

By: Senator(s) Younger, Bryan, Butler
(38th), Jackson (11th)

To: Rules

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 584

1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION COMMEMORATING THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY
2 OF THE FOUNDING OF THE COLUMBUS COMMERCIAL DISPATCH NEWSPAPER
3 (1921-2022) IN COLUMBUS, MISSISSIPPI, THE ONLY FAMILY-OWNED 4 NEWSPAPER IN THE STATE, AND RECOGNIZING ITS CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE 5 COMMUNITY AND TO THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI.

6 WHEREAS, we join the citizens of Columbus, Mississippi, in 7 commemorating the 100th Anniversary of the founding of The 8 Columbus Commercial Dispatch Newspaper and recognizing the civic 9 contributions of this leading corporate citizen in our state; and

10 WHEREAS, Vinton Birney Imes had some ambitious plans. He was 11 just 33 years old, but already a 12-year veteran of the newspaper
12 business. In 1921, he left his position with The Columbus
13 Dispatch to purchase The Columbus Commercial. A year later,
14 backed by the financing of a local judge, Imes purchased his old 15 newspaper, The Columbus Dispatch from the Maer family; and

16 WHEREAS, newspapers had operated in Columbus as far back as 17 1833, coming and going, merging and changing names. On March 12, 18 1922, the first edition of the consolidated newspapers rolled off the press under the banner The Commercial Dispatch, with Birney Imes as its Editor and Publisher; and

WHEREAS, March 12, 2022, marked the 100th Anniversary of what is now known as The Commercial Dispatch. It is the second "birthday" the paper recognizes, along with the 1879 founding of The Columbus Dispatch, the earliest forerunner of today's newspaper. Beginning with Birney Imes, the newspaper has been edited and published by four generations of the Imes family, including the current Editor/Publisher Peter Imes, who took over the role in 2018. It is now the only family-owned daily newspaper in the state; and

WHEREAS, in 1996, Birney Imes III took over as Editor and Publisher, inheriting the position at a time that seems far removed from that of his grandfather, a time when newspapers were virtually the only source of news on daily events of not only Columbus, but the nation and world. In 1925, The Commercial Dispatch moved to its present location on Main Street. In those days before radio and TV, the newspaper was a beehive of activity during elections and public events. For many years a chalkboard was set up in front of The Dispatch to tally election returns as they came in; and

WHEREAS, "The 100th Anniversary of The Commercial Dispatch celebrates far more than four generations of a family business," Peter Imes said. "When I pause to consider the history of the company, I always think of the thousands and thousands of people

44 who have worked here or delivered papers for us. For most of the 45 ones I've talked to, it was, in one way or another, a notable 46 period of their life. People who have clocked in at The Dispatch
47 have gone on to be entrepreneurs, university presidents, mayors,
48 teachers and police officers. In the early days, there were a lot 49 of young up-and-coming people who loved what we did and worked so 50 hard. They came into work when they didn't have to and went the 51 extra mile and won a lot of awards for their work. Those were 52 exciting years and a period of growth for all of Columbus." That 53 commitment to excellence hasn't changed. The paper's newsroom has 54 won the top award in the state, and its advertising department has 55 won the top award the past two years; and

56 WHEREAS, Birney Imes handled the first 100 years of The 57 Commercial Dispatch and Peter Imes for the second 100 years. Imes
58 said, "Whether it's The Dispatch or some other source, I just hope 59 there's a third party to hold government accountable and report
60 and interpret the news. But I do think there will be a Dispatch 61 in 100 years"; and

62 WHEREAS, established in 1819, the City of Columbus has been a
63 leading, progressive agricultural community in the Golden Triangle 64 Region of Central Mississippi, which throughout its history has 65 been supported by the leadership of its most public-spirited 66 corporate citizen, The Commercial Dispatch, whose civic energy is 67 a wonderful example of excellent journalism in the State of 68 Mississippi:

69 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF 70 MISSISSIPPI, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING THEREIN, That 71 we do hereby commemorate the 100th Anniversary of the founding of 72 The Columbus Commercial Dispatch Newspaper (1921-2022) in 73 Columbus, Mississippi, the only family-owned newspaper in the 74 state, and recognize its contributions to the community and to the 75 State of Mississippi, and extend our best wishes to the staff of 76 this leading newspaper on this auspicious occasion.

77 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this resolution be presented to 78 Peter Imes and the staff of The Commercial Dispatch, forwarded to 79 the City Council of the City of Columbus, and made available to 80 the Capitol Press Corps.

