SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 636

1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION COMMENDING THE LIFE OF BISHOP G.E. 2 PATTERSON, THE INTERNATIONAL PRESIDING BISHOP OF THE CHURCH OF GOD 3 IN CHRIST (COGIC), THE VOICE THAT INSPIRED MILLIONS OF CHURCH 4 MEMBERS IN MISSISSIPPI AND WORLDWIDE, AND EXPRESSING THE SYMPATHY 5 OF THE LEGISLATURE ON HIS PASSING.

6 WHEREAS, in death even as in life, Bishop G.E. Patterson 7 commands an audience. The Presiding Bishop of the International 8 Church of God in Christ (COGIC) died Tuesday, March 20, 2007, but 9 admirers say the voice that inspired generations has not been 10 stilled; and

WHEREAS, the predominantly black Protestant denomination, 11 12 headquartered in Memphis, Tennessee, has six million members worldwide and traces its origins to the late 19th Century; and 13 14 WHEREAS, it was a direct result of his work, such as his TV ministries, that allowed people to see COGIC as it should have 15 been projected, according to jurisdictional Bishop Jerry Maynard, 16 the Chief Operating Officer of the National Church who had worked 17 18 with Bishop Patterson since 1992; and

WHEREAS, he always said if you represent God, you should represent Him in a very positive way and not in a way that causes people to question God or his ways. "Many people know him because of his worldwide telecast and the kind of compassion and love and faithfulness that he demonstrated," said San Diego Jurisdictional Bishop George D. McKinney, a member of the COGIC General Board; and

26 WHEREAS, he was born in Humboldt, Tennessee, and was ordained 27 as an Elder in COGIC in 1957 in Detroit, Michigan. Bishop 28 Patterson attended Lemoyne-Owen College in Memphis, Detroit Bible

He was a contributing writer of the Spirit Filled Life Bible (KJV) and was the Editor and Publisher of The Bountiful Blessings Magazine with a distribution list of more than 100,000 individuals; and

34 WHEREAS, Presiding Bishop G.E. Patterson was elected in 2004 35 to his second four-year term as Head of the International 36 Denomination; and

WHEREAS, in addition to television, Bishop Patterson 37 38 maintained a regular presence on radio. He was President of WBBP, a 5,000-watt, 24-hour AM gospel station in Memphis with more than 39 40 100,000 daily listeners and a growing Internet audience; and WHEREAS, the Bishop's daily "Words of Encouragement" aired 41 during the week, with recordings of his sermons broadcast on 42 Sundays. That's not likely to change in the foreseeable future. 43 44 "Bishop Patterson's popularity is such that it's hard to measure, it was so great," said Doreen Graves, Director of operations at 45 the station. "He was a leader with a servant's heart and I think 46 47 that came through in his messages. People could relate to what he 48 said"; and

49 WHEREAS, Bishop Patterson also founded Podium Records, which 50 features a number of his musical recordings and sermons on compact 51 discs and cassettes; and

52 WHEREAS, the simple, biblical teachings of a small-town boy 53 who grew up to lead one of the largest Christian denominations in 54 the country are also found in his books, for sale at the church he 55 founded and at numerous retail and online sources; and

WHEREAS, Bishop Patterson represented faith, strength, 56 57 compassion, hope and love, not only in our community but also 58 throughout the world. While beyond question he was man of the 59 spirit, he was also a servant of the people. He fed the hungry, 60 housed the homeless and clothed the naked. His legacy will live on forever in the hearts and minds of all who knew him and in 61 * SS02/ R1515* S. C. R. No. 636 07/SS02/R1515 PAGE 2

62 those whose lives he touched, and it is with great sadness that we 63 note the passing of this beloved religious leader who was highly 64 significant in the religious landscape of the State of 65 Mississippi:

66 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF 67 MISSISSIPPI, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING THEREIN, That 68 we do hereby commend the life of Bishop G.E. Patterson, the 69 International Presiding Bishop of the Church of God In Christ 70 (COGIC), the voice that inspired millions of church members in 71 Mississippi and worldwide, and extend to his family and his 72 congregation the sympathy of the Legislature on his passing.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this resolution be presented to the Mississippi Jurisdictional Bishop of the Church of God in Christ (COGIC) for transmittal to the surviving family of Bishop Patterson and be made available to the Capitol Press Corps.
