION EXPRESSING THE GRATITUDE AND 2 APPRECIATION OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI TO DR. ALBERT RANDEL
3 HENDRIX FOR HIS LEGACY, CONTRIBUTIONS AND SELFLESS SERVICE TO THE 4 FIELD OF MENTAL HEALTH AND MENTAL DISABILITIES, ON THE OCCASION OF 5 HIS RETIREMENT.

6 WHEREAS, Albert Randel Hendrix, Ph.D., currently serves as 7 Executive Director of the Mississippi Department of Mental Health, 8 a position he has held since 1986, making him the longest serving
9 Executive Director of Mental Health Services in the United States 10 of America, and he has served as Executive Director of the 11 Mississippi Arts Fair for the Handicapped since 1980; and

12 WHEREAS, Dr. Albert Randel Hendrix, a native of Batesville, 13 Mississippi, is the son of Howard Roy Hendrix, Sr., and Marjorie 14 Oliphant Hendrix. In 1973 he married the former Sandra June 15 Reynolds of Jones County, and they had four children, Jo Ellen, 16 Sarah Elizabeth, Albert Randel, Jr., and Sandra Louise. They have 17 three grandchildren, Grace, Jessica and Jeffrey; and

18 WHEREAS, he graduated from South Panola High School in 1964, 19 Northwest Mississippi Junior College in 1966, earned a Bachelor's 20 Degree in 1968 and a Master's Degree in 1971 from the University
21 of Mississippi, and a Doctorate of Philosophy from the University
22 of Southern Mississippi in 1979. As a young boy, Randy started 23 his first business shining shoes in Batesville, Mississippi, and 24 one of his best customers was future Governor Cliff Finch; and

25 WHEREAS, he served with distinction in the 1st/84 Artillery
26 and 2nd/4th Artillery, 9th Infantry Division, United States Army, 27 in the Vietnam War from 1968 to 1970, earning the Vietnam Service
28 Medal, the Army Commendation Medal with Palm, the Civil Action

29 Medal, the National Defense Service Medal, the Vietnam Gallantry 30 Cross with Palm, and the Vietnam Campaign Medal; and

31 WHEREAS, he completed management programs to earn
32 certifications in Nursing Home Administration, Certified Public 33 Management, and Supervisory Management, and he completed the 34 Mississippi Executive Development Institute at Mississippi State
35 University, and the Top State Managers Executive Education Program
36 at Duke University. He is licensed as a Clinical Mental Health 37 Therapist, a Clinical Mental Retardation Therapist, a Mental 38 Health/Mental Retardation Program Administrator, and as an AAAA
39 Teacher of the Emotionally Disturbed, the Mentally Retarded, the 40 Learning Disabled, and the Physically Handicapped. He served as 41 Coordinator of Grants and Developmental Training at Ellisville
42 State School from 1970 to 1974, and with the encouragement of Dr.
43 Robert Mann and the mentorship of Dr. Paul Cotten, he became 44 Director of North Mississippi Regional Center in Oxford,
45 Mississippi, from 1975 to 1986. He has taught Health Care
46 Administration at the University of Mississippi Pharmacy School, 47 Special Education at the University of Mississippi School of 48 Education and the University of Southern Mississippi; and Human 49 Services at Itawamba Community College and Adult Education at 50 Jones Junior College; and

51 WHEREAS, he has served on many boards and commissions by 52 state statute, including the Disability Resource Commission, the 53 Interagency Coordinating Council for Children and Youth, the Early 54 Childhood Services Interagency Coordinating Council, the 55 Mississippi Council on Obesity, the Mississippi Industries for the 56 Blind and the State Board of Rehabilitation Services, where he is 57 Chairman, and the longest serving member; and

58 WHEREAS, he has been appointed by several Mississippi 59 Governors to serve on many boards and commissions, including the 60 Governor's Commission for Citizens with Disabilities, the 61 Governor's Task Force on County Jails, the Task Force on Health,

62 the Mississippi Kids Count Policy Panel, the Cooperative
63 Employment Task Force, the Statewide Community Development
64 Coalition Project, the Substance Abuse Policy Council, the Welfare
65 Reform Interagency Council, the Commission for Children and Youth, 66 the Executive Committee on Employment of the Handicapped, the 67 Developmental Disabilities Planning Council and the Council on 68 Aging, and many other university and state agency committees; and

