15 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI:

16 SECTION 1. Section 43-19-31, Mississippi Code of 1972, is

17 amended as follows:

18 43-19-31. The Department of Human Services is hereby

19 authorized and empowered to establish a single and separate Child

20 Support Unit for the following purposes:

21

(a) To develop and implement a nonsupport and paternity program and institute proceedings in the name of the Department of

23 Human Services or in the name of the recipient in any court of

24 competent jurisdiction in any county where the mother of the child

The department shall conduct cost-benefit 131 analyses to determine and utilize the more cost efficient manner 132 133 of operating the unit;

134 (1) To maintain a Mississippi Department of Human135 Services Case Registry containing records with respect to:

136 (i) Each case in which services are being provided
137 by the department under this section; * * *

138 (ii) Each support order established or modified in139 Mississippi on or after October 1, 1998; and

(iii) The Administrative Office of Courts, as established by Section 9-21-1, Mississippi Code of 1972, in consultation with the Mississippi Department of Human Services, shall devise, promulgate and require the use of a Uniform Child Support Order Tracking System.

145 1. Information collected from case filing 146 forms shall be furnished to the Mississippi Department of Human 147 Services, Division of Child Support Enforcement, in order that 148 compliance with court-ordered obligations of support may be

173 To provide any child support enforcement or other  $(\circ)$ 174 service as may be required by the United States of America, 175 Department of Health and Human Services, Family Support 176 Administration, Office of Child Support Enforcement or their 177 successor pursuant to federal law or regulation \* \* \*; and 178 To collaborate with the Office of the State (p) 179 Treasurer in order to identify persons presumed to have unclaimed 180 property and intercept eligible unclaimed property to satisfy, 181 fully or partially, the person's child support arrearage. 182 SECTION 2. Section 89-12-39, Mississippi Code of 1972, is amended as follows: 183 184 89-12-39. (1) Any person claiming an interest in any 185 property delivered to the state under the provisions of this 186 chapter may file a claim on the form prescribed by the Treasurer. 187 The Treasurer shall consider any claim filed under the (2)188 provisions of subsection (1) of this section, and may hold a 189 hearing and receive evidence concerning it. If a hearing is 190 held, \* \* \* the Treasurer shall prepare a finding and a decision 191 in writing on each claim filed, stating the substance of any evidence heard by \* \* \* the Treasurer and the reasons for \* \* \* 192 193 the Treasurer's decision. The decision shall be a public record. 194 If the validity of a claim shall be determined in favor (3) of the claimant, the Treasurer shall collaborate with the 195 196 Department of Human Services to determine if the claimant owes a 197 child support arrearage. If the claimant owes an arrearage, the

198Treasurer shall transfer to the Department of Human Services any199portion of the claim, including any interest as described in200subsection (4) of this section, necessary to satisfy, fully or 201 partially, the person's child support arrearage.

202 (4) If the validity of a claim shall be determined in favor 203 of the claimant and the claimant does not owe a child support 204 arrearage or there is a remaining amount of the claim after 205 satisfaction of the arrearage under subsection (3) of this 206 section, the Treasurer shall pay over to the claimant only that 207 amount which the Treasurer actually received, without deduction 208 for costs of notices or for service charges, together with 209 interest at the rate of one-twelfth of one percent (1/12 of 1%)210 per month from the time when it was received by the Treasurer to 211 the time when it was paid by him or her to the claimant. However, 212 if the property claimed was interest bearing to the owner on the 213 date of surrender by the holder, then the Treasurer shall instead 214 add interest at a rate not to exceed five-twelfths of one percent (5/12 of 1%) per month or the lesser current market rate. 215 The 216 interest on interest-bearing property shall begin to accumulate on 217 the date that the property is delivered to the Treasurer and shall 218 cease on the earlier of the expiration of fifteen (15) years 219 following delivery or the date on which payment is made to the 220 owner. No interest on the interest-bearing property shall be 221 payable for any period prior to July 1, 1982. Any holder who pays 222 to the owner property which has been delivered to the state and

S. B. No. 2319 ~ OFFICIAL ~ 22/SS36/R474 PAGE 9 (ens\tb) which, if claimed from the Treasurer, would be subject to the provisions of this section as interest-bearing property, shall add interest as provided in this section. The added interest shall be repaid to the holder by the Treasurer in the same manner as the principal.

