477 to include psychological evaluation or testing, including 478 administering and interpreting psychological tests, such as 479 intellectual, neuropsychological, advanced personality, and 480 projective instruments, or the labeling of any test, report or 481 procedure as psychological or as a psychological evaluation. The 482 terms "assessment" and "treatment" shall not be construed to 483 permit the performance of any act that marriage and family 484 therapists are not educated and trained to perform. This shall 485 not limit licensed marriage and family therapists in the use of 486 assessment instruments for which they were trained to evaluate 487 individuals, couples and family members with regard to marriage
488 and family functioning.

489 (e) "Advertise" means, but is not limited to, issuing

493 advertising on the Internet or by any other means designed to 494 secure public attention.

495 (f) "Use a title or description of" means to hold 496 oneself out to the public as having a particular status by means 497 of stating it on signs, mailboxes, address plates, stationery, 498 announcements, calling cards, the Internet or other instruments of 499 professional identification.

500 (g) "Board" means the Board of Examiners for Social 501 Workers and Marriage and Family Therapists created by Section 502 73-53-8.

503 (h) "Institution of higher education" means any 504 regionally accredited institution of higher learning in the United 505 States that offers a master's or doctoral degree; for foreign 506 universities, this term means an institution of higher education
507 accredited by a legal agency of that country that is satisfactory
508 to the board.

509 (i) "Examination" means the test or exam endorsed or 510 prescribed by the Association for Marital and Family Therapy
511 Regulatory Boards.

512 (j) "Person" means any individual, firm, corporation,
513 partnership, organization or body politic.

516 73-54-7. A person who does not hold a valid and current 517 license issued by the board shall not practice marriage and family

518 therapy, nor advertise the performance of that practice. Except 519 as specifically exempted in Section 73-54-9, beginning September
520 1, 1997, any person who represents himself or herself by the title 521 or description "marital or marriage therapist," "licensed marital 522 or marriage and family therapist," or any other name, style or 523 description denoting that the person is a marriage and family
524 therapist or marriage and family counselor without having first 525 complied with the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a 526 misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a 527 fine of not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) nor more than 528 One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) for each offense.

533 intern or person preparing for the practice of marriage and family 534 therapy under qualified supervision in a training institution or 535 facility or supervisory arrangement recognized and approved by the 536 board, provided he or she is designated by such titles as 537 "marriage and family therapy intern," "family therapy intern" or 538 others, clearly indicating such training status.

539 (2) Nothing in this chapter shall prevent licensed or 540 certified members of other professional groups as defined by their 541 board, including, but not limited to, physicians, psychologists,
542 clinical nurse specialists, clinical social workers, licensed

543 professional counselors, or duly ordained ministers or clergy
544 while functioning in their ministerial capacity, from doing or 545 advertising that they perform work of a marriage and family 546 therapy nature consistent with the accepted standards of their 547 respective professions.

548 (3) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as permitting
549 licensed marriage and family therapists to engage in the practice
550 of psychology. Marriage and family therapists may provide testing 551 consistent with the scope of their education, training and 552 experience. Testing shall occur within the context of a

558 adopt such rules and regulations and such amendments thereof and 559 supplements thereto as it may deem necessary to enable it to 560 perform its duties under, and to carry into effect the provisions 561 of, this chapter. Such rules and regulations shall be adopted in 562 accordance with the Mississippi Administrative Procedures Law
563 (Section 25-43-1 et seq.).

564 (2) The board shall examine and pass on the qualifications 565 of all applicants under this chapter, and shall issue a license to 566 each successful applicant therefor, attesting to his or her

568 or marriage and family therapy associate.
