SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 585

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION TO SALUTE AND HONOR THE MEMORY OF THE
 FIVE AGENTS OF THE MISSISSIPPI BUREAU OF NARCOTICS WHO HAVE LOST THEIR LIVES IN THE LINE OF DUTY SINCE THE FIRST AGENTS WERE SWORN INTO SERVICE IN 1971.
 WHEREAS, with due respect and reverence, we salute and honor

6 the five Mississippi Bureau of Narcotics agents who lost their 7 lives in the line of duty since the first agents were sworn into 8 service in 1971; and

9 WHEREAS, the Mississippi Bureau of Narcotics (MBN), created 10 by the Legislature in 1971, has the duty to provide the citizens 11 of Mississippi with a frontline defense against the abuse and 12 misuse of controlled substances; and

WHEREAS, the MBN is comprised of a dedicated cadre of support personnel, agents and intelligence analysts and includes a staff of approximately 200 employees strategically located throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, as the state's primary drug enforcement agency, the MBN accomplishes its mission by confiscating drugs and other contraband and by arresting suspected drug violators for prosecution, which often necessitates dangerous and life-threatening situations for the agents. The following five agents have given the ultimate sacrifice in the line of duty: Agent Harold Lane Caldwell began his career with the 24 Mississippi Bureau of Narcotics on February 1, 1977, and was assigned as an agent to the Tupelo District. On September 14, 25 26 1979, Agent Caldwell was assisting an Alcorn County Sheriff's Department Deputy on a call involving a kidnapping. Lane and the 27 28 deputy attempted to arrest the subject and Lane was shot and * SS02/ R1396* S. C. R. No. 585 N1/2 07/SS02/R1396 PAGE 1

29 killed during the arrest. The kidnapping victim was rescued as a 30 result of the valor displayed by Agent Caldwell. Lane became the 31 first agent of the Mississippi Bureau of Narcotics killed in the line of duty. His sacrifice will never be forgotten. 32 Each year, 33 the Mississippi Bureau of Narcotics honors Lane with an award 34 bearing his name. The H. Lane Caldwell Award for Valor is 35 presented to MBN agents or other employees with MBN who 36 demonstrate exceptional heroism and valor either in or out of the 37 line of duty. Lane was laid to rest at the Pleasant Hills 38 Cemetery in Kossuth, Alcorn County, Mississippi;

• Agent Robert Henry McLeod was hired as an agent with the 39 40 Mississippi Bureau of Narcotics on October 15, 1988. Hank was assigned to the Starkville District Office and began a career as a 41 State Narcotics Officer. He was described as an aggressive, 42 determined agent with the highest potential of advancement in law 43 44 enforcement of anyone in the agency. On September 23, 1989, Hank 45 was returning home to Columbus after working late in Winston 46 County. His vehicle left the road and crashed, ending Hank's 47 life. Hank was laid to rest at the Louisville Memorial Park in Winston County, Mississippi; 48

• Agent Spencer Glenn Beckley, Sr., became an agent with 49 50 the Mississippi Bureau of Narcotics on February 1, 1986, and was 51 assigned to the undercover team in Jackson. Spencer traveled across the state working undercover and developed a reputation as 52 53 one of the best undercover agents in the history of the agency. 54 On December 23, 1989, while returning from duty in Jackson, 55 Spencer was killed in a car accident in Calhoun County. Spencer was laid to rest at the Branch Chapel Church Cemetery in 56 Pittsboro, Calhoun County, Mississippi; 57

• Agent Marc Lee Whatley was hired by the Mississippi Bureau of Narcotics on October 1, 1996. He began his career as a State Narcotics Officer assigned to the Meridian District Office.

61 Marc's devotion to duty exemplified what a State Narcotics Officer
