(1) This act shall authorize and govern the 26 interception of a wire, oral, or electronic communication by the 27 Division of Cyber Crime within the Office of the Attorney General

- 28 when interception may provide evidence of child exploitation, as
- 29 set forth in Sections 97-5-31 through 97-5-37.
- No person, agency of the state or political 30 (2)
- subdivision of the state, other than the Division of Cyber Crime 31
- 32 within the Office of the Attorney General, is authorized by this
- 33 article to own, possess, install operate or monitor an electronic,
- 34 mechanical or other device.
- 35 (b) The Attorney General shall designate, in writing,
- 36 the members of the Division of Cyber Crime who are responsible for
- 37 the possession, installation, operation and monitoring of
- 38 electronic, mechanical or other devices for the division.
- 39 SECTION 2. As used in this act, the following words shall
- 40 have the meanings ascribed herein unless the context otherwise
- 41 requires:
- "Aggrieved person" means a person who was a party 42
- 43 to an intercepted wire, oral or electronic communication, or a
- person against whom the interception was directed. 44
- "Contents," when used with respect to any wire, 45 (b)
- 46 oral or electronic communication, includes any information
- 47 concerning the substance, purport or meaning of that
- 48 communication.
- "Electronic communication" means any transfer of 49 (C)
- signs, signals, writing, images, sounds, data or intelligence of 50
- 51 any nature transmitted in whole or in part by the aid of wire,

- 53 facilities, but does not include:
- 54 (i) Any wire or oral communication;
- (ii) Any communication made through a tone-only
- 56 paging device; or
- 57 (iii) Any communication from a "tracking device"
- 58 as defined in 18 USC Section 3117.
- 59 (d) "Electronic, mechanical, or other device" means any
- 60 device or apparatus which can be used to intercept a wire, oral,
- or electronic communication other than:
- (i) Any telephone or telegraph instrument,
- 63 equipment or facility or any component thereof:
- 64 1. Furnished to the subscriber or user by a
- 65 provider of wire or electronic service in the ordinary course of
- 66 business and being used by the subscriber or user in the ordinary
- 67 course of its business or furnished by the subscriber or user for
- 68 connection to the facilities of the service and used in the
- 69 ordinary course of its business;
- 70 2. Being used by a provider of wire or
- 71 electronic communication service in the ordinary course of its
- 72 business; or
- 73 3. Being used by an investigative or law
- 74 enforcement officer in the ordinary course of that officer's
- 75 duties; or

76		(iː	i) A	hear	ing	aid	or s	similar	device	being	used	to
77	correct	subnormal	heari	ing t	o no	ot be	etter	r than	normal.

- 78 (e) "Intercept" means the aural or other acquisition of 79 the contents of any wire, electronic, or oral communication 80 through the use of any electronic, mechanical, or other device.
- 81 (f) "Investigative or law enforcement officer" means an 82 investigator employed by the Office of the Attorney General.
- (g) "Judge of competent jurisdiction" means any circuit court judge or any justice of the Supreme Court of Mississippi.
- (h) "Oral communication" means any oral communication uttered by a person exhibiting an expectation that the communication is not subject to interception under circumstances justifying that expectation, but "oral communication" does not include any electronic communication.

 - (i) "Pen register" means a device which records or decodes electronic or other impulses which identify the numbers dialed or otherwise transmitted on the telephone line to which the device is attached, but "pen register" does not include any device used by a provider or customer of a wire or electronic communication service for billing, or recording as an incident to billing, for communication services provided by the provider or any device used by a provider or customer of a wire communication service for cost accounting or other like purposes in the ordinary course of its business.

100	(j)	"Prosecut	or"	means	the	Mississippi	Attorney	General
101	or his or her	designee,	if o	designa	ated,	in writing,	on a
102	case-by-case	basis.

