HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 103

1 A RESOLUTION MOURNING THE LOSS AND COMMEMORATING THE LIFE AND 2 LEGACY AND SERVICE OF VIETNAM WAR VETERAN, MR. CHARLES "CLIFF" 3 WILSON COLLINS, AND EXPRESSING DEEPEST SYMPATHY TO HIS FAMILY AND 4 FRIENDS UPON HIS PASSING.

WHEREAS, it is written in II Corinthians 4:17-18, "For our 5 light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far 6 7 more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: 8 for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which 9 are not seen are eternal," and as such, the immaculate author and 10 11 finisher of our soul's destiny summoned the mortal presence of 12 dearly beloved, Mr. Charles "Cliff" Wilson Collins to eternal rest on Saturday, February 25, 2023, as he made life's final transition 13 14 from earthly travailing to heavenly reward, rendering great sorrow and loss to his family and many friends; and 15

16 WHEREAS, the City of Greenwood and the entirety of Leflore 17 County, Mississippi, lost a revered community pillar, master 18 builder, innovator and craftsman with the passing of Mr. Collins, 19 born in Drew, Mississippi, on November 29, 1948, to the union of H. R. No. 103 Corrected and Co his late parents, Mr. Dewitt Collins and Mrs. Beatrice Wilson Collins, and there is now a hush in our hearts as we come together to pay our respects to the memory of one who has been called to join that innumerable heavenly caravan; and

24 WHEREAS, having grown up in Minter City, Mississippi, with 13 25 siblings, "Cliff," as he was affectionately called, enjoyed the 26 "country boy" lifestyle, working on the family farm, having fun 27 with cousins and neighborhood friends; and

28 WHEREAS, Mr. Collins attended Amanda Elzy High School, where 29 he developed lifelong friendships and an appreciation for 30 learning, and also met his soulmate, the former Miss Cassie Mae 31 Osborne, whose heart he impressed with his love, chivalry and 32 affection, and after a proper courtship he requested her hand in marriage, gifting her his last name in an exchange of nuptials on 33 34 May 18, 1977, a union that was blessed with the addition of two 35 daughters; and

36 WHEREAS, during his 20s, Mr. Collins was compelled to answer Uncle Sam's call to patriotic service, at which time he enlisted 37 38 in the United States Air Force, evidencing his allegiance to the 39 principles of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness in a free 40 democracy while serving his country during the Vietnam War era, and upon the fulfillment of his sworn oath to faithfully defend 41 the Constitution of the United States against foreign and domestic 42 43 threats, he was honorably discharged from the Air Force and returned to Minter City to help his parents with farming duties, 44

69 few words, but when he did speak, he spoke with the sage wisdom 70 and sound logic of the ancestral elders; and

71 WHEREAS, one who possessed a keen understanding of the 72 importance of family, "Cliff" took great pleasure in spending time 73 with his wife, children and grandchildren, landscaping and 74 meticulously manicuring his yard, painting, taking on building 75 projects, watching "westerns," taking cathartic drives in his 76 truck, drinking Dr. Pepper, eating Cassie's homecooked meals, and 77 socializing with all who knew him; and

78 WHEREAS, though he has traversed life's river to now stand 79 upon the celestial shores in wonderment of Heaven's grandeur in 80 glorious reunion with the kindred spirits of loved ones who 81 transitioned before him, the memories of Mr. Collins will continue 82 to flourish in the hearts and minds of his survivors: his loving wife, Cassie Mae Osborne Collins; children, Kanika (Reginald) 83 84 Collins Sharp and Dr. Shani (Timothy) Collins Woods; Charles 85 Blanchard and Michael Blanchard; grandchildren, Sidney, Reginald II and Lailah Sharp; siblings, Ricky Collins, Ronnie (Brenda) 86 87 Collins, Ethel Day and Dr. Patricia (Arnhein) Cumbee; and a host 88 of relatives and friends; and

WHEREAS, we encourage the Collins family to find solace from these words recorded in II Corinthians 1:3-4, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we