228 SECTION 3. Section 93-11-71, Mississippi Code of 1972, is 229 amended as follows:

93-11-71. (1) Whenever a court orders any person to make periodic payments of a sum certain for the maintenance or support of a child, and whenever such payments as have become due remain unpaid for a period of at least thirty (30) days, a judgment by operation of law shall arise against the obligor in an amount equal to all payments that are then due and owing.

(a) A judgment arising under this section shall have the same effect and be fully enforceable as any other judgment entered in this state. A judicial or administrative action to enforce the judgment may be begun at any time; and

(b) Such judgments arising in other states by operationof law shall be given full faith and credit in this state.

(2) Any judgment arising under the provisions of this section shall operate as a lien upon all the property of the judgment debtor, both real and personal, which lien shall be perfected as to third parties without actual notice thereof only upon enrollment on the judgment roll. The department or attorney representing the party to whom support is owed shall furnish an

248 abstract of the judgment for periodic payments for the maintenance 249 and support of a child, along with sworn documentation of the 250 delinquent child support, to the circuit clerk of the county where 251 the judgment is rendered, and it shall be the duty of the circuit 252 clerk to enroll the judgment on the judgment roll. Liens arising 253 under the provisions of this section may be executed upon and 254 enforced in the same manner and to the same extent as any other 255 judgment.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions in subsection (2) of this section, any judgment arising under the provisions of this section shall subject the following assets to interception or seizure without regard to the entry of the judgment on the judgment roll of the situs district or jurisdiction and such assets shall apply to all child support owed including all arrears:

(a) Periodic or lump-sum payments from a federal, state or local agency, including unemployment compensation, workers' compensation and other benefits;

(b) Winnings from lotteries and gaming winnings that are received in periodic payments made over a period in excess of thirty (30) days;

268 (c) Assets held in financial institutions;
269 (d) Settlements and awards resulting from civil 270 actions;

(e) Public and private retirement funds, only to the extent that the obligor is qualified to receive and receives a lump-sum or periodic distribution from the funds; * * *

274 (f) Lump-sum payments as defined in Section 275 93-11-101 * * *; and

276 (g) Unclaimed property as described in Section 89-12-1
277 et seq.

278 Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (4) 279 (2) of this section, upon disestablishment of paternity granted pursuant to Section 93-9-10 and a finding of clear and convincing 280 281 evidence including negative DNA testing that the obligor is not 282 the biological father of the child or children for whom support has been ordered, the court shall disestablish paternity and may 283 284 forgive any child support arrears of the obligor for the child or 285 children determined by the court not to be the biological child or children of the obligor, if the court makes a written finding 286 287 that, based on the totality of the circumstances, the forgiveness 288 of the arrears is equitable under the circumstances.

(5) In any case in which a child receives assistance from block grants for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), and the obligor owes past-due child support, the obligor, if not incapacitated, may be required by the court to participate in any work programs offered by any state agency.

294 (6) A parent who receives social security disability295 insurance payments who is liable for a child support arrearage and

S. B. No. 2319 ~ OFFICIAL ~ 22/SS36/R474 PAGE 12 (ens\tb) whose disability insurance benefits provide for the payment of past due disability insurance benefits for the support of the minor child or children for whom the parent owes a child support arrearage shall receive credit toward the arrearage for the payment or payments for the benefit of the minor child or children if the arrearage accrued after the date of disability onset as determined by the Social Security Administration.

303 SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from 304 and after July 1, 2022.