- 103 (k) "Provider of wire or electronic communications 104 service" means an entity which holds itself out to the public as 105 engaged in the business of transmitting messages through the use
 106 of wire communication or electronic communication, as both terms 107 are defined in this section.
- 108 (1)"Wire communication" means any aural transfer made 109 in whole or in part through the use of facilities for the 110 transmission of communications by the aid of wire, cable, or other like connection between the point of origin and the point of 111 112 reception, including the use of such connection in a switching station, furnished or operated by any person engaged as a provider 113 of wire or electronic communications service in providing or 114 115 operating those facilities for the transmission of communications.
- SECTION 3. (1) Each application for an order authorizing the interception of a wire, oral or electronic communication shall be made in writing upon oath or affirmation to a judge of competent jurisdiction in:
- 120 (a) The district where the interception of a wire, oral 121 or electronic communication is to occur;
- 122 (b) Any district where jurisdiction exists to prosecute 123 the underlying offense to support an intercept order under this 124 act; or

125		(C)	The	county	in	which	the	principal	office	of	the
126	Attorney	Genera	lis	s locate	ed.

- 127 (2) The application shall state the prosecutor's authority
- 128 to make the application and shall include the following
- 129 information:
- 130 (a) Identity of the prosecutor making the application;
- 131 (b) A full and complete statement of the facts and
- 132 circumstances relied upon by the applicant to justify the
- 133 applicant's belief that an order should be issued, including:
- (i) Details as to the particular offense, under
- 135 Sections 97-5-31 through 97-5-37, that has been, is being, or is
- 136 about to be committed;
- 137 (ii) A particular description of the nature and
- 138 location of the facilities from which or the place where the
- 139 communication is to be intercepted;
- 140 (iii) A particular description of the type of
- 141 communications sought to be intercepted; and
- 142 (iv) The identity of all persons, if known,
- 143 committing the offense and whose communications are to be or may
- 144 be intercepted;
- 145 (c) A full and complete statement as to whether or not
- 146 other investigative procedures have been tried and failed or why
- 147 they reasonably appear to be unlikely to succeed if tried or to be
- 148 too dangerous;

149	(d) A statement of the period of time for which the
150	interception is required to be maintained. The period of time
151	shall be no more than thirty (30) days from the day that the
152	wiretap is activated. If the nature of the investigation is such
153	that the authorization for interception should not automatically
154	terminate when the described type of communication has been first
155	obtained, a particular description of facts establishing probable
156	cause to believe that additional communications of the same type
157	will occur thereafter;

- (e) A full and complete statement of the facts concerning all previous applications known to the individuals authorizing and making the application, made to any judge for authorization to intercept wire, oral or electronic communications involving any of the same persons, facilities, or places specified in the application, and the action taken by the judge on each application; and

- (f) Where the application is for the extension of an order beyond thirty (30) days, a statement setting forth the results thus far obtained from the interception, or a reasonable explanation of the failure to obtain results.
- 169 (3) The judge may require the applicant to furnish 170 additional testimony or documentary evidence in support of the 171 application.
- 172 SECTION 4. (1) Upon receipt of an application, the judge 173 may enter an ex parte order, as requested or as modified,

- 175 communications within the district in which the judge is sitting,
- 176 and outside that district but within this state in the case of a
- mobile interception device, if the judge determines on the basis 177
- 178 of the facts submitted by the applicant that:
- 179 (a) There is probable cause for belief that an
- individual is committing, has committed, or is about to commit a 180
- particular offense enumerated in Sections 97-5-31 through 97-5-37; 181
- 182 There is probable cause for belief that particular
- 183 communications concerning that offense will be obtained through
- 184 the interception;
- 185 Normal investigative procedures have been tried and
- 186 have failed or reasonably appear to be unlikely to succeed if
- 187 tried or to be too dangerous; and
- 188 There is probable cause for belief that the
- 189 facilities from which, or the place where, the wire, oral or
- 190 electronic communications are to be intercepted are being used, or
- about to be used, in connection with the commission of the 191
- 192 offense, or are leased to, listed in the name of, or commonly used
- 193 by the person.
- 194 (2) (a) Each order authorizing the interception of any
- 195 wire, oral or electronic communication under this section shall
- 196 specify:
- 197 The identity of all persons, if known, whose
- 198 communications are to be or may be intercepted;

