SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 638

1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING THE LEGACY OF LEADERSHIP
2 AND DEDICATION OF GARY J. HERRING, HEAD OF SCHOOL OF FIRST 3 PRESBYTERIAN DAY SCHOOL, ON THE OCCASION OF HIS RETIREMENT.

4 WHEREAS, Gary J. Herring was born in Brandon, Mississippi, on 5 January 24, 1952, to parents who were both educators. Gary 6 graduated from the University of Mississippi in 1973, and moved to 7 Montgomery, Alabama, where he earned his Master's Degree in 8 Business Administration from Auburn University in 1978; and

9 WHEREAS, in 1980, Gary and his wife Jerri and two young 10 daughters moved from Montgomery to Jackson, Mississippi, for Gary 11 to assume the position of Business Administrator of First 12 Presbyterian Church. After being approached by the Board of 13 Trustees of First Presbyterian Day School to determine his 14 interest in becoming Head of School, Gary enrolled at Mississippi 15 College to receive a Master of Education, Administration and 16 Curriculum to prepare for the job; and

17 WHEREAS, Gary became the third Head of School of First 18 Presbyterian Day School in 1987 and has faithfully served for more

19 than 30 years. The kingdom school began in 1965 and continues 20 today with a mission of: planting seeds of Christlikeness in the 21 hearts of children, pursuing excellence in academics, and 22 preparing students for future service in God's kingdom in their 23 homes, churches, and professions; and

24 WHEREAS, during Gary's tenure, the school has seen 25 substantial growth: remodeling of the art room, library, and 26 state-of-the-art science lab; the addition of a K3 and K4
27 preschool program and a new preschool center; the establishment of 28 a dyslexia immersion program; a renovated gymnasium; an updated 29 stage for school productions; and a new playground; and

30 WHEREAS, also during Gary's years of service to First 31 Presbyterian Day School, the school has experienced a reduction in 32 student-teacher ratios; the addition of a day care for children of 33 faculty and staff; numerous curriculum changes; the development of 34 strategic plans; the introduction of modern technology to 35 students, faculty, and classrooms; and the implementation of a
36 schoolwide mission project that has raised thousands of dollars 37 for various ministries at home and abroad; and

38 WHEREAS, in 2013, Gary received the Joe F. Shepard Memorial 39 Award from the Mississippi Association of Independent Schools and 40 has overseen the school's membership in the organization. Gary 41 and Jerri have been married for more than 40 years and are the 42 proud parents of Leslie Miley (Ben) and Lindsey Vira (Joey) and

43 are blessed with five grandchildren: Bailey Grace and Beckley
44 Vira, Walker and Katie Poole, and Will Miley; and

45 WHEREAS, Gary has humbly given God all the glory during his 46 years of service to the school and will retire from the position
47 of Head of School of First Presbyterian Day School in June 2018; 48 and

49 WHEREAS, throughout Herring's tenure at First Presbyterian 50 Day School, the school has planted seeds of Christlikeness in 51 thousands of children:

52 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF 53 MISSISSIPPI, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING THEREIN, That 54 we do hereby join the students and Administration of First 55 Presbyterian Day School, along with the Herring family and the 56 community at large, in recognizing Gary Herring for his prayerful,
57 humble, and godly leadership to First Presbyterian Day School
58 since 1987 and extend our best wishes to him on his retirement.

59 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this resolution be presented to 60 the Board of Trustees of First Presbyterian Day School, the 61 Herring family, and made available to the Capitol Press Corps.
