HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 64

1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION COMMENDING THE MOST HONORABLE AND 2 DISTINGUISHED SPEAKER PHILIP GUNN FOR HIS ESTEEMED AND LAUDABLE 3 LEGISLATIVE CAREER AND PUBLIC SERVICE UPON THE OCCASION OF HIS 4 RETIREMENT FROM THE MISSISSIPPI HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

5 WHEREAS, the 61st Speaker of the Mississippi House of 6 Representatives, Speaker Philip Gunn, has made the difficult 7 decision to complete his state legislative service at the 8 conclusion of his current term from the Mississippi House of 9 Representatives after tirelessly and sincerely working to elevate 10 the quality of life for the citizens of District 56, which 11 encompasses portions of Hinds and Madison Counties, and which also 12 formerly encompassed areas of Warren and Yazoo Counties, as well
13 as for all citizens of the State of Mississippi for the past 20 14 years; and

15 WHEREAS, before taking his seat as a member of the House in 16 2004, Speaker Gunn, who was born in Hattiesburg and raised in 17 Clinton, received his most vital support from his late parents, 18 who encouraged him as he played sports growing up, which proved 19 beneficial to his development as an intrepid leader in sports,

20 business and politics, as made evident by an exceptional record of 21 athletic successes as a high school and collegiate sports
22 phenomenon, who was the only Clinton Arrows senior to play 23 football, basketball and baseball, leading his football team to 24 the state championship in 1980 and No. 1 ranking in the final
25 United Press International (UPI) Coaches Poll with being named
26 recipient of All-State quarterback honors by the Mississippi
27 Sportswriters and selections to play in the North/South All-Star 28 game before graduating to attend Mississippi College, where he 29 played for one semester, and ultimately transferring to his 30 beloved Baylor University, where he walked on as a scout team
31 player with the Bears' gridiron warriors; and

32 WHEREAS, Speaker Gunn graduated from Baylor in 1985 with a 33 bachelor of business administration degree, and then returned to 34 his home state for his legal education, graduating from the 35 University of Mississippi School of Law with a Juris Doctor degree
36 in 1989, where he received the Dean's Distinguished Service Award; 37 and

38 WHEREAS, without coincidence, competitors who excel in sports
39 are also poised to excel in other areas of life, and the skills
40 and lessons that Speaker Gunn acquired as an athlete followed him 41 throughout his career path, and manifested themselves in his 42 selection as Student Body President of the Ole Miss School of Law, 43 in his admission to the practice of law with Wells Marble and 44 Hurst, PLLC, and in his bid to seek elective office to the

45 Mississippi Legislature in 2003, where his service as an attentive
46 and vigilant student of the institution of the Mississippi
47 Legislature groomed him for his rise to the office of public trust 48 and role as a true guardian of the people; and

49 WHEREAS, Philip Gunn began serving the Mississippi House of 50 Representatives in 2004 with an even-keeled approach to 51 legislating that was premised in thoughtful analysis and civility, 52 and within the short span of eight years after his initial 53 election to the Legislature, he ascended to become the third
54 highest ranking elected official in the State of Mississippi upon 55 being elected by his peers as the 61st Speaker of the House on 56 January 3, 2012, signaling an official changing of the guard and 57 marking a historical moment in the shift of the political paradigm
58 when, for the first time in 136 years, a Republican legislator
59 held the title as Speaker of the Mississippi House of 60 Representatives; and

61 WHEREAS, with a courageous spirit, a calmly, deft hand and a 62 heart of compassion, Speaker Gunn, who is a firm believer in the 63 power of effective communication, has piloted the helm of the 64 House of Representatives with utmost deference to facilitate an 65 inclusive approach to hear and consider the concerns and 66 recommendations of each House member to better formulate a unified 67 approach to governing; and

68 WHEREAS, "It is a great honor to serve as your Speaker of the 69 House of Representatives," has been his quote as he has served as

70 Speaker for the last 12 years with humility and dignity, always 71 striving to do what he thought was best for all people of this 72 great state; and

73 WHEREAS, Speaker Gunn is widely admired for his talent in 74 building consensus in the Legislature, a trait emulated by other 75 members of the House in the face of challenging legislative 76 deliberations, and his congenial nature, ability to listen
77 effectively and infectious sense of humor have enabled him to 78 defuse contentious and controversial situations with his 79 infallible knack for impromptu improvisation; and

80 WHEREAS, Speaker Gunn credits his ability to reach across the 81 aisle to his time spent at Baylor, where he met students from 82 every state in the nation and from countries around the world,
83 exposing him to this diversity and setting the foundation for his 84 career, which has translated into clearly defined and consistently 85 applied positions to effectively wield the most influence to 86 accomplish the House's policy positions; and

87 WHEREAS, a servant-leader by innate design, Speaker Gunn, in 88 assuming the responsibilities of Speaker of the House, has 89 endeavored to cultivate a mentality of service and accountability
90 within the membership by advancing initiatives that compel the 91 membership to remain actively engaged with their constituency, and 92 holding fast to the words recorded in Ephesians 2:4-10, "But God, 93 who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,
94 Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with

95 Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) And hath raised us up together, 96 and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: That 97 in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his 98 grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. For by 99 grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it 100 is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast. For 101 we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, 102 which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them"; and

103 WHEREAS, during his twelve-year tenure as Speaker of the 104 House, Philip Gunn has served as a guiding force methodically
105 navigating the passage of virtually every meaningful economic 106 development, educational, public health and transportation
