HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 108

1 A RESOLUTION COMMENDING THE RICH AND HISTORICAL LEGACY OF THE 2 CITY OF MCCOMB, MISSISSIPPI, AND CONGRATULATING THE CITY UPON THE 3 OCCASION OF ITS SESQUICENTENNIAL ANNIVERSARY, ACKNOWLEDGING 150
4 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE.

5 WHEREAS, chartered on April 5, 1872, through special
6 enactment by the Mississippi Legislature, after being chosen in 7 1871 by Colonel Henry Simpson McComb, president of the New 8 Orleans, Jackson and Greater Northern Railroad, as the northern 9 location for its railroad shops and division headquarters in 10 furtherance of the development of the rail line by way of Pass
11 Manchac, the City of McComb will celebrate its Sesquicentennial
12 Anniversary, acknowledging 150 years of rich and historical 13 excellence; and

14 WHEREAS, prior to his death in 1881, Colonel McComb had sold
15 his interest in the railroad, and in June of 1882, the Illinois
16 Central Railroad had begun leasing and operating the railroad, 17 which initiated the completed expansion of the line to Chicago by 18 1891, and the completion of its second main track by 1903, 19 bringing with it an influx of new inhabitants; and

20           WHEREAS, boasting a storied legacy, the "Railroad City," as 21 it has come to be known, was twice occupied by federal troops or 22 state militiamen in furtherance of preserving the peace, suffered
23 through the 1878 Yellow Fever epidemic, recovered from the June
24 21, 1904 fire, which began in a Chinese laundry and destroyed 22
25 downtown buildings, and the November 29, 1942 fire which decimated
26 the McComb High School along with the records of all elementary
27 students ever to attend the McComb schools from 1920 through 1943, 28 and was an iconic location of efforts to further the tenets of the 29 Civil Rights Movement; and

30           WHEREAS, the first among cities of its size in industry,
31 mercantile importance, religious and educational facilities,
32 public improvements, and general progressiveness, the City of 33 McComb, only 50 years after its founding, comprised a total area
34 of two square miles, that included 125 miles of streets, seven 35 large schools, 13 churches of the Baptist, Methodist,
36 Presbyterian, Episcopal, Christian, Nazarene, Christian Science
37 and Roman Catholic denominations, 19 blocks of paved streets in 38 the city's business center, three hospitals, and an assessed 39 valuation of $5,635,193.00; and

40           WHEREAS, with the railroad at the center of its economic 41 viability, McComb thrived as an industrial giant, as industry
42 proved to be its paramount achievement in its narrative of 43 success, the mechanical departments and the rail car shops ensured
44 the robust advancement of Illinois Central Railroad, and spawned

45 the creation of several businesses to accommodate the needs of the 46 city's residents, including: X.A. Kramer Industries, which 47 consisted of the acquisition and renovation of the McColgan Hotel,
48 the McComb Ice Company, the McComb Creamery, the McComb Ice Cream
49 Company and the McComb Commissary; the Allen Lumber Company; the 50 Home Light Company; the McComb Cotton Mill; the Berthadale Mills;
51 the J.J. White Industries, which consisted of the McComb Steam
52 Laundry, the Dry Cleaning Department and the McComb Cotton Gin; 53 and the B.V. Slate Industry; and

54 WHEREAS, from its optimistic formation as a tiny railroad
55 community in 1872, to its now premier status as an estimable
56 metropolitan area boasting a diverse demography, and proudly 57 touting the roots of several dozen native sons and daughters who 58 have reached national acclaim in the television, entertainment, 59 music, athletic and literary arenas, McComb's pride is embedded in 60 the hearts of its citizens; and

61 WHEREAS, encompassing an area of 11.6 square miles today, the 62 city's population of 12,413 residents, according to the 2020
63 Federal Decennial Census, McComb's history is embodied in an 64 immersive cultural experience rooted in transparency, by drawing 65 upon the lessons and growing pains of its former experiences, to 66 emerge like a phoenix from the ashes with a clean, energetic and 67 invigorated spirit of hope and inclusiveness to enhance the 68 quality of life and inspire dreams of great success for every 69 citizen and visitor for generations to come; and

70           WHEREAS, it is the policy of the House of Representatives to 71 pay tribute to a municipality such as the City of McComb, which is 72 a place where the quality of life is still important and where its 73 small town values stand as a role model throughout the great State
74 of Mississippi:

75           NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF 76 REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, That we do hereby 77 commend the rich and historical legacy of the City of McComb, 78 Mississippi, congratulate the city upon the occasion of its 79 Sesquicentennial Anniversary, acknowledging 150 years of 80 excellence, and wish it continued success in all its future
81 endeavors.

82           BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be 83 furnished to the City of McComb Mayor and Selectmen and to the 84 members of the Capitol Press Corps.
