SECTION 2. Section 93-21-7, Mississippi Code of 1972, is amended as follows:

93-21-7. (1) Any person may seek relief under this chapter for himself by filing a petition with the court alleging abuse by the respondent. Any parent, adult household member, or next friend of the abused person may seek relief under this chapter on behalf of any minor children or any person alleged to be incompetent by filing a petition with the court alleging abuse by the respondent. Cases seeking relief under this chapter shall be priority cases on the court's docket and the judge shall be immediately notified when a case is filed in order to provide for expedited proceedings.

(2) The petitioner in an action brought pursuant to this chapter shall not bear the costs associated with its filing or the costs associated with the issuance or service of any notice of a hearing to the respondent, issuance or service of an order of protection on the respondent, or issuance or service of a warrant or witness subpoena. If the court finds that the petitioner is entitled to an order protecting the petitioner from abuse, the court shall be authorized to assess all costs including attorney's fees of the proceedings to the respondent. The court may assess costs including attorney's fees to the petitioner if the allegations of abuse are determined to be without merit and the court finds that the petitioner is not a victim of abuse as defined by Section 93-21-3.

(3) (a) For every order of protection that is issued under this chapter, the amount of One Dollar ($1.00) shall be assessed as additional costs of court to be used by the Office of the Attorney General for expenses in developing and providing forms to the courts.

(b) There is hereby created in the State Treasury a special fund designated as the Domestic Violence Court Forms Fund.
The fund shall be administered by the Attorney General. Money remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall not lapse into the State General Fund, and any interest earned from the investment of monies in the fund shall be deposited to the credit of the fund. Monies appropriated to the fund shall be used by the Attorney General for expenses in developing and providing domestic violence forms to the courts.

(c) The clerks of the various courts shall remit the proceeds of the cost of court created under this subsection to the Department of Finance and Administration as is done generally for other fees collected by the clerks.

SECTION 3. Section 93-21-11, Mississippi Code of 1972, is
amended as follows:

93-21-11. (1) Within ten (10) days of filing of a petition under the provisions of this act, the court shall hold a hearing, at which time the petitioner must prove the allegation of abuse by a preponderance of the evidence. The respondent shall be given notice by service of process as otherwise provided by law.

(2) * * * The court may, prior to the date set for the hearing, enter such temporary ex parte order as it deems necessary to protect from abuse the petitioner, any minor children, or any person alleged to be incompetent. Immediate and present danger of abuse to the petitioner, any minor children, or any person alleged to be incompetent, shall constitute good cause for issuance of a temporary ex parte order. A temporary ex parte order shall last no longer than ten (10) days and upon issuance of a temporary ex parte order, the respondent shall be served with a copy of the order and given notice of a hearing to be held within ten (10) days as provided in subsection (1).

(3) If a hearing under subsection (1) of this section is continued, the court may make or extend such temporary ex parte orders under subsection (2) of this section as it deems necessary. A continuance under this subsection shall last no longer than twenty (20) days.

(4) Any temporary ex parte protective order to bring about a cessation of abuse of the petitioner, any minor children, or any person alleged to be incompetent, may include the following relief:

(a) Directing the defendant to refrain from abusing the petitioner, any minor children, or any person alleged to be incompetent;

(b) Granting possession to the petitioner of the residence or household to the exclusion of the defendant by evicting the defendant or restoring possession to the petitioner or both;

(c) Prohibiting or limiting respondent's physical proximity to the abused, including residence and place of work;

(e) Prohibiting the transferring, encumbering or otherwise disposing of property mutually owned or leased by the parties, except when in the ordinary course of business.

143 (5) The court may amend its order or agreement at any time 144 upon subsequent petition by either party.

145 (6) No temporary ex parte protective order shall be issued
146 unless supported by an independent petition requesting relief
147 pursuant to this chapter. Every order granting a temporary ex
148 parte protective order pursuant to this section shall set forth 149 the reasons for its issuance, shall contain specific findings of 150 fact regarding the existence of abuse, shall be specific in its 151 terms and shall describe in reasonable detail the act or acts to 152 be restrained. The Attorney General shall develop and distribute 153 uniform forms for temporary ex parte protective orders.

154 (7) In issuing temporary ex parte protective orders pursuant 155 to this section, the court may utilize the uniform form developed, 156 approved and distributed by the Attorney General.

157 SECTION 4. Section 93-21-13, Mississippi Code of 1972, is
158 amended as follows:

159 93-21-13. (1) After a hearing for which notice and 160 opportunity to be heard has been provided to the respondent, * * *

175 evicting the respondent * * * or restoring possession to the 176 petitioner, or both; and

177 * * *

178 (e) Prohibiting the transferring, encumbering or 179 otherwise disposing of property mutually owned or leased by the 180 parties, except when in the ordinary course of business.

