SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 512

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION PAYING TRIBUTE TO THE LEGACY OF

2 FORMER POW AND RETIRED AIR FORCE COLONEL CARLYLE "SMITTY" HARRIS 3 AND EXTENDING THE CONGRATULATIONS OF THE LEGISLATURE TO SMITTY AND 4 HIS FAMILY ON THE OCCASION OF THE DEDICATION OF THE UNITED STATES 5 POST OFFICE IN TUPELO, MISSISSIPPI, TO BE NAMED IN HIS HONOR. 6 WHEREAS, legislation that would name a post office after this 7 well-known Tupelo veteran has passed in the United States House of 8 Representatives. U.S. Representative Trent Kelly announced the 9 passage of H.R. 208, which will designate the United States Postal 10 Service facility located at 500 West Main Street as the "Colonel Carlyle 'Smitty' Harris Post Office." The bill passed by a 11 12 two-thirds recorded vote in the House; and WHEREAS, we join the citizens of Tupelo, Mississippi, and all 13 veterans in remembering the legacy of former POW and Retired Air 14 15 Force Colonel Carlyle "Smitty" Harris who has written a book about 16 his experiences at the Hanoi Hilton Prison Camp where his "TAP" 17 code helped him and his fellow prisoners survive; and WHEREAS, at the age of 36, Colonel Harris' F-105 18

fighter-bomber plane was shot down over North Vietnam on April 4,

- 20 1965. He was the sixth American to become a Prisoner of War at
- 21 the Hoa Lo Prison, also known as the "Hanoi Hilton," where he
- 22 taught his fellow prisoners a secret code they could use to
- 23 communicate. Harris' tale of survival was detailed in his 2019
- 24 autobiography, "Tap Code"; and
- 25 WHEREAS, on December 5, 2021, Smitty and his wife, Louise,
- 26 celebrated 60 years of marriage. The Harris family Smitty,
- 27 Louise, four-year-old Robin and three-year-old Carolyn, relocated
- 28 to Kadena Air Base in Okinawa, Japan, where Smitty Harris would
- 29 fly the F-105 fighter-bomber plane. After he was shot down and
- 30 taken prisoner by the North Vietnamese, Louise chose to move the
- 31 family, which by then included baby son Lyle, to Tupelo because
- 32 her sister lived there. "It was a wonderful, wonderful choice,"
- 33 81-year-old Louise Harris said of making Tupelo their new home;
- 34 and
- 35 WHEREAS, after a long and distinguished career in the United
- 36 States Air Force, Harris completed law school and joined The
- 37 Mississippi Bar in 1981; and
- 38 WHEREAS, "The closest to me in North Vietnam were my
- 39 cellmates, but I've come to know others well in reunions," Smitty
- 40 Harris said, "Most I didn't get to see face to face until we came
- 41 home." Now their travels include a nationwide book tour which
- 42 commenced November 9th in Tupelo, the place the Harrises call
- 43 home; and

- 44 WHEREAS, Colonel Harris is a hero and role model in the 45 Tupelo community. He has forgiven his captors and shown love to all human beings. His humility and courtesy are something to 46 "Colonel Harris is a true war hero," Representative 47 emulate. 48 Kelly said in an official statement. "During the Vietnam War, he 49 was held captive at the famous Hanoi Hilton for eight years, where he employed the "Tap Code" to communicate with his fellow 50 51 prisoners. Despite the constant threat of torture, Colonel Harris 52 taught other prisoners how to use the secret code"; and WHEREAS, Colonel Harris' legacy is a strong and free America, 53 54 and for this and for a lifetime of selfless service, a grateful 55 state thanks him: 56 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING THEREIN, That 57 58 we do hereby pay tribute to the legacy of former POW and retired Air Force Colonel Carlyle "Smitty" Harris and extend the 59 60 congratulations of the Legislature to Smitty and his family on the
- BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this resolution be presented to Smitty Harris and his wife Louise, forwarded to the Tupelo City Council and be made available to the Capitol Press Corps.
