The court may, on due notice, order any 462 such transfer or obligation to be preserved for the benefit of the 463 estate, and in that event the receiver shall succeed to and may 464 enforce the rights of the purchaser, lienor or obligee.

465 (2) (a) A transfer of property other than real property
466 shall be deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far

468 proceedings on a simple contract could become superior to the 469 rights of the transferee under Section 83-24-55.

470 (b) A transfer of real property shall be deemed to be 471 made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no
472 subsequent bona fide purchaser from the insurer could obtain 473 rights superior to the rights of the transferee.

474 (c) A transfer which creates an equitable lien shall 475 not be deemed to be perfected if there are available means by 476 which a legal lien could be created.

477 (d) Any transfer not perfected prior to the filing of a
478 petition for liquidation shall be deemed to be made immediately
479 before the filing of the successful petition.

(e) The provisions of this subsection apply whether or not there are or were creditors who might have obtained any liens or persons who might have become bona fide purchasers.

483 (3) Any transaction of the insurer with a reinsurer shall be 484 deemed fraudulent and may be voided by the receiver under 485 subsection (1) if:

(a) The transaction consists of the termination, adjustment or settlement of a reinsurance contract in which the reinsurer is released from any part of its duty to pay the originally specified share of losses that had occurred prior to the time of the transactions, unless the reinsurer gives a present fair equivalent value for the release; and

~ OFFICIAL ~

H. B. No. 1172 23/HR31/R1575 PAGE 20 (MCL\JAB) 492 (b) Any part of the transaction took place within one 493 (1) year prior to the date of filing of the petition through which 494 the receivership was commenced.

495 (4) Every person receiving any property from the insurer or 496 any benefit thereof which is a fraudulent transfer under 497 subsection (1) shall be personally liable therefor and shall be 498 bound to account to the liquidator.

499 (5) Notwithstanding this section and any other provision of 500 this title, a receiver shall not avoid any transfer of, or any 501 obligation to transfer, money or any other property arising under 502 or in connection with a federal home loan bank security agreement 503 or any pledge agreement, security agreement, collateral agreement, 504 guarantee agreement, or other similar arrangement or credit 505 enhancement relating to a security agreement to which a federal 506 home loan bank is a party. However, a transfer may be avoided 507 under this section if it was made with the actual intent to 508 hinder, delay, or defraud either existing or future creditors. 509 SECTION 7. Section 83-24-55, Mississippi Code of 1972, is

510 amended as follows:

511 83-24-55. (1) (a) A preference is a transfer of any of the 512 property of an insurer to or for the benefit of a creditor, for or 513 on account of an antecedent debt, made or suffered by the insurer 514 within one (1) year before the filing of a successful petition for 515 liquidation under this chapter, the effect of which transfer may 516 be to enable the creditor to obtain a greater percentage of this

517 debt than another creditor of the same class would receive. If a 518 liquidation order is entered while the insurer is already subject 519 to a rehabilitation order, then such transfers shall be deemed 520 preferences if made or suffered within one (1) year before the 521 filing of the successful petition for rehabilitation, or within 522 two (2) years before the filing of the successful petition for 523 liquidation, whichever time is shorter.

(b) Any preference may be voided by the liquidator if:
(i) The insurer was insolvent at the time of the transfer; or

527 (ii) The transfer was made within four (4) months 528 before the filing of the petition; or

(iii) The creditor receiving it or to be benefited thereby or his agent acting with reference thereto had, at the time when the transfer was made, reasonable cause to believe that the insurer was insolvent or was about to become insolvent; or

533 (iv) The creditor receiving it was an officer, or any employee or attorney or other person who was in fact in a 534 535 position of comparable influence in the insurer to an officer 536 whether or not he held such position, or any shareholder holding, 537 directly or indirectly, more than five percent (5%) of any class 538 of any equity security issued by the insurer, or any other person, firm, corporation, association, or aggregation of persons with 539 540 whom the insurer did not deal at arm's length.

H. B. No. 1172 23/HR31/R1575 PAGE 22 (MCL\JAB) 541 (C) When the preference is voidable, the liquidator may 542 recover the property or, if it has been converted, its value from any person who has received or converted the property; except 543 where a bona fide purchaser or lienor has given less than fair 544 545 equivalent value, he shall have a lien upon the property to the 546 extent of the consideration actually given by him. If a 547 preference by way of lien or security title is voidable, the court 548 may on due notice order the lien or title to be preserved for the 549 benefit of the estate and the lien or title shall pass to the 550 liquidator.

(2) (a) A transfer of property other than real property shall be deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings on a simple contract could become superior to the rights of the transferee.

(b) A transfer of real property shall be deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent bona fide purchaser from the insurer could obtain rights superior to the rights of the transferee.

(c) A transfer which creates an equitable lien shall not be deemed to be perfected if there are available means by which a legal lien could be created.

(d) A transfer not perfected prior to the filing of a petition for liquidation shall be deemed to be made immediately before the filing of the successful petition.

H. B. No. 1172 ~ OFFICIAL ~ 23/HR31/R1575 PAGE 23 (MCL\JAB) 566 (e) The provisions of this subsection apply whether or 567 not there are or were creditors who might have obtained liens or 568 persons who might have become bona fide purchasers.

569 A lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings (3) (a) 570 upon a simple contract is one arising in the ordinary course of 571 such proceedings upon the entry or docketing of a judgment or 572 decree, or upon attachment, garnishment, execution, or like 573 process, whether before, upon, or after judgment or decree and 574 whether before or upon levy. It does not include liens which 575 under applicable law are given a special priority over other liens 576 which are prior in time.

577 A lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings (b) 578 could become superior to the rights of a transferee, or a 579 purchaser could obtain rights superior to the rights of a 580 transferee within the meaning of subsection (2), if such 581 consequences would follow only from the lien or purchase itself, 582 or from the lien or purchase followed by any step wholly within 583 the control of the respective lienholder or purchaser, with or 584 without the aid of ministerial action by public officials. Such a 585 lien could not, however, become superior and such a purchase could 586 not create superior rights for the purpose of subsection (2) 587 through any acts subsequent to the obtaining of such a lien or 588 subsequent to such a purchase which require the agreement or 589 concurrence of any third party or which require any further judicial action or ruling. 590