199	(ii) The nature and location of the communications
200	facilities as to which, or the place where, authority to intercept
201	is granted;
202	(iii) A particular description of the type of
203	communication sought to be intercepted, and a statement of the
204	particular offense to which it relates;
205	(iv) The identity of the agency authorized to
206	intercept the communications, and the identity of the person
207	authorizing the application; and
208	(v) The period of time during which the
209	interception is authorized, including a statement as to whether or
210	not the interception shall automatically terminate when the
211	described communication has been first obtained.
212	(b) An order authorizing the interception of a wire,
213	oral or electronic communication under this section shall, upon
214	the request of the applicant, direct that a provider of wire or
215	electronic communication service, landlord, custodian, or other
216	person shall furnish the applicant with all information,
217	facilities, and technical assistance necessary to accomplish the
218	interception unobtrusively and with a minimum of interference with
219	the services that the service provider, landlord, custodian, or
220	person is according the person whose communications are to be
221	intercepted. Any provider of wire or electronic communication
222	service, landlord, custodian, or other person furnishing
223	facilities or technical assistance shall be compensated by the

- applicant for reasonable expenses incurred in providing the facilities or assistance.
- 226 No order entered under this section may authorize (a) 227 or approve the interception of any wire, oral or electronic 228 communication for any period longer than is necessary to achieve 229 the objective of the authorization, nor in any event longer than 230 thirty (30) days. The thirty-day period begins on the earlier of the day on which the investigative or law enforcement officer 231 232 first begins to conduct an interception under the order or ten 233 (10) days after the order is entered.
 - (b) Extensions of an order may be granted, but only upon application for an extension made in accordance with Section 3 of this act and the court making the findings required by subsection (1) of this section. The period of extension shall be no longer than the authorizing judge deems necessary to achieve the purposes for which it was granted and in no event for longer than thirty (30) days. Every order and extension of an order shall contain a provision that the authorization to intercept shall be executed as soon as practicable, shall be conducted in a way as to minimize the interception of communications not otherwise subject to interception under this act, and must terminate upon attainment of the authorized objective, or in any event in thirty (30) days.
- 247 (c) In the event the intercepted communication is in a 248 code or foreign language, and an expert in that code or foreign 249 language is not reasonably available during the interception 250 period, minimization may be accomplished as soon as practicable 251 after interception. An interpretation or decoding of an 252 interception under this subsection (3)(c) may be conducted in 253 whole or in part by an investigative or law enforcement officer, 254 or by an individual operating under a contract with the state, 255 acting under the supervision of an investigative or law 256 enforcement officer.

SECTION 5. The contents of any wire, oral or electronic communication intercepted by any means authorized by this act shall, if possible, be recorded on tape or wire or other comparable device. The recording of the contents of any wire, oral or electronic communication under this section shall be done in a way as will protect the recording from editing or other alterations.

264 SECTION 6. (1)Immediately upon the expiration of the 265 period of the order, or extensions of the order, the recordings 266 shall be made available to the judge issuing the order and sealed 267 under the judge's direction. All recordings of wire, oral or electronic communications shall be treated as confidential and 268 269 shall not be open for inspection by members of the public. 270 Custody of the recordings shall be wherever the judge orders. The recordings shall not be destroyed except upon an order of the 271 272 issuing judge and in any event shall be kept for five (5) years; provided, that upon the agreement of the person whose 273

- communications were intercepted, or that person's counsel, and the appropriate prosecutor, the issuing judge may order the destruction of all recordings at any time.
- 277 (2) Prior to the recordings being made available to the 278 judge issuing the order, sealed, duplicate recordings may be made 279 for use or disclosure, as set forth in this act for investigations 280 or in response to a lawful motion for discovery in a criminal 281 proceeding. All duplicate recordings or written transcripts shall 282 be treated as confidential and shall not be open for inspection by 283 members of the public.
- 284 (3) Upon an order of the issuing judge, the contents of any 285 wire, oral or electronic communication may be unsealed and used while giving testimony, as set forth in this act. The presence of 286 287 the seal provided for by subsection (1) of this section, or a 288 satisfactory explanation for the absence of the seal, shall be a 289 prerequisite for the use or disclosure of the contents of any 290 wire, oral or electronic communication or evidence derived 291 therefrom under this act. All wire, oral or electronic 292 communications that are not disclosed while giving testimony 293 retain their confidential character and shall not be open for 294 inspection by members of the public.
- 295 (4) Immediately following use while giving testimony, the 296 recordings shall be returned to the judge issuing the order and 297 resealed under the judge's direction.

