645 9-1-43. (1) After making deductions for employee salaries
646 and related salary expenses, and expenses allowed as deductions by 647 Schedule C of the Internal Revenue Code, no office of the chancery

651 All such fees received by the office of chancery or circuit clerks 652 that are in excess of the salary limitation shall be deposited by 653 such clerk into the county general fund on or before April 15 for 654 the preceding calendar year. If the chancery clerk or circuit 655 clerk serves less than one (1) year, then he shall not receive as 656 compensation any fees in excess of that portion of the salary
657 limitation that can be attributed to his time in office on a pro

658 rata basis. Upon leaving office, income earned by any clerk in 659 his last full year of office but not received until after his last 660 full year of office shall not be included in determining the 661 salary limitation of the successor clerk. There shall be exempted

666 compensation for services performed upon order of a court or board 667 of supervisors which are not required of the chancery clerk or 668 circuit clerk by statute.

669 (2) It shall be unlawful for any chancery clerk or circuit
670 clerk to use fees in excess of Ninety-nine Thousand Dollars
671 ($99,000.00), to pay the salaries or actual or necessary expenses
672 of employees who are related to such clerk by blood or marriage
673 within the first degree of kinship according to the civil law 674 method of computing kinship as provided in Sections 1-3-71 and 675 1-3-73. However, the prohibition of this subsection shall not 676 apply to any individual who was an employee of the clerk's office 677 prior to the date his or her relative was elected as chancery or 678 circuit clerk. The spouse and/or any children of the chancery
679 clerk or circuit clerk employed in the office of the chancery
680 clerk may be paid a salary; however, the combined annual salaries

682 amount equal to the salary limitation.

683 (3) The chancery clerk and the circuit clerk shall be liable
684 on their official bond for the proper deposit and accounting of 694 execution or other like process authorized by law for the 695 enforcement of child support, spousal support or any other 696 judgment; (b) any portion of any fees required by law to be 697 collected in civil cases which are to pay for the service of 698 process or writs in another county; and (c) any other money as 699 shall be deposited with the court which by its nature is not, at 700 the time of its deposit, public monies, but which is to be held by 701 the court in a trust or custodial capacity in a case or proceeding

702 before the court. The clerk of the chancery court shall account 703 for all monies deposited in and disbursed from such account and 704 shall be authorized and empowered to draw and issue checks on such 705 account at such times, in such amounts and to such persons as 706 shall be proper and in accordance with law.

707       The following monies paid to the chancery clerk shall be 708 subject to the salary limitation prescribed under subsection (1):

718 be maintained in a bank account in the county depository and 719 accounted for separately from those monies paid into the chancery
720 court clerk clearing account.

721       (5) There is created in the county depository in each county
722 a clearing account to be designated as the "circuit court clerk 723 civil clearing account," into which shall be deposited: (a) all

724 such monies and fees as the clerk of the circuit court shall 725 receive from any person complying with any writ of garnishment,
726 attachment, execution or any other like process authorized by law
727 for the enforcement of a judgment; (b) any portion of any fees
728 required by law or court order to be collected in civil cases; 729 (c) all fees collected for the issuance of marriage licenses; and 730 (d) any other money as shall be deposited with the court which by 731 its nature is not, at the time of its deposit, public monies but 732 which is to be held by the court in a trust or custodial capacity
733 in a case or proceeding before the court.

734       There is created in the county depository in each county a 735 clearing account to be designated as the "circuit court clerk
736 criminal clearing account," into which shall be deposited: (a)
737 all such monies as are received in criminal cases in the circuit 738 court pursuant to any order requiring payment as restitution to 739 the victims of criminal offenses; (b) any portion of any fees and 740 fines required by law or court order to be collected in criminal 741 cases; and (c) all cash bonds as shall be deposited with the 742 court. The clerk of the circuit court shall account for all 743 monies deposited in and disbursed from such account and shall be 744 authorized and empowered to draw and issue checks on such account, 745 at such times, in such amounts and to such persons as shall be 746 proper and in accordance with law; however, such monies as are 747 forfeited in criminal cases shall be paid by the clerk of the 748 circuit court to the clerk of the board of supervisors for deposit
749 in the general fund of the county.

750       The following monies paid to the circuit clerk shall be 751 subject to the salary limitation prescribed under subsection (1):
752 (a) all fees required by law to be collected for the filing,
753 recording or abstracting of any bill, petition, pleading or decree
754 in any civil action in circuit court; (b) copies of any documents;
755 and (c) any other monies or commissions from private or

766 such services. The State Auditor shall not take exception to the 767 furnishing of copies or the rendering of services as a notary by 768 any clerk free of charge.

769       In any county having two (2) judicial districts, whenever the 770 chancery clerk serves as deputy to the circuit clerk in one (1) 771 judicial district and the circuit clerk serves as deputy to the 772 chancery clerk in the other judicial district, the chancery clerk

774 maintained for chancery clerk receipts, for recording the cash
775 receipts paid to him as deputy circuit clerk, and the circuit
776 clerk may maintain a cash journal, separate from the cash journal
777 maintained for circuit clerk receipts, for recording the cash
778 receipts paid to him as deputy chancery clerk. The cash receipts
779 collected by the chancery clerk in his capacity as deputy circuit