69 WHEREAS, Dr. Hendrix's honors and awards are almost too 70 numerous to mention: the Paul D. Cotten Leadership Award, the 71 James C. Stubbs Volunteer Service Award, the newly established 72 Albert Randel Hendrix Leadership Award at the annual conference of 73 the Mental Health/Mental Retardation Council held in November 2006
74 in Tunica, Award for Appreciation of Unselfish Support of the 75 Foster Grandparent Program from the Foster Grandparent Program of 76 the Capital Area, Award for Establishing Mississippi's First 77 Foster Grandparent Program from the Corporation for National and 78 Community Service, Award for Outstanding Contribution to the Field
79 of Mental Health from the Mississippi Chapter of the National 80 Alliance for the Mentally Ill, the Outstanding Service Award on 81 Behalf of Mental Health at the Social Workers Education
82 Conference, the Richard B. Dillard Award for Outstanding 83 Leadership from the Southeastern Region of the American 84 Association on Mental Retardation, the First Annual Albert Randel
85 Hendrix Award of Excellence for Service and Commitment from the 86 Mental Health Association of the Capital Area, the Larry D. Scott
87 Award for Outstanding Agency Leadership from the Southeastern 88 Region of the American Association on Mental Retardation, the 89 Embracing Mississippi System of Care Award from the Mississippi
90 Families as Allies for Children's Mental Health, the Award for 91 Outstanding Contribution to Mental Health Services from the North
92 Mississippi Mental Health Consumer's Conference, the Distinguished 93 Legislative Achievement Award from the Mississippi Psychological 94 Association, Honorary Membership in the Mississippi Society of

95 Certified Public Administrators, the Distinguished Service Award 96 of the Mississippi Association of Personnel Administrators, the 97 Bradley Sanders Leadership Award from the Mississippi Chapter of 98 the Association of Behavioral Healthcare Administration (twice), 99 the John C. Stennis Award for Excellence in Government from 100 Governor Kirk Fordice, Service Award from the National Council on 101 Disabilities, the State Administrator of the Year Award from the 102 Mississippi Chapter of the American Society of Public
103 Administrators, the Alumnus of the Year Award from the University
104 of Mississippi School of Education, the Alumnus of the Year Award
105 from Northwest Mississippi Community College, and many other 106 awards for distinguished service. He was initiated into the 107 scholastic organizations of Phi Theta Kappa of Phi Kappa Phi and 108 the professional honorary organization of Phi Delta Kappa and Phi 109 Alpha Alpha; and

110 WHEREAS, Dr. Hendrix's family and his animals are most 111 important to him. He currently has nine dogs, Sam, Sugar,
112 Sweetie, Duce, Fred, Bandit, Buddy, Robin and Pippi; and about a 113 dozen or so sugar gliders, two canaries, three cats and many 114 goldfish; and

115 WHEREAS, it is with great pride that we recognize Dr. Albert 116 Randel Hendrix for his decades of dedicated and stellar service in 117 the field of mental health, creating, administrating, and funding 118 innovative programs which are providing life-changing advancements 119 and much-needed hope to persons with disabilities and their 120 families; for his invaluable assistance and cooperation with the 121 Legislature in developing complex legislation; for his honorable 122 and distinguished service in the Vietnam War; for his devotion to 123 his family, his church and his community; his entire life, from 124 boyhood to the present has exemplified the ideals of honor, 125 service and courage:

126 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF 127 MISSISSIPPI, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING THEREIN, That

128 we do hereby commend and express the gratitude and appreciation of 129 the State of Mississippi to Dr. Albert Randel Hendrix for his 130 legacy, contributions and selfless service to the field of mental 131 health and to persons in Mississippi with mental disabilities, on 132 the occasion of his retirement after 20 years of dedicated service 133 as Executive Director of the Mississippi Department of Mental 134 Health, and express to him and his family our best wishes for 135 future success.

136 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this resolution be presented to 137 Dr. Hendrix and made available to the Capitol Press Corps.