SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 580

1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION COMMENDING THE LIFE AND CIVIC 2 CONTRIBUTIONS OF L. J. MARTIN, SR., OF MCCOMB, MISSISSIPPI, THE 3 FIRST AFRICAN-AMERICAN IN THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI SINCE THE 4 RECONSTRUCTION ERA TO QUALIFY AND RUN FOR MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT
5 OFFICE.

6 WHEREAS, on Wednesday, February 24, 1965, the seven announced
7 candidates for vacancies on the McComb Board of Selectmen included 8 the first African-American to announce and qualify for municipal 9 office in the State of Mississippi since the Reconstruction Era, 10 so far as history reveals; and

11 WHEREAS, L. J. Martin, Sr., of the Beartown Community, filed
12 his petition to be included in the April 5, 1965, special election 13 which bore 64 signatures and went through the routine check to 14 determine if 50 of them were by valid, qualified city voters which 15 was verified by the McComb Election Commission. Mr. Martin 16 qualified as the candidate of the Freedom Democratic Party and was 17 accompanied to City Hall by a veteran staff member of the Council
18 of Federated Organizations (COFO) when filing his petition; and

19 WHEREAS, during the Civil Rights movement, "Deacon" Martin
20 was an active member of the NAACP and a Watchman for the community
21 with 24-hour availability to contact Attorney General Robert 22 Kennedy. He was visited by Drew Pearson, Stokley Carmichael,
23 Cleveland Sellers, Fannie Lou Hamer, Victoria Gray and Annie 24 Devine. He was the Director of the Head Start Program in 25 Beartown; and

26 WHEREAS, L. J. Martin, Sr., passed away on December 27, 2001,
27 at the age of eighty-nine-years-old. He was born August 25, 1912, 28 in the Holmesville Community of Pike County, Mississippi, to the

29 late Mrs. Mary Otis Stevenson and the late Mr. Joseph Martin. He 30 was a member and deacon of fifty-three years at Society Hill M. B.
31 Church, serving until failing health. His favorite hymn was "Old 32 Ship of Zion"; and

33 WHEREAS, Deacon Martin attended Beartown High School in 34 McComb, Mississippi. He worked at the American Box Company,
35 retiring after forty-three years of service. He was an expert 36 cabinet builder and carpenter; and

37 WHEREAS, L. J. Martin, Sr., was married to Mrs. Leola Causey
38 Martin for 68 years and to their union were eleven children; and

39 WHEREAS, it is with great humility that we acknowledge the 40 historical civic contributions of this Mississippi citizen whose 41 name will not be forgotten:

42 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF 43 MISSISSIPPI, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING THEREIN, That 44 we do hereby commend the life and civic contributions of L. J.
45 Martin, Sr., of McComb, Mississippi, the first African-American 46 since the Reconstruction Era to qualify and run for municipal 47 government office in the State of Mississippi, and we extend our 48 respect to the surviving family of L. J. Martin, Sr.

49 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this resolution be presented to 50 the surviving family of L. J. Martin, Sr., and be forwarded to the 51 Mayor of McComb, Mississippi, and be made available to the Capitol
52 Press Corps.