- 300 (1) Applications made and orders granted under SECTION 7. 301 this act shall be treated as confidential and shall not be open 302 for inspection by members of the public. Applications and orders 303 shall be sealed by the judge and custody shall be wherever the 304 judge directs. The applications and orders shall be disclosed 305 only upon a showing of good cause before a judge of competent 306 jurisdiction and shall not be destroyed except on order of the 307 issuing or denying judge and in any event shall be kept for five 308 (5) years. Upon the agreement of the person named in the order or 309 application, or that person's counsel, and the appropriate 310 prosecutor, the issuing judge may order the destruction of such applications and orders at any time. 311
- 312 Within a reasonable time, but not later than ninety (90) 313 days after the termination of an order of approval, the 314 termination of an order authorizing an extension or the denial of an application, whichever is later, the issuing or denying judge 315 316 shall cause an inventory to be served on the persons named in the 317 order or application and any other parties to intercepted 318 communications as determined by the judge exercising judicial 319 discretion in the interest of justice. The inventory shall 320 include notice of:
- 321 (a) The fact of entry of the order or the application;

322	(b)	The	date	of	the	entry	and	the	peri	od (of	authoriz	ed

- 324 (c) The fact that during the period wire, oral or 325 electronic communications were or were not intercepted.
- 326 (3) The judge, upon the filing of a motion, may, in the 327 judge's discretion, make available to the person or the person's 328 counsel for inspection any portions of the intercepted 329 communications, applications and orders as the judge determines to 330 be in the interest of justice. On an exparte showing of good cause to a judge of competent jurisdiction, the serving of the 331 inventory required by subsection (2) of this section may be 332 333 postponed for ninety (90) days. At the end of this period, the 334 judge may allow additional ninety-day extensions, but only on 335 further showing of good cause.
- 336 (4) Any violation of this section may be punished as 337 contempt of court by the issuing or denying judge.
- 338 SECTION 8. The contents of any intercepted wire, oral or electronic communication or evidence derived therefrom shall not 339 340 be received in evidence or otherwise disclosed in any trial in a 341 state court unless each party, not less than ten (10) days before the trial, hearing, or proceeding, has been furnished with a copy 342 343 of the court order, and accompanying application, under which the interception was authorized. This ten-day period may be waived by 344 345 the judge if the judge finds that it was not possible to furnish the party with the information ten (10) days before the trial, 346

- 349 SECTION 9. (1) (a) Any aggrieved person in any trial, 350 hearing, or proceeding in or before any court may move to suppress 351 the contents of any intercepted wire, oral or electronic 352 communication, or evidence derived therefrom, on the grounds that:
- 353 (i) The communication was unlawfully intercepted;
- 354 (ii) The order of authorization under which it was 355 intercepted is insufficient on its face; or
- 356 (iii) The interception was not made in conformity 357 with the order of authorization.
 - or proceeding, unless there was no opportunity to make the motion or the person was not aware of the grounds of the motion. If the motion is granted, the contents of the intercepted wire, oral or electronic communication, or evidence derived therefrom, shall be treated as having been obtained in violation of this section. The judge, upon the filing of a motion by the aggrieved person, may, in the judge's discretion, make available portions of the intercepted communication, or evidence derived therefrom, as the judge determines to be in the interest of justice.
- 368 (2) In addition to any other right to appeal, the state has 369 the right to appeal from an order granting a motion to suppress 370 made under subsection (1) of this section, or the denial of an 371 application for an order of approval or extension of an order

359

362

363

364

365

366

372 under Section 4 of this act, if the prosecutor certifies to the

373 judge or other official granting the motion or denying the 374 application that the appeal is not taken for purposes of delay.

375 The appeal shall be taken within thirty (30) days after the date

376 the order was entered and shall be diligently prosecuted.