181 (2) The duration of any temporary order issued by a justice
182 court * * * shall not exceed ten (10) days, with no more than one

244 (2) No protective order shall be issued unless supported by

267 (2) For purposes of enforcement by Mississippi law
268 enforcement officers, a protective order from another
269 jurisdiction, or a protection order as defined in Section 93-22-3

270 and issued by a tribunal of another state, is presumed to be valid 271 if it meets the requirements of Section 93-22-7.

272 (3) For purposes of judicial enforcement of a protective

274 defined in Section 93-22-3 and issued by a tribunal of another 275 state, an order is presumed valid if it meets the requirements of 276 Section 93-22-5(4). It is an affirmative defense in any action
277 seeking enforcement of a protective order issued in another
278 jurisdiction, or a protection order as defined in Section 93-22-3

Transmittal of the order may be by facsimile transmission, mail or email.

(4) Upon formation, the registry shall immediately implement a daily process for the entry of newly issued protective orders and removal of records and names of the parties in all cases in which a protective order expires by its own terms or is modified or rescinded by the court.

93-21-113. Every municipal prosecutor, county attorney, district attorney or other appropriate law enforcement official who, having had reported to him a case of domestic violence, if the facts submitted be sufficient, shall immediately file charges against the offender on the behalf of the victim. 334 No municipal prosecutor, county attorney or district attorney 336 more than once.

SECTION 11. Section 99-5-37, Mississippi Code of 1972, is amended as follows:

99-5-37. In any arrest for a misdemeanor which is an act of domestic violence, as defined in Section 99-3-7(5), no bail shall be granted until the person arrested has appeared before a judge of the court of competent jurisdiction. The defendant shall be brought before a judge at the first reasonable opportunity, not to exceed twenty-four (24) hours from the time of the arrest. In calculating the twenty-four (24) hours, weekends and holidays shall be included. The appearance may be by telephone. Upon setting bail in any case involving a misdemeanor which is an act of domestic violence, the judge shall give particular consideration to the exigencies of the case, including, but not limited to, (a) the potential for further violence, (b) the past history, if any, of violence between the defendant and alleged victim, (c) the level of violence of the instant offense, (d) any threats of further violence and (e) the existence of a domestic violence protection order prohibiting the defendant from engaging in abusive behavior, and shall impose any specific conditions as he or she may deem necessary. Specific conditions which may be imposed by the judge may include the issuance of an order prohibiting the defendant from contacting the alleged victim prior to trial, prohibiting the defendant from abusing or threatening the alleged victim or requiring defendant to refrain from drug or alcohol use. All such orders shall be reduced to writing.

SECTION 12. Section 99-19-351, Mississippi Code of 1972, is amended as follows:

99-19-351. The penalty for any felony or misdemeanor which is a crime of violence or the crime of burglary or breaking and entering the dwelling of another shall be subject to enhancement as provided in Sections 99-19-351 through 99-19-357 if the felony or misdemeanor was committed against any victim who is sixty-five (65) years of age or older or who is disabled as described in 42 USCS 12102.

SECTION 13. Section 99-19-355, Mississippi Code of 1972, is amended as follows:

99-19-355. (1) Upon conviction or adjudication of guilt of a defendant where notice has been duly given that an enhanced penalty will be sought as provided in Sections 99-19-351 through 99-19-357, the court shall conduct a separate sentencing proceeding to determine the sentence. The proceeding shall be conducted by the trial judge before the trial jury as soon as practicable. If, through impossibility or inability, the trial jury is unable to reconvene for a hearing on the issue of penalty, having determined the guilt of the accused, the trial judge shall summon a jury to determine whether an enhanced penalty should be imposed. If trial by jury has been waived, or if the defendant pleaded guilty, the sentencing proceeding shall be conducted before a jury impaneled for that purpose. If the defendant enters a plea of guilty and waives trial by jury for the sentencing proceeding, the sentencing proceeding shall be conducted before

526 the trial judge sitting without a jury. In the proceeding, 527 evidence may be presented as to any matter that the court deems 528 relevant to sentence. This subsection shall not be construed to 529 authorize the introduction of any evidence secured in violation of 530 the Constitution of the United States or of the State of 531 Mississippi. The state and the defendant, or his counsel, or both 532 defendant and counsel, shall be permitted to present arguments for 533 or against any sentence sought.

534 (2) In order to impose an enhanced penalty under the 535 provisions of Sections 99-19-351 through 99-19-357, the jury must 536 find beyond a reasonable doubt:
