27 Mississippi"; and

28           WHEREAS, Harkey came from New Orleans and bought the 29 Pascagoula paper in 1949. After expanding The Chronicle from a 30 weekly to a twice-a-week paper and then five-day publication, he 31 sold it. He went on to teach journalism at Ohio State University, 32 then to the University of Alaska, and joined the staff at Columbia 33 University; and

34           WHEREAS, four of Ira Harkey's children remain in Jackson 35 County, including Circuit Court Judge Dale Harkey; one lives in 36 Columbia, Mississippi; one lives in Beaumont, Texas; and one in 37 Minneapolis, Minnesota. Harkey and his wife, Virgie, had retired 38 to Kerrville, Texas; and

39           WHEREAS, the State of Mississippi has lost a journalist and 40 leader whose inspiration was to change America and the world. May

48 advocate of civil and human rights and a champion of nonviolence
49 which is to be admired and emulated.

50           BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this resolution be presented to