377 SECTION 10. (1) Any investigative or law enforcement

378 officer who, by any means authorized by this act, has obtained

379 knowledge of the contents of any wire, oral or electronic

380 communication, or evidence of child exploitation, as set forth in

381 Sections 97-5-31 through 97-5-37, derived therefrom, may disclose

382 such contents to another investigative or law enforcement officer

383 to the extent that disclosure is appropriate to the proper performance of the official duties of the officer making or 385 receiving the disclosure.

386 (2) Any investigative or law enforcement officer who, by any 387 means authorized by this act, has obtained knowledge of the

388 contents of any wire, oral or electronic communication or evidence

389 of child exploitation, as set forth in Sections 97-5-31 through

390 97-5-37, derived therefrom may use the contents to the extent the use is appropriate to the proper performance of the officer's 392 official duties.

384

391

393 (3) Any person who has received, by any means authorized by

394 this act, any information concerning a wire, oral or electronic

395 communication, or evidence of child exploitation, as set forth in

396 Sections 97-5-31 through 97-5-37, derived therefrom, intercepted

- in accordance with this act may disclose the contents of that communication or derivative evidence while giving testimony under oath or affirmation in any proceeding held under the authority of the State of Mississippi, or of the United States, or a political subdivision of the United States.
- (4) An otherwise privileged wire, oral or other communication intercepted in accordance with, or in violation of, the provisions of this act does not lose its privileged character, and any evidence derived from such privileged communication against the party to the privileged communication shall be considered privileged also.

- 408 When an investigative or law enforcement officer, while 409 engaged in intercepting wire, oral or electronic communications in 410 the manner authorized in this act, intercepts wire, oral or electronic communications relating to a crime of violence listed 411 412 in Section 97-3-2, other than those specified in the order of 413 authorization, the contents thereof and evidence derived therefrom, may be disclosed or used as provided in subsections (2) 414 415 and (3) of this section when authorized by a judge of competent 416 jurisdiction where the judge finds on subsequent application that 417 the contents were otherwise intercepted in accordance with this 418 The application shall be made as soon as practicable after 419 the interception.
- 420 SECTION 11. A wire, oral or electronic communication that 421 has been intercepted and any evidence derived therefrom shall not

- 423 in any court or before any grand jury if the disclosure of that
- 424 information would be in violation of this act.
- 425 SECTION 12. (1) In January of each year, the Mississippi
- 426 Attorney General shall report to the President of the Senate and
- 427 the Speaker of the House of Representatives:
- 428 (a) A general description of the interceptions made
- 429 under the order or extension during the preceding year, including:
- 430 (i) The approximate number of persons whose
- 431 communications were intercepted; and
- 432 (ii) The approximate nature, amount, and cost of
- 433 the manpower and other resources used in the interceptions;
- 434 (b) The number of arrests resulting from interceptions
- 435 made under the order or extension, and the offenses for which
- 436 arrests were made;
- 437 (c) The number of trials resulting from the
- 438 interceptions;
- (d) The number of motions to suppress made with respect
- 440 to the interceptions, and the number granted or denied; and
- 441 (e) The number of convictions resulting from the
- 442 interceptions and the offenses for which the convictions were
- 443 obtained and the general assessment of the importance of the
- 444 interceptions.
- 445 (2) Whenever an order authorizing interception is entered
- 446 pursuant to this act, the order may, at the discretion of the

447	judge who issued the order, require that reports be made to the
448	judge who issued the order showing what progress has been made
449	toward achievement of the authorized objective and the need for
450	continued interception at intervals of no less than ten (10) days.

- 451 SECTION 13. Any ambiguity in this act shall be resolved in 452 favor of the aggrieved party and against the state.
- 453 SECTION 14. Any judge of competent jurisdiction may issue a 454 pen register or trap and trace order pursuant to the provisions 455 and requirements of 18 USC Section 3123 et seq.
- 456 SECTION 15. Sections 1 through 14 of this act shall be 457 codified in Title 7, Chapter 5, Mississippi Code of 1972.
- 458 SECTION 16. This act shall take effect and be in force from 459 and after July 1, 2021.
